The seven sons of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan B. Newcomb, formerly of Medford and now of Gardena, Calif., honored their parents at a dinner which celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary. The dinner was held October 7 at the home of Russell Newcomb, Richmond, Calif., one of the Newcomb's sons.

Seven Sons Honor Parents At Golden Wedding Day Party

Gardena, Calif.—Mr. and Mrs. Nathan B. Newcomb, formerly of Medford and now of Gardena, Calif., were honored by their seven sons October 7 with a buffet dinner celebrating their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

The dinner, attended by all of their children, was held at the home of Russell Newcomb, in Richmond, Calif. Approximately 50 persons attended.

For the occasion Mrs. Newcomb wore a beige lace dress with white jacket and a white orchid corsage, a gift from her sister, Mrs. Robert R. Taylor of Portland.

Following the dinner a decorated cake was served. On the serving table chrysanthemums encircled the cake and was flanked by white tapers in crystal candelabra. A driftwood "tree," hung with gold foil-wrapped silver dollars completed the table decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. Newcomb were married October 10, 1906 in Iowa. From 1920 until 1920 they made their home in Medford where Mr. Newcomb was employed in the wood business, now the Medford Fuel company. Former members of the First Presbyterian church here, they spend their vacations in Medford besides making other trips to the area.

The Newcomb's sons who gathered at the home of Russell

Gold Hill Plans Halloween Party

Gold Hill — Amethyst Rebekah lodge of Gold Hill is planning the annual Halloween party for Gold Hill teachers. The Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Past Noble Grand's club, Rebekah Friendship club, Gold Hill Grange, Gold Hill Garden club, the Lions and Veterans of Foreign Wars all are participating in the program to be presented.

The party, for adults only, will be held at the IOOF Lodge hall at 8 p.m., October 25. Prizes will be given for the funniest costume man and woman and also for the most unusual costume. The best costumed couple will also receive a prize. Unmasking will be about 9 p.m. Every woman, with the exception of the teachers, is asked to bring a pie.

Methodist Women to Observe Week of Prayer, Self Denial

Highlight for the week for members of Woman's Society of Christian Service of First Methodist church will come at 10:15 a.m., Tuesday, October 23. At that time Mrs. J. W. Poage will conduct a special service in the church chapel for the week of prayer and self-denial being observed by Methodist women around the world.

Three Units Plan Coming Sessions; Law To Be Topic

Rogue Elk, Willow Springs and Medford Parents Home Extension units will hold meetings this week.

The meeting date of Medford Parents Home Extension unit has been changed to Monday, October 22, at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. William Jensen, 502 South Holly street.

Project for the evening will be given by Miss Maud Purvine, Corvallis, acting agent at large. The subject will be "Family Business and the Law."

Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Merle Scott and Mrs. Kenneth Phillips.

Anyone interested in home extension work is cordially invited to attend.

Anyone needing transportation call Mrs. L. E. McConnell, telephone 2-9130.

Willow Springs unit will meet Thursday, October 23, at the home of Mrs. John B. Cota at 10:30 a.m. The project, "Making Sofa Cushions," will be given by Mrs. Ray Vogel and Mrs. Archie Purdy.

Members are asked to bring dishes for a potluck dinner. Those whose last names begin with A through K are to bring the main dishes. L through P bring salads, R through T bring deserts, U through Z bring bread, pickles and relishes.

Rogue Elk unit will meet Wednesday, October 24, at 10:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. George Tockstein, Big Butte creek.

Mrs. Morris Bush will preside over the business meeting, and a lesson on making sofa cushions will be given by Mrs. Frank Dolenshek and Mrs. Asbjorn Myklebye. Luncheon will be served at noon by the hostesses, Mrs. Henry Schuder, Mrs. Myklebye and Mrs. George Tockstein.

Mexican children is being rebuilt to serve the 325 students who were enrolled at the time of the flood.

Also to receive aid from the gifts are the mission churches in Sumatra; leadership training institutes in Burma and Sarawak, Borneo; the formerly China-supported Methodist church in Sarawak; and Christian schools in the Philippines. Last year Methodist women in the United States gave $483,000 during this week of prayer and self-denial for world service projects.

The regular monthly meeting of the society will be held the same day with Mrs. R. T. Harrison conducting the worship service and Mrs. Jessie Minear in charge of the program entitled "Volcanoes in Southeast Asia." Characteristics and problems of countries of southeast Asia and the present situation of the church there will be described by members of the society.

Mrs. Ben Schmidt will present Formosa and Hong Kong; Mrs. Geneva Schwan, the Philippines; Mrs. Trough, the countries of Indonesia and Malaya; Mrs. L. B. Pierce, Sarawak; and Mrs. Oliver P. Taylor the country of Burma. At the close of the service a color film titled "Christian Roots in Southeast Asia" will be shown. This will picture schools, new villages, community projects, and refugee camps supported by Methodist women in Malaya, Burma and Hong Kong.

A nursery for babies and one for pre-school children will be provided free of charge and all members and friends are invited to attend the day's meetings. A luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m. by Mrs. Kenneth Knapp and members of Circle 11.
