Fire Damages Reum Home

By R. E. NEALON
Table Rock — The Dick Reum home was badly damaged by fire early Sunday morning when fire from a faulty fire place ignited the wall paper. Flames traveled up to the ceiling and were blazing through the roof when discovered by two passing boys from the Beagle district. The boys, thinking there was no one at home, hurried to the Aubrey Taylor home, reported the fire to the Central Point Rural fire department and returned to the Reum home, accompanied by Taylor. After kicking in the door, they succeeded in awakening the Reum family, who were asleep in a back bedroom. Fire trucks from the city of Central Point and Central Point rural fire departments responded and soon controlled the fire. There were no injuries to the occupants, but the center section of the house was burned out and the furniture badly damaged. A crew of carpenters are now rebuilding and repairing the home and will have it ready in about six weeks. The Reum family, is now staying with relatives in Medford. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tyrell and Mrs. Julia Dow, of Lake creek, were Tuesday visitors here. They report that a flurry of snow visited their district Monday night. Mr. and Mrs. Stoddard of Butte Falls were here the first of the week, and reported some snow fell there Tuesday morning. Mr. Stoddard operates a hardware store there, but is quitting business. Mrs. Eva McCoy of Carmichael, Calif., and her sister, Mrs. Robert Quink, of Alameda, Calif. visited old time friends here, and throughout the valley last Wednesday. These two ladies were known

BUTTE FALLS

Ground Observers Needed

By MARY JO HARRIS
Butte Falls — Organization of a Ground Observer post in Butte Falls was discussed at a meeting of city council members Friday, Oct. 25. Sgt. Paulson, of the U.S. Air Force, was present to discuss the full operation of a ground watch. Sgt. Paulson plans to return to distribute literature and show films at a public meeting. Residents interested in giving two hours every two weeks as "a helping hand" to their country are asked to attend this meeting. Notification as to the exact date and time of the meeting will be given at a later date. A shelter with a direct telephone line to fighter base will be provided by the government. Queen Coronation will be one of the many highlights of the School Carnival to be held Friday evening, Nov. 8, at the high school gym. Queen candidates are: Bonnie McKeen, Freshman; Linda Hawkins, Sophomore; Juanita Sheppard, Junior; and Kay Brown, Senior. Votes will be cast by sale of tickets to be used in Carnival booths. Mr. L. O. Machlan, superintendent of schools here, reported that grade school and high school boys participating in athletics will receive complete physical examinations next Tuesday morning, October 30. They will be given by Dr. Robert DeLorme of Medford. A birthday party was given in honor of five-year-old Terry Lou McDonald at her home last week. Hostesses were her mother, Mrs. Bruce McDonald, and her grandmother, Mrs. Fred Rankin. Mrs. Rankin, mother of Mrs. McDonald, is a resident of Medford and made a short visit for this special occasion. Games were played, favors given, gifts were opened, and birthday cake and ice cream in that age bracket this year. In 1953 there were 65, in 1954 there were 60, and in 1955 only 49. Starting with the year '53, the succeeding years have shown a gradual decrease. The census showing that we are now 25 less than in 1953. Some 25 persons, including several visitors, attended the community meeting at the school house Friday night. A sextet from the West main Church of Christ, of Medford, furnished several numbers. A committee was appointed to arrange for the annual Thanksgiving dinner.

Motion for Dismissal Filed in Court Here

District Attorney Walter D. Nunley Friday filed a motion in district court for dismissal of two assault and battery charges against Virgil L. Moon, 45, Jacksonville. The complaints, signed by Moon's wife, Velma, on the advice of her attorney, Hugh Collins, accused him of assaulting Mrs. Moon and her daughter at their home on Oct. 3. District Judge Rawles Moore issued warrants for his arrest. Moon was subsequently arraigned and released on his own recognizance. According to Nunley, Mrs. Moon had asked the district attorney's office to prosecute the case. He said her request was denied because he felt the case was a matter for the domestic relations courts and it would not be in public interest for him or his deputies to take action. His motion was on the same grounds. He said the complaints arose from a domestic quarrel. Ideas about family fun that youngsters and grown-ups can enjoy together are available in books at the Medford Public library. Rodgers. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rodgers and sons, Jimmy and Johnny, will leave Butte Falls this week-end to move to Toketee falls, where Jack will work for Copco. The Rodgers, who are selling their home, have been here many years and friends will hate to see them leave.

here as the Hall girls, and are all that is left of the five members of the G. P. Hall family, residents of this community some forty years ago. The Halls were active in religious and social life here. The family lived on what is now known as the Orville Hamilton farm and Hall was an employee of Modoc Orchards for many years. Dean English arrived here Friday evening from his home near San Francisco, and expects to return Sunday, taking his wife and two young sons, Craig and Michael, who have been spending the past week at the J. L. Nealon home. Early Sunday morning, Clayton Palmer, one of the Modoc crew discovered a nice fat buck deer asleep in the Modoc orchard near the buildings, and being no hunter himself, he hurried to the home of John Dickey, the chief nimir of the Modocs, and told of his find. John went on the double to get into his hunting boots and pick up his trusty rifle, tags, and other paraphernalia. When he got to the place, the deer had awakened and was on its feet, but with the help of Palmer and James Vanderpool, who drove it around to him, he managed to bring it down. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Guthrie, who recently moved from Brookings, Ore., where Mr. Guthrie was Superintendent of Harris and Azalia State Parks, are now settled in their new home at Tou Velle park, where Mr. Guthrie is superintendent. He was transferred here when Walter Timm was sent to Chiloquin, in Klamath county. The Guthries have two children. The little striped animal, with the beady eyes and a supply of perfume always on tap, has been a bone of contention in our life ever since we can remember. A few months ago one of these little marauders got into the pen with our bantam and killed half of her brood of turkeys. Our bantam, who is not the "soil bank kind, believes in hatching something when she sits, and put up a terrific battle trying to save her offspring, but there were too many to keep under her wings. A few nights ago a motorist ran over one of these animals on the race track a few feet from our front gate and as our better half insists, on sleeping with the bedroom window open, we got full measure, which was as bad, or worse, than the fog from the county mosquito control machine. According to Mrs. Everett Brown, nose counter of children of school age in what used to be district 44, there are just 40
