Temperatures should be kept low when cooking cheese dishes. For oven casseroles, 350 degrees is right. Try putting a casserole in a pan of hot water to keep the bottom and sides from overcooking before the center is done.

Vary muffins by adding finely chopped cooked bacon to the dry ingredients before adding the liquid. Also, try a teaspoon of jelly, jam or marmalade on top the muffins before putting them in the oven.

Rites Held In Longview For Couple

Mrs. Merle L. Vance, 714 Narregan street, traveled to Rainier, Ore., last weekend to attend the marriage of her younger son, Kenneth Vance, to Miss Karen Stiener, Rainier, Saturday evening, October 20.

The rites were read by the Rev. Gebbert, pastor of the Community church of Longview, Wash. The simple ceremony was conducted in the chapel of the Longview church with only members of the immediate families and close friends attending.

A reception following the ceremony was held in the Rainier Grade school auditorium. About 50 friends and relatives were present.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Esther Stiener, Rainier, and Joe Steiner, Seattle, Wash. She was graduated from the Rainier High school with the class of 1956 and is employed in the office of an attorney, Joe Walker, in Rainier.

Mr. Vance is a graduate of Medford Senior High school with the class of 1953, and is a former employee of the Medford Mail Tribune. The bridegroom lived here all of his life until the completion of his schooling in 1953, when he moved to Rainier where he has been employed by his father, Cecil Vance, at the Good at Rainier Sand and Gravel company of that city.

His older brother, Elbert, is stationed with the U. S. Navy in Sasebo, Japan.

After the reception the couple traveled to Seattle for a honeymoon. They will make their home in Rainier.

Autumn Salad
Timely autumn salad combines cool green cucumbers and bright red apples and is equally delicious served with meat, fish or fowl. Start by cutting two unpeeled red Delicious apples into bite-sized wedges. Slice or dice two cucumbers. Blend together two tablespoons lemon juice and two tablespoons mayonnaise and add to the apples and cucumbers. Season with salt and toss lightly until well mixed. Serve on crisp greens and sprinkle lightly with paprika. Serves 4.
