

Goddard-Roush Ceremony Held in California Church

Hills, Calif. — Miss Josephine E. Roush and Carlos A. Goddard were married Saturday afternoon October 20 the rites being solemnized at St. Mark's Episcopal church in Yreka, Calif. Members of both families and a few close friends were present.

The double ring ceremony read by the Rev. John L. Thompson III of Trinity Episcopal church, Ashland, Ore., was performed before an altar banked with white stock and baskets of white gladiolus and lighted by white tapers.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Roush, Hills and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Goddard, Talent, Ore.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of white lace over nylon net, with a lace bolero. Her fingertip length veil was held by a tiny cap of lace and satin, ornamented with seed pearls and sequins. She carried a white prayer book with yellow roses.

Mrs. Barbara Johnson was her sister's only attendant. She wore an aquamarine gown of identical style with a white sequin hat and opera gloves. She carried pink carnations.

Louise and Elizabeth Johnson, nieces of the bride and flower girls, were dressed alike in nylon dresses of rosebud print with white hats. They carried white umbrellas baskets filled with pink and white carnations.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Roush wore a deep blue afternoon frock with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a black faille dress and profile hat. Her corsage was also of white carnations.

Mr. Goddard served as best man for his son, Peter Thomas, Yreka, was usher.

Miss Christine Behnke, Yreka, supplied the traditional wedding music.

A wedding reception and champagne dinner was held later in the afternoon at the Roush home. The bride's table was laid with a hand-embroidered Italian cloth and the centerpiece was of white gladiolus and blue candles. The cake was baked and decorated by the bride's mother.

The newlyweds spent a honeymoon on the coast, and have left for southern California where the bridegroom, an airman third class with the United States Air Force, reported for duty. For

Masonic Lodge To Mark Week

George Allingham, worshipful master of Medford lodge, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, has announced that Medford lodge would participate in Public Schools week. A program will be held in the Masonic temple Saturday November 10.

Musical numbers will be supplied by members of Medford, Senior High school orchestra under direction of John Drysdale and by groups from both Bethel 14 and Bethel 55, International Order of Jobs Daughters. Members of Medford chapter of the Order of DeMolay will also take part in the program.

The principal address will be delivered by Ralph T. Moore, Grants Pass, most worshipful grand master of Masons in Oregon.

The meeting will be open to all Masons, their families and friends and will be followed by light refreshments in the dining room.

Traveling the bride chose a blue suit with a white orchid corsage.

The bride attended Hills schools, and was graduated from Yreka High school in 1954. She has been employed in the office of Fruit Growers Supply company.

A tempting salad can be made of crabmeat and fresh, crispy red apples, lightly accented with lemon to bring out the fine flavors. Select a tender eating apple variety like red Delicious which may be used without peeling. Allow two large apples to serve four. Cut unpeeled apples into bite-sized pieces and dip in lemon juice. To two cups fresh or canned crabmeat, add three stalks celery, chopped. Moisten with one-third cup mayonnaise and season to taste with salt and pepper. Add apple wedges and serve on crisp salad greens with mayonnaise or Prescription Filling Demands Specialized Knowledge!

All drug stores are not equipped to fill prescriptions. Hence Doctors select those finer stores which maintain a competent staff of Registered Pharmacists to fill the prescriptions they write. For many years WE have made a proud specialty of prescription filling and modestly say we are the leading prescription fillers of this city. If you wish to verify this statement, ask your good Doctor. And whenever you have a prescription to be filled, think of us first. You'll be pleased with our accuracy and prompt service!

Medford Pharmacy, Inc.

We Are Open Today — 11:00 a.m. to 10:30 p.m.
PHONE 2-6253 127 EAST SIXTH

Mrs. Fred A. Daugherty (at left) Oregon department president of the Daughters of Union Veterans, was honored at a reception last Sunday given by Elita Deuel Hubbs tent, Medford, to which she belongs. The reception was held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Shirrell Doty, 46 Keeneway drive, who is department secretary. Pictured (left to right) are Mrs. Daugherty, Mrs. Ruth Plummer, Roseburg, department inspector; Mrs. Laura Rodlund, Portland, department council No. 2, and Mrs. Doty.

Daughters Give Reception For Department President

Elita Deuel Hubbs tent, Daughters of Union Veterans, honored Mrs. Fred A. Daugherty, Medford, department president, and her staff at a reception last Sunday afternoon. It was held at the home of Mrs. Shirrell Doty, 46 Keeneway drive, Mrs. Daugherty's daughter who is also department secretary.

