Oklahomans Head College Grid Stats

New York — (U.P.)—Oklahoma, the nation's top team also leads the country's college football teams in points scored and yardage gained.

The Sooners, after completing half of their 10-game schedule, have averaged 44.2 points a game while compiling an average of 414.6 yards per contest.

Navy is the only other team to average over 400 yards a game with 404.6. The Midshipmen ran past Pennsylvania last Saturday for 488 yards, enabling them to move from sixth to second place in a week. Completing the top five in total offense are Southern California, Washington State and Hardin-Simmons.

Oklahoma has also demonstrated the best running attack among major schools with a 346.6 per game average. More than 30 yards behind the Sooners in second place is Southern California, followed by Ohio State, Army and Virginia Tech.

Pacific Coast teams have taken a strong hold on forward pass honors. Washington State leads the country with an aerial average of 234 yards per game. Trailing the Cougars are Stanford, San Jose State, College of Pacific and the lone eastern entry, Navy.

New York — (U.P.)—A six-man committee has been formed to "save the minors" but baseball Commissioner Ford Frick said today it has not been set up to "hand out a half million dollars recklessly."

Frick said up to $500,000 has been pledged by the majors, not as a subsidy, but more as a "bank" where distressed minor leagues may go for help. In some cases, he said, there may be grant-in-aid, in others the money merely will be loaned.

"I imagine that the members will hear hardship cases and determine each one on its merits," Frick said.

Chicago — (U.P.)—Carlo Sarlo, a Chicago truck driver who has had only 26 pro fights, makes his first television appearance tonight against veteran welterweight Joe Miceli, winner of 50 pro battles who has been on television 16 times.

Miceli, 27, though beaten 26 times, was a slight favorite for the bout. Sarlo, 24, who has lost five outings, has scored only three knockouts and has had few fights outside Chicago, although he was rated a speedy boxer.

Miceli has campaigned recently as a middleweight, but said he would have no trouble scaling down to 146 pounds for this bout. Sarlo never has weighed over 145.

Boston — (U.P.)—The Boston Red Sox announced Tuesday that they will not renew Coach Mickey Owen's contract for the 1957 season. They explained they intend to carry four instead of five coaches next year.

More than 90 percent of all domestic shipments in packages are made in one of many types of containers of paper or paper fiber content.

Schopf To Greet Raider Cage Aspirants Thursday

Ashland—Coach Ted Schopf, head basketball mentor for the Red Raiders the past 10 years, will officially greet a turnout of what is estimated 35 basketball hopefuls Thursday evening when the lid goes off for the beginning basketball campaign.

The Red and Black Raiders will play all their games in the college field house until the first of the year. After that, they will play their remaining schedule, largely conference games, in the Ashland High school gym.

Ted Schopf will have another rough year to look forward to in basketball. Last year the Raiders won 13 and lost 13. And with the greater portion of this year's turnout, ex-high school stars and college freshmen, Coach Schopf will have a big rebuilding job to do.

Missing from last year's third place team in the OCC, are Hal Titus, Guy Munsell, Punk Biddington, Gene DePuy, Jim Carille, and two year first string all-conference forward Lloyd Hoffine. Schopf's biggest chore will be trying to replace Hoffine, who turned out to be the highest scorer on the Red Raider team for a four year period with 1572 points. Hoffine always ranked near the top in the Northwest in scoring and had one of the deadliest push shots in basketball.

Also missing from the Raider roster until January 1, is Bill Hollingsworth, another high scoring forward who is ineligible scholastically.

Cross-town rivalries this week wind up the football seasons for Medford junior high school eighth and ninth graders.

McLoughlin and Hedrick eighth graders are foes on Thursday at 3:30 p.m. on the Hedrick field. Ninth graders of the two schools clash at the same time out at McLoughlin on Friday.

McLoughlin eleven each scored triumphs in the previous meetings at the start of the season. Bulldog eighth graders won 21 to 12 and the ninth 20 to 0.

South Bend, Ind.—(U.P.)—Mrs. Mary Louise Brennan, wife of Notre Dame football Coach Terry Brennan, gave birth to a daughter in St. Joseph hospital Monday night. The Brennans now have two girls and a boy.

The highway that runs along the Gulf of Mexico from Louisiana to Florida is still generally known today as the Old Spanish trail.

Prospective sponsors of cars and drivers particularly are asked to attend.

There will be a Dutch lunch. Bryant said.

Philadelphia — (U.P.)—The Philadelphia Phillies announced Tuesday that they will not renew Coach Gabe Paul's contract for the 1957 season. They explained they intend to carry four instead of five coaches next year.

New Castle, Me.—(U.P.)—"Be happy as much as you can and have a little row once in a while," advised Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Dodge as they celebrated their 70th wedding anniversary. Mrs. Dodge, 90, smiled at her 91-year-old spouse as she added: "We haven't had too many, but we've had a few good ones."

Denver, Tenn.—(U.P.)—Fuzzy, a cat owned by Mrs. C. B. Cantrell, didn't eat all the mice she killed. When the Cantrells finished emptying their corn crib, they found 92 mice Fuzzy had caught.
