McLoughlin PTA Opens New Year At Session Thursday

McLoughlin Parent-Teacher association adopted a budget at the first meeting of the group held October 18 at the school. Mrs. Lloyd Parsons, president, conducted the meeting.

The Girls' chorus sang three numbers. Officers of the unit and members of the teaching staff were introduced.

It was announced that the unit now has 308 members.

"Back to school night" will be held at the school November 13, Tuesday, and the next regular meeting of the group will be in January.

Prospect Groups To Hold Dinner; Announce Event

Prospect—The annual turkey dinner for Prospect Lions club and the auxiliary will be held tonight at Beckie's cafe, Union Creek.

At the last meeting of the auxiliary, held at the home of Mrs. George Kinsky, Union Creek, reports on the recent auxiliary workshop in Grants' place were given.

It was announced that Prospect Lions club will hold a turkey shoot Sunday, November 18, in Prospect.

Women wore humorous hats as an entertainment feature. The birthdays of Mrs. Darwin Bevis and Mrs. Sidney Lund were observed.

Mrs. JoAnn Rochester was a visitor.

Matron to Visit Valley Chapters Of Eastern Star

Arriving in Medford tomorrow will be Mrs. Bertha O. Burton, Portland, worthy grand matron of the Order of Eastern Star for Oregon. Mrs. Burton will be honored at a district meeting of the OES to be held Thursday at 8 p.m. in Medford Masonic hall.

Four chapters will take part in the meeting, with Reames chapter, Medford, as the host group. Mrs. E. G. Randolph is worthy matron of the chapter. Participating will be Adarele chapter, Jacksonville, of which Mrs. Orville Shores is matron; Nevada chapter, Central Point, headed by Mrs. Melvin McGrew; matron, and Alpha chapter, Ashland, of which Mrs. R. E. Van Vleet is worthy matron.

Mrs. Burton will be honored at a banquet preceding the district session. It will be held in the Pioneer room at the Jackson hotel at 6 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Charley, Beall lane, are shown here working over a Grater Parent-Teacher association membership list. Mr. Charley is hospitality co-chairman with Mrs. Carl Hovey, and the two chairmen, along with other officers of the unit, interested more than 200 members in attending the first fall meeting of the unit last night. Mrs. C. B. Cordy is president.

Washington PTA Plans Scholarship

Washington Parent-Teachers association will award a full teaching scholarship to a Medford High school graduate this year, it was announced at the first meeting of the school year held October 19 at the school.

Members of the sixth grade class presented a "United Nations Day" play which will also be presented on television this week.

Staff teachers were introduced by Robert Sage, principal.

Mrs. John Hartsock, PTA president, introduced executive board members.

Mrs. Graves, first grade, won the room count for most mothers in attendance.

Girl Scout Troop 180, led by Mrs. Victor Taylor, presented the colors and also helped the "study group" with baby sitting during the meeting.

Mothers of children in the first grade served refreshments.

Medford Lodge Has Harvest Ball

The Harvest ball given by Medford Elks last Saturday night drew a capacity attendance. The Starlighters, 10-piece band from Klamath Falls, provided music.

Dancing was in the lodge room, decorated in the harvest theme, and a buffet supper was served in the party lounge downstairs.

Ed Nave was chairman of the committee which planned the dance, and he was assisted by C. J. Niehaus, James Grigsby Jr., and Bill Towne.

Lutheran Youth Organize Group

An Intermediate Lutheran league was organized at Zion Lutheran church last Sunday evening. The group is for young people of seven and eighth grade age.

Miss Patty Brewold was elected president, and Eric Ewaldsen, vice-president. Kip Jepson is secretary; Jerry Timms, treasurer and Miss Barbara Meyers, program chairman.

Sponsors of the group are Mr. and Mrs. William Gates and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Davis.

Class Announces Freshman Frolics Friday Evening

Ashland—Southern Oregon college freshmen will hold a Freshman Frolics Friday, October 26 in the auditorium of Churchill hall. The event begins at 9 p.m. and both dancing and games are planned. Bob Anderson's trio will play, and refreshments will be served.

Students are asked to wear hard times or Halloween costumes, and prizes for the most original, the funniest and most typical will be awarded. Medford merchants are supplying the prizes.

Miss Dolores Shuler, Medford, is general chairman. Miss Carol Ballard, Medford, is chairman of decorations, and Miss Sonja Smith, refreshments. Larry Qualman, Empire, Ore., is publicity chairman and the Misses Barbara Maxson and Joanne Hult, both Medford, will take charge of games. Miss Schuler arranged music, and Miss Susie Lee, Roseburg, is invitations chairman.

Miss Shuler states that no charge will be made for the party.

Dr. Alvin Fellers is class advisor.
