Double Ceremony in Medford Home Marries Brides to Twin Brothers

Miss Harriette Gayle Sweeney and Miss Bertha Belle Allen became the brides of Dale Gene Copley and Donald Dean Copley, Monday, October 15, in an 8 o'clock evening double wedding rites. The Rev. James Neeley of First Baptist church, officiated at the double ring ceremony at the home of Miss Sweeney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Sweeney, 714 Beckman avenue.

Miss Allen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Hoover, Route 2, Box 47A, Central Point, and was married to Donald Dean Copley. The bridegrooms are the twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Copley, Route 1, Box 115, Eagle Point.

The ceremony was held before a large heart-shaped arch decorated with greenery and maple leaves in autumn colors. Two baskets of chrysanthemums in autumn colors flanked the arch. Mrs. James Neeley played the wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Sweeney chose a white knit suit with pink accessories. She was given in marriage by her brother, Hugh A. Huntley. Both brides carried white carnations tied with pink ribbon on white Bibles, gifts from the bridegrooms.

Matron of honor for the two brides was Mrs. James L. McDaniel, sister of Miss Sweeney. She wore a rose knit suit and carried white carnations.

James Lee McDaniel served both bridegrooms as best man. Michel Copley, cousin of the bridegroom, ushered.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Sweeney home for 65 friends and relatives of the newlyweds. Miss Jean Coppedge cut and served the tiered wedding cake. Miss Ruth Hunter served the punch. Mrs. Fred Landers was in charge of the guest book for Miss Sweeney while Mrs. Hugh Huntley attended the guest book for Miss Allen.

For the wedding Mrs. Hoover and Mrs. Copley chose suits in aquamarine color while Mrs. Sweeney wore a pink knit suit. All had corsages of white carnations.
