Possible Tropical Disturbance Brewing

Miami —(U.P.)— A broad low pressure area moved northward through the Bahamas off the Florida coast today, but weathermen said it apparently doesn't have the stuff to become a tropical storm.

"Only a slight increase in intensity appears likely at the moment," forecaster Paul Moore told United Press Wednesday night.

"This disturbance doesn't appear to have the tight-knit, strong circulation that would develop into a tropical storm."

Ashpole. They also are unopposed. The positions of city recorder and treasurer are appointed by the council after the election.

Ashland

Ashland—The terms of mayor, city treasurer, city recorder and three city council members expire here this year.

Incumbent candidates Richard Neill, mayor; Paul L. Finnell, treasurer; and W. E. Bartlett, recorder, are all unopposed.

Seeking council positions are Ralph Koozer, Harry R. Morris, both incumbents, Ewald (Walt) Bosshard, Leroy C. Ostrander and Glenn M. Revel.

Mussolini's Commander Succumbs in Italy

Grazzano Badoglio, Italy—U.P. Marshal Pietro Badoglio, commander of the armies of the late Benito Mussolini, died today of a heart ailment.

Badoglio, who was 85, left his villa in Rome for this small northern village which bears his name early in August to recover from an attack of influenza. He showed signs of improvement but suffered a heart attack on Aug. 24.
