

Truman Declares GOP Fights for Too Little After It Is Too Late

San Francisco—(UPI)—Former President Harry S. Truman told a union convention here today that the Republican party "has not blocked progress altogether" but "drags its feet and fights for too little after it is too late."

He said the Eisenhower administration had:

Tried to hold minimum wage increases down to 90 cents instead of $1.

Stalled action on federal aid to education for three years, then offered a bill inadequate to do the job.

Promise Said Unfulfilled

And never made good President Eisenhower's promise to remove "the union busting provisions from the Taft-Hartley act."

Mr. Truman said the President's goals for public housing "have been lower than Senator Taft's."

The former chief executive's talk was prepared for delivery before a convention meeting of the Bakery and Confectionery Workers International Union.

"The danger is that, as Republicans continue their policies of favoring the privileged few," Mr. Truman said, "more and more of the little people will fall by the wayside."

"The wage earner will join the farmer and the small businessman on the toboggan of falling incomes. The gaps in our prosperity will get bigger and bigger," he warned.

"No man knows where it will end, but in the distance I see the glimmer of another 1929."

Mr. Truman also predicted that, should the Eisenhower-Nixon ticket produce a November victory, "the center of power would shift from Eisenhower to Nixon, and that would make matters worse."

"You may have difficulty in picturing Richard Nixon as President of the United States," he said. "I hope you do because the presidency of the United States is the greatest and most honorable office in the history of the world."

"I hope you will always hold it in such esteem that you will have difficulty in imagining it being occupied by a man like that."

In Salt Lake City Wednesday night, Mr. Truman said the "clumsy diplomacy" of John Foster Dulles and "amiable platitudes" of President Eisenhower had caused the alliance of

Kefauver To Give Stevenson Report On Party Progress

En Route With Kefauver—(UPI)—Sen. Estes Kefauver—(UPI)—with Adlai E. Stevenson today to give an optimistic report on Democratic prospects across the country.

The vice presidential and presidential candidates were scheduled to meet today for the first time in more than three weeks in Springfield, Ill., after Kefauver stumps through Dayton and Springfield, Ohio.

Kefauver said he on his latest cross-country trip he found support was "picking up fast" for the Stevenson-Kefauver ticket.

In a speech prepared for a rally in Springfield, Ohio, Kefauver said when President Eisenhower and Vice President Richard M. Nixon talk about peace, progress and prosperity, "they are talking about a shaky peace, unsteady prosperity and no progress at all."

Since Mr. Eisenhower took over, he said "the profits of giant corporations have skyrocketed 61 per cent."

free nations to disintegrate more than "the Communists with all their intrigue and violence..."
