Britain and France Stand Almost Alone In Attack on Egypt

By UNITED PRESS
Britain and France stood almost alone today with only a scattering of public moral support of their attack on Egypt.

Press Comment around the world bitterly criticized the surprise Anglo-French move against the Arab state. Newspapers even in the commonwealth nations decried the attack as a move to gain control of the nationalized Suez Canal.

The British Labor press criticized Prime Minister Anthony Eden for "folly on a grand scale." In France there was growing opposition to new military moves after 17 years of war.

Some foreign governments added formal criticism to the unofficial views reflected in newspaper editorials. The Australian Parliament, usually loyal to her commonwealth motherland, Scotland, denounced military force against Egypt in a formal resolution. Newspapers in the commonwealth nations of India and Ceylon were equally as bitter.

Soviet Union and Communist China newspapers, as could be expected, praised Egypt for remaining calm and accused Britain and France of "naked aggression... underhanded instigation and unprovoked provocation." A large portion of newspapers in the United States took a similar stand, reflecting the position taken by the Eisenhower administration.

Railroad To Signal Reminder To Vote

New York—UPI—The Long Island Railroad announced today it will try to whistle out the vote next Tuesday.

Every train engineer will pull an extra long, firm "toot" after every regular whistle signal on election day. It will serve, the railroad hopes, as a sort of figurative string around every body's finger.

U. S. tourists to Europe prefer France, Great Britain, Italy, Germany and Switzerland in that order.
