Rip Engle Named Coach of Week

University Park, Pa. — (UPI) — He's been the dean of pessimists for years on this picturesque campus but this season he has been under "doctor's orders" to look on the brighter side. He has a football team that is making that task relatively easy. He's the United Press Coach of the Week, Charles (Rip) Engle, a kindly white-haired guy whose Penn State Nittany Lions subdued Ohio State's Scarlet Scurge, 7-6, Saturday in the upset of the year to date.

The Columbia Bar in Tampa's Latin Quarter boasts that it has been in operation daily since 1905. Iced tea and soft drinks were sold during Prohibition.

New York — (UPI) — Fraley's follies and the week end football "winners" — looking for an upset week end.

Game of the Week
Oklahoma over Notre Dame — No upset here. The Sooners would sooner beat Notre Dame worse than Michigan State did — and just might against an Irish team which can't seem to jell.

The East
West Virginia over Penn State — Looking for the Ohio State letdown.

Pitt over Oregon — The Panthers are panting again.

Yale over Colgate — Too much of everything.

Navy over Penn — Ending another winning streak of one.

Also: Syracuse over Boston U., Army over Columbia, Dartmouth over Harvard, Princeton over Cornell, Florida State over Villanova, Temple over Bucknell, Rutgers over Lehigh, Lafayette over Gettysburg and Brown over Rhode Island.

The Midwest
Michigan over Minnesota — One of those old-fashioned crunchers.

Michigan State over Illinois — On sheer finesse.

Purdue over Iowa — Shakily. Ohio State over Wisconsin — The big bounce.

Also: Northwestern over Indiana, Missouri over Iowa State, Colorado over Nebraska, Boston college over Detroit and Cincinnati over Marquette.

The West

Southern Cal over Stanford — Really underrated.

UCLA over Oregon State — Tough, lad, tough.

Washington over California — Anything goes.

Washington State over COP — A gallop.

Also: Wyoming over Kansas State, Utah over Idaho, Utah State over Brigham Young and New Mexico over Denver.

The South
Tennessee over Maryland — But they'll get going one of these weeks.

Georgia Tech over Tulane — Could be.

Duke over North Carolina State — Too much beef.

Mississippi State over Alabama — Real low tide.

Also: Florida over LSU, North Carolina over Wake Forest, Vanderbilt over Middle Tennessee, Clemson over South Carolina, Auburn over Houston, Virginia over Virginia Tech and W&M over George Washington.

The Southwest
Miami over Texas Christian — Swink, swank, swunk.

Baylor over Texas Aggies — The blueplate special.

Mississippi over Arkansas — A tough turkey shoot.

Rice over Texas — Without confidence.

Also: Tulsa over Hardin-Simmons, Arizona State over San Jose State, Kansas over Oklahoma A&M, and Texas Tech over Arizona.

J. Giardello Placed Again In Top Ten

New York — (UPI) — Joey (Bad Boy) Giardello of Philadelphia was boosted back into the top-10 middleweight rankings, at number six, today in the Ring magazine's latest ratings because of his "fighter-of-the-month" kayo victory over Bobby Boyd.

Firebrand Joey, one-time top contender who was dropped from the upper 10 last year after his losing encounter with cops and courts, knocked out Boyd of Chicago in the fifth round at Cleveland, Sept. 28.

That was only two days after the last previous ratings had been announced. It was his fifth straight comeback victory. Boyd's upset defeat dropped him from second to seventh.

Other changes in the active 160-pound division included: Charles Humez of France rose from fourth to second because of victories over Peter Mueller and Franco Festucci. Spider Webb of Chicago advanced from seventh to fourth, Rory Calhoun of White Plains, N.Y., edged up from sixth to fifth, and Eduardo Lausse of Argentina, knocked out and retired, was dropped from the ratings.

New Heavyweight

In the heavyweight class, Ingemar Johansson of Sweden crashed into the ratings for the first time — at number 10 — because he won the European championship on a knockout over Franco Caviochi of Italy. Johnny Summerlin of Detroit, formerly 10th, was dropped out.

Art Aragon of Los Angeles rose one notch from fourth to third among the welterweights, and Rudy Garcia of Los Angeles replaced Fred Galians of Spain at number 10 among the featherweights.

Tony Anthony of New York climbed from seventh to fifth among light heavyweight contenders, which include four Germans. Fill Nava of Mexico cracked the bantam list at number 10 and gave Mexico five contenders in the 118-pound class.

Here are the latest Ring Magazine ratings:

Heavyweight: Championship vacant. 1—Archie Moore. 2—Floyd Patterson. 3—Tommy Jackson. 4—Willie Parizano. 5—Bob Casale. 6—Charles Carter. 7—Eddie Machen. 8—John Holman. 9—Bob Satterfield. 10—Ingemar Johansson.

ICE STARS BEATEN

Providence, R. I. — (UPI) — The Rhode Island Reds were jubilant today following their 4-0 defeat of the league's finest for the first time in the third annual American Hockey league All-Star game.

Beavers Face Depth Shortage

Corvallis, Ore. — (UPI) — The Oregon State Beavers concentrated on defense today designed to stop UCLA's potent passing attack when the two teams tangle in Saturday's Homecoming game, according to Coach Tommy Prothro.

Biggest problem facing the beavers this week was a shortage of depth at most of the positions. The loss of veteran blocking back Ted Searle with a broken leg has depleted the number of lettermen available for the game to 12.

CAPTAIN NAMED

Brooklyn, N. Y. — (UPI) — Walt Adamusko, 6-foot, 6-inch, 220 pound forward, was appointed captain of the 1956-57 St. Francis basketball team today by Coach Danny Lynch. Adamusko was the third highest scorer for last season's team which reached the semi-finals of the National Invitation tournament at Madison Square Garden.

MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—ELEVEN

Daniels Praised After Duck Drill

Eugene, Ore. — (UPI) — Coach Len Casanova had three of his University of Oregon Ducks working out of the quarterback spot Tuesday as he prepared a passing attack for Saturday's game with the tough Pittsburgh Panthers.

Tom and Jack Crabtree and Roger Daniels alternated at the signal calling spot. Daniels, the number three man at the spot, drew praise for his aerial work from the Duck coaching staff.
