

Land Management Bureau Sets Sale Of Timber Tract

One tract of Bureau of Land Management timber in the Trail Creek area will be offered for sale by the Medford district BLM office in the Medford city hall Nov. 15.

The tract contains an estimated 3,116,000 board feet. A special sale is planned for Oct. 25 for an estimated 82,000 board feet of salvage blow-down timber located near the proposed Howard Prairie reservoir site in Jackson county.

Cabax Mills of Grants Pass purchased two tracts of timber offered for sale on Oct. 18. The first tract, containing an estimated 1,806,000 board feet located on Tyceer creek in the Illinois Valley area, was purchased for $63,441.05. The second tract, containing an estimated 451,000 board feet located on Reeves creek, also in the Illinois Valley area was purchased for $17,948.95.

Douglas fir, the major species in both tracts, sold for $33.50 per thousand and $39.00 per thousand respectively in the two sales. Four bidders participated in the first sale and five in the second.

An advance notice of a proposed sale on Dec. 13 in the Jenny Creek area was also released by the bureau to allow prospective purchasers to examine the tract before access to the tract is closed by winter.

NEWS NOTES from Medford High School

Edited by James Boyd: Staff, Pat Minnis, Sharon Koch, Mike Travis and Charley Goodman.

"Crater week" leaped into full swing at Medford high last week. Crater editors hurried from place to place making sure the right pictures were taken at the proper time. A complex bell schedule interrupted classes, but the students didn't seem to mind. John Reeder, co-editor of the year book, complimented the students and teachers of Medford high for their fine co-operation this week.

Gene are the days of the mid-night painters. A new six foot tall sign will now advertise the Medford Black Tornado and loudly announce the three classes at MHS.

It is an "unofficial tradition" for loyal students to climb to the grandstand roof and paint their class numerals. The student council realized that if this tradition should be continued it had to be in an organized manner. Now approximately half finished, this attempt at stopping student sign painters adorns the old grandstand wall.

Thursday, the sophomore class elected officers for the year. Fred Funston was selected as president; Tony Monroe, vice president; Dawanda Winchell, secretary; Terry Hamilton, treasurer; and Shirley Lilly, sophomore class representative.

The band has been invited to the annual East-West Shrine game. This makes the sixth consecutive time that the MHS band has been asked to this classic event.

Mrs. Marina Gates, secretary to Glenn Jackson, vice president of Copco, spoke to a group of students interested in secretarial science. This is the first of 28 such vocational guidance talks scheduled for the students of Medford high.

All senior boys interested in the Navy Reserve Officers Training Corps will have the chance to hear Commander Mackie on this and the Navy scholarship program. Seniors interested will be excused at 9:30 a.m. Monday.

LAW OFFICES OF
BAKER & PARKER
HOOD RIVER, OREGON

To Whom it May Concern:

It has been suggested that I write about the qualifications of Mrs. Anna Mel lon Scott in so far as her work at Hood River is concerned.

I have been a resident of this County since 1912 and during this time have been a practicing Attorney at Law. Included in this period I was District Attorney for Hood River County from 1920 to 1940.

I have known Mrs. Scott all thru these years. Mrs. Scott left Hood River about April, 1935. Upon coming to Hood River she was employed by Hood River Abstract & Investment Company and for twelve years was in actual charge of and operated the offices of the company. When there came a vacancy of the office of the County Assessor, she served capably as temporary Assessor. During World War I she served as advisory in the County Clerk's office while the Clerk was serving in the Armed Forces and was employed at various times in the Sheriff's office. Mrs. Scott operated a very active real estate and insurance office for the owner while he was taking a year off from his work.

Mrs. Scott together with her husband operated a business of their own for a number of years here in Hood River before moving to Jackson County, and I can vouch for her efficiency in that business endeavor.

Mrs. Scott was the kind of a person who could be trusted and she was a very capable executive. I can unhesitatingly recommend her, both from my personal acquaintance with her and from what I know of her work.

Very truly yours,

John Baker
