ST. MARY'S
By Marcia Beeler

Many different reactions greeted report cards last week, as St. Mary's students received a record of progress for the first six weeks of school.

On Oct. 21 freshmen were host to a tea in honor of the faculty. The school activity room was decorated in fall shades and entertainment was provided by the Chorolettes and the Boys' Glee club with a piano solo by Sue Ann Rutherford. Pouring for the event were Patricia Beaton and Lynne Parsons.

The Chorolettes and Boys' Glee club also presented a program of choral numbers at Camp White Oct. 17.

Recently elected freshman class officers are Linda Smith, president; David Hanawalt, vice president; Patricia Beaton, secretary; and Marilyn Martin, treasurer.

Recent additions to the school's activity room is a candy machine and a new juke box.

A Nichol's Worth of... Comment On This and That

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
United Press Feature Writer

Washington — (U.P.) — I had been wondering what Elvis Presley has that I don't where the ladies are concerned. I found out the other night.

Beverly, my 17-year-old daughter, said I should sit around the video and have a look at the Herman Nichol boy who acts like he's playing the git-tar and baying at the moon at the same time.

There wasn't much choice unless I hankered to hit the sack at 8 p.m.

I soon found out a lot of things that Elvis has that I don't. He wears check-whiskers that make him look a little like old Abe Lincoln, our wood-hopping President. In addition to sounding something like a hound dog he can wiggle like a captive porpoise coming out of a tank for a fish.

Also, I learned, after some research that the young man owns three Cadillacs, few million fans, and thumbs his nose at his critics on the way to the bank each payday.

Just Jealous

To me, the young hillbilly looked like a sardine which had been in an open can too long. I guess I am just jealous.

Bev said: "Watch this, Daddy." The boy turned his profile, screwed up his lips and put on a "nobody loves me" look in his sad eyes. The young fry in the TV studio audience had been told not to shout and scream. They had, in fact, promised, honor bound, not to. But shout and scream, they did. And there was some hootin' and hollerin' in my own living room.

I moved back three or four chairs. That didn't do much good. What I had hoped to see was a drama on another channel that had been advertised for weeks. I happen to know one of the actors, an old friend named Otto Hullett. He was supposed to be terrific in something or other starring Mary Martin.

Beverly said she would swallow her sorrow and drown it with a soft drink. I could operate the TV for a few minutes.

Wrong Channel

I switched to another station and got nothing but a commercial, peddling something or another. Plus a short take on somebody teaching somebody else how to play gin rummy.

Our daughter took over again, and there was Elvis in all of his glory, rolling around and acting like a sick cow and stirring up a riot among the 'teeners in the gallery. And Elvis loving every minute of it.

I still don't know how Mary Martin came out over the villain who was supposed to be her boss. Also whether my friend Otto delivered the punch line to the play, like he promised me he would.

I am left with the awful thought that Elvis must have a lot that I don't HAVE. The lad had a lot of something, that's for certain. Maybe a good press agent. He also gets a considerable part of my earnings from me from sale of gramophone records.

AND SO TO SCHOOL

Old Lyme, Conn. — (U.P.) — First Selectman Paul W. Hains warned that the schoolhouse was turning into a doghouse. Each year, said Hains, eight to 10 dogs follow the "little masters and mistresses into the classrooms." He asked parents to keep the dogs home.

Washington — (U.P.) — An Air Force general attributes the death of the pilot of the record-breaking X2 rocket plane on failure to impose a speed limit on him.

Lack of Speed Limit Blamed for Air Crash

Washington — (U.P.) — An Air Force general attributes the death of the pilot of the record-breaking X2 rocket plane on failure to impose a speed limit on him.

Capt. Milburn G. Apt plunged to his death Sept. 27 in his cockpit capsule when the X2 crashed after setting a world speed record of 2,100 miles an hour. It was the 32-year-old pilot's first flight in the test plane.

Brig. Gen. J. Stanley Holtner, commander of the flight test center at Edwards Air Force base in California where the X2 was based, said in an official Air Force report that "every supervisory guy from me down has criticized himself because if we had told this boy to stop at a specific speed, this wouldn't have happened." Holtner said.

Eagle Point Woman Hurt in Accident

Mary Isabell Huffman, 45, of Eagle Point, suffered slight chest and knee injuries about 4:30 p.m. when the car she was operating collided with a car operated by Virgil Harvey Conner, 32, Eagle Point, at the Eagle Point Junction on Highway 62, according to state police.

She was taken to Sacred Heart hospital by Medford ambulance service.

The accident happened, according to state police, when she pulled out of Lynn rd. onto the highway and did not see the other car enter the intersection. Conner was also slightly injured, state police said, but he was not taken to the hospital.

Both cars were extensively damaged, they said. No citations were issued.

Coos Bay Widow Said Entitled to $100,000

Portland — (U.P.) — A federal judge ruled yesterday that the death of James A. Lyons, 48, was accidental and the insurance company must make the payment. Judge Murphy heard the case last November while on temporary assignment to Portland.

The insurance firm had contended that Lyon's death was of natural causes. The policies the firm had on Lyons were for accidental death.

Oregon Sugar Prices Near Highest Levels

Portland — (U.P.) — Sugar prices in Oregon are expected to advance to their highest levels in many years this week according to spokesmen for western sugar refiners.

Prices in eastern states shot up to the highest point since 1923 yesterday. Representatives of the refiners said the price hike probably would be felt here soon. The current base wholesale price here is 8.65 cents a pound.

SP Parlor Car Rate Hearing Postponed

Salem — (U.P.) — A hearing originally scheduled for yesterday on a request by Southern Pacific company to increase parlor car service fares on the Shasta daylight passenger train has been indefinitely postponed.

Public Utilities Commissioner Charles H. Heltzel granted the postponement at the request of company officials. Earlier Heltzel had suspended the proposed rate increases pending the hearing.