Pouring during the afternoon were Mrs. Walter Kindred and Mrs. L. Scheffel, both 25-year honor members of the order, Mrs. O. M. Wendel, Mrs. Cleve Farris, Mrs. J. B. Carr and Mrs. John Buchanan, Mrs. William Milnes took charge of the gift table and Mrs. M. S. Mallory the guest book.

Tall tapers in crystal candelabra flanked the center arrangement on the tea table, decorated in a patriotic motif.

The hostess committee consisted of Mrs. Elmer Gott, president of the Medford tent; Mrs. Clarence Hershiser, senior vice-president; Mrs. George Ware, patriotic instructor; Mrs. Otto Kohler, assistant chaplain. Other members of the local group greeted the guests and assisted about the rooms.

Here for the event were Mrs. Earl Lawhead, Portland, national patriotic instructor; Mrs. Ruth Plummer, Roseburg, department inspector and Mrs. Laura Rodlund, Portland, department council member 2.

Among the most popular party dips for dunking butter crackers, potato chips, corn chips or raw vegetables is this bacon-cream cheese combination. Combine one 8-ounce package Philadelphia cream cheese and 3 tablespoons mayonnaise, mixing until smooth and well-blended. Add 2 tablespoons horseradish and 2 tablespoons chopped cooked bacon and blend well.

Medford, department president of the auxiliary to United Spanish War Veterans, was among the guests. Other patriotic and fraternal groups represented were Veterans of Foreign Auxiliary, Veterans of World War I auxiliary, Gold Star Mothers, Blue Star Mothers of America, Navy Mothers, Olive Rebekah lodge, Medford IOOF lodge.

The Oregon department is made up of 14 tents, five of which were represented. Out-of-town delegations came from Roseburg, Grants Pass, Eugene, Portland and Vancouver.

Music was provided by Miss Oveta Walden, and Miss Sharon Roberts, who played accordion numbers, and Mrs. Eloise Winkelbieck, who sang by request.

FREE!

FOR ALL LADIES

INTERESTED IN THE

NEW WAY TO WASH AND DRY CLOTHES

Miss Nancy Johnson

Don't Miss This Home Laundry Clinic! COME PREPARED TO ASK QUESTIONS

A Special

Home Laundry Clinic

Has been arranged with

MISS NANCY JOHNSON

An authority on Home Laundry and Equipment

SEE THE NEW

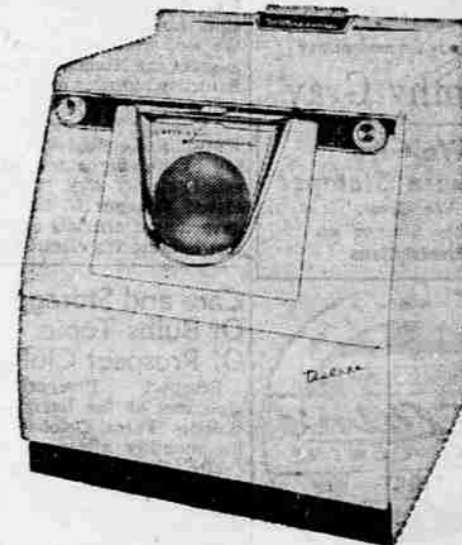

Westinghouse WASH 'N DRY

Completely automatic machine in action and learn the true way to wash and dry!

Tuesday, Oct. 30

From 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at TROWBRIDGE & FLYNN
From 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. at BIG Y APPLIANCE DEPT.

YOU CAN BE SURE...IF IT'S Westinghouse

TROWBRIDGE & FLYNN ELECTRIC COMPANY

214 West Main Street

Phone 2-5211

BIG Y APPLIANCE DEPARTMENT

In Big Y Shopping Center

Phone 3-3052

Now is the time to start a Portrait Record of your children

Tomorrow is too late... for children change from day to day as the world unfolds before them. So, if you want to keep your memories of today alive... with something real... have their professional portraits made now. And resolve on this day each year to add another portrait. In time to come, these will be heart-warming memories to which you will turn again and again. Drop in or call for an appointment now.

For All Your Photographic Needs... It's...

Brainerd's

CAMERAS PHOTOGRAPHS
120 East Main St.

PHONE 2-5238