Brotherhood To Be Topic Of Program

Geoffrey Hemingway of London, England, who is to speak to the Medford Council of Church Women Friday, November 2, in First Christian church, has chosen as his topic for the afternoon "Christian Brotherhood at Work in a Divided Korea." Mr. Hemingway is being presented as part of the observance of World Community Day and his speaking tour is under the sponsorship of the American Friends Service Committee. Mr. Hemingway has just completed three years of leadership for the Friends Service unit in Kunsan, Korea under the joint sponsorship of the British Friends Service Council and the American Friends Service Committee. He is familiar with relief and rehabilitation programs of that area and with the special problems now confronting the Korean people.

Mr. Hemingway is a graduate of the London School of Economics, University of London. He served with the Friends Ambulance unit in Italy during World War II and in 1945-46 was on the staff of the Italian Mission in UNRRA. He will tell of his work as related to the administration of medical, welfare and housing programs.

Mrs. Wilbur Arnold, chairman that a speaking choir from Hedrick Junior High school will participate in the program. Mrs. Charles Adamson will be at the organ and Mrs. Ralph Mallick and Mrs. Gloria Smith will sing a duet selection. Mrs. George Rode will tell of the purpose and service of the Council of Church Women.

All interested persons are invited to attend the day's activities which open at 10 o'clock with business and election of officers followed by potluck luncheon at noon. The program will begin at 1 o'clock in the church sanctuary.

Ministers of the Valley are invited to be special guests for the luncheon and afternoon program. Ministers assisting during devotional periods will be the Rev. John Taylor of St. Luke's Methodist church, the Rev. Raymond Hurn of the Nazarene church and the Rev. William C. Piper of the hostess church.

Women of First Christian church will maintain a nursery in order that young mothers may attend.

Grange to Hold Festival Dinner In Central Point

Central Point — Plans have been completed by the Central Point Grange for the annual harvest festival dinner which will be held at the Grange hall in Central Point Thursday, November 8, from 6 to 8 p.m. The public is invited.

This year's menu will feature roast turkey and all the "trimmings," including home made jams, jellies and pickles. Co-chairmen for the event are Mrs. Gaston Flux and Mrs. John Niedermeier. A country store featuring homemade cakes, candies and many products of the farm and garden will be located on the main floor of the grange hall and will be in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Weidman and Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Smith.

Tickets for the dinner will be available at the door.

Two Groups Plan For Coming Visit Of State Officer

Plans for the visit of the state president, Mrs. Velma Stolsig, Eugene, on November 16, were made at a meeting of Siskiyou canton, Patriarchs Militant, and the auxiliary, held last Friday at the Odd Fellows hall. Members of the two groups will meet Friday, November 2, at 8 p.m. at the hall, to practice in preparation for the event.

Mrs. E. D. Dameron, auxiliary president, and Capt. W. H. Dyer of the canton, conducted last Friday's sessions, which followed a covered dish supper.

The supper committee was Mesdames A. H. Gregory and Minnie Bryant.

Mrs. O. S. Walden, Mrs. P. M. Aldredge, Mrs. Gregory and Mrs. L. O. Howard make up a committee to select a gift for the state officer. Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Pease will entertain her in their home.

The auxiliary held nomination of officers. Nominated were Mrs. George Nichols, Ashland, president; Mrs. Floyd Murray, vice-president; Mrs. Lewis Thompson, secretary; Mrs. Howard, treasurer.

Mrs. Pense installed Mrs. Margaret Davis as guard, with Mrs. Walden assisting during the ceremony.

Speaker to Talk On Arab-Jewish Strife November 8

Paul B. Johnson, who spent five years in the Arab world, will speak Thursday, November 8, for Medford chapter, Oregon United Nations' association. The meeting will be held at the Episcopal Parish house at 8 p.m. and will be part of an open house planned for prospective and new members of the chapter here. Anyone interested is invited to attend.

Mr. Johnson recently returned to California after three years abroad as director of the American Friends Service committee's village development project in rural Jordan. Although its activities were primarily agricultural in nature, the program reached many phases of village life.

As director of the project, Mr. Johnson gained an intimate knowledge of the villagers with whom he worked as well as of the governmental and political regimes in that part of the world. He will talk of the daily life and thoughts of the Arab villagers, describe the Arab anti-western riots, and give observations on the whole picture of political and social unrest in the Middle East.

Freshman Dance Held at College

Ashland—Hard work and cooperation on the part of the freshmen made the Frosh Frolics October 26 one of the most successful freshman dances in the history of Southern Oregon college according to the class advisor, Dr. Alvin Fellers.

Prizes for hard times costumes were awarded by the class vice president, Rick Pastaga, Klamath Falls. They went to Richard Wessel, Reedsport, for originality; Miss Sharon James, Phoenix, and Leon McDougal, Medford, for most typical couple; to Miss Betty Jameson, Medford, and Bob Court, Milwaukie, Ore., for the funniest couple.

Activities consisted of games and dancing to the music of the music of the Bob Anderson trio. Refreshments were apple cider and doughnuts.

DINGY YELLOWED LINGERIE?

Isn't it disheartening to see your silk and synthetic whites turn yellow after just a few washings? But there's a simple solution—White King Soap. No other type of washday product keeps these whites so store-white as White King Soap. So don't take costly chances with an ordinary washday product. Wash all your silk and synthetic things, from the time you buy them, only in White King Soap.
