Recent Ceremony Marries Couple

Miss Dorothy MacMetsker, 128 South Holly street, became the bride of Elvin Carl Wolgamott, Wednesday, October 3, at a 9 o'clock morning ceremony held in the First Methodist church in Reno, Nevada. The Rev. Stephen C. Thomas officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Miss MacMetsker is the daughter of C. W. Lough, Bakersfield, Calif. Mr. Wolgamott is the son of Mrs. Vance Wolgamott, Nehalem, Ore.

For her wedding the bride wore a blue silk dress and carried a nosegay of white carnations.

Attending the couple were the bridegroom's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wolgamott, Reno.

The bride is employed by Leon's Tots to Teens shop. Mr. Wolgamott is employed by Medford corporation.

Wyoming Still Likes Women In Politics

Cheyenne, Wyo.—(U.P.)—Wyoming—where the first woman's suffrage bill was enacted in 1869—continues to believe in having the ladies in politics.

Two of the state's top elective jobs are held by women—auditor and state superintendent of public instruction.

Nellie Taylor Ross of Wyoming was the nation's first woman governor in 1924-26, and many women have been elected to the Wyoming legislature.

Production Dates Given for Drama

Production dates for "The Devil Passes", by Benn Levy, have been announced by Footlighters' president, Mrs. Max Wimmer. The religious comedy will be produced by the local little theatre group on the evenings of November 8, 9, and 10. It will be repeated the following week on November 15, 16 and 17.

"From past experience, we know that many of our patrons prefer attending the plays on the last three evenings of the week," Mrs. Wimmer explained.

"We hope, by using this method of booking, to be able to give stimulating entertainment to more people in our community," she added.

Richard Graham, who is directing the play, will also appear in one of the roles. James Sullivan, who has not been seen on the local stage for several years, is a member of the cast which includes Frankie Burton, Ruth Kilbourne, Colleen Romine, Charlene Tarvin, Thayer Tarvin, Les Boardman, and Clyde Wheaton.

Return

Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Erickman, 231 South Holly street, have returned home after spending two weeks at the Riviera hotel in Las Vegas, Nevada.

On their return trip they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Erickson in Palo Alto, Calif., and with other friends in the bay area.

Sojourners Learn of Hat Styles

A program featuring hats was presented for Medford Sojourners' club at a meeting October 25 at the Pythian hall. Mrs. Clay Lee, who was in charge of the program, introduced Mrs. Fred Strang from Burelson's Millinery department. Mrs. Strang talked on the new hat styles, the type of hat to wear for all occasions and stressed the importance of an appropriate hat to complete the costume of a well dressed woman. Several new fall and winter hats of satin, velvet and beaver trimmed with ostrich plumes and feathers were shown to the members.

The program was completed with the modeling of old hats and comical hats by past presidents of the club, introduced by Mrs. Lee.

Those modeling were Mrs. A. Gene Stout, Mrs. F. E. Cantrell, Mrs. E. F. Cronin, Mrs. Esther Coleman, Mrs. H. J. Boyd, Mrs. Ted Quinn, Mrs. George Lovenberg, Mrs. John Mansfield and Mrs. Meredith Parsons. A special award was given to Mrs. Boyd for the most comical hat modeled.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Donald Jones, Mrs. W. T. Fasel and Mrs. James Mitchell. The table was attractively decorated in chrysanthemums of pastel shades.

New members welcomed into the club were Mrs. William Iseli and Mrs. R. E. Culbertson. Prospective members attending were Mrs. Frank Cook and Mrs. Marvin Yost.

Guests present were Mrs. Stanley Horton and Mrs. Joseph Li Bassi of Berkeley, Calif.

A special award was given to Mrs. O. W. Larson.

During the business meetings plans were completed for a dinner dance to be held November 10th at the Ashland Elks club in Ashland. Reservations may be made before Nov. 1 by calling Mrs. Marvin Nelson, 2-2694; Mrs. Jim Winslow, 3-4391; Mrs. Frank Stratton, 2-5585, or Mrs. Vincent Nicoletti, 3-1406.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent playing cards. Bridge prizes were won by Mrs. A. N. Construk and Mrs. D. C. Goodman, pinochle prizes went to Mrs. J. H. Parker and Mrs. Ernest Dittmer, and canasta prizes to Mrs. Clarence Staley and Mrs. Howard Kennett.

The next meeting of the club will be November 1st at the Pythian hall at 12:30 p.m. All newcomers to Medford and vicinity who have lived here less than two years are cordially invited to attend the meetings and become members of the club.
