Dr. Heyerman Is Elected to Board

Portland—Dr. Oscar T. Heyerman of Medford was elected to the board of directors of the Oregon Heart association at the organization's annual meeting here.

Dr. Herbert Griswold of the University of Oregon medical school was named president, succeeding F. Warren Munro, Portland insurance executive, who became chairman of the board of directors.

The committee on research reported that $56,330 has been spent on research projects in Oregon during the past three years. Projects are being supported by the Oregon Heart association at the medical school, Oregon State college, University of Portland and Reed college.

Community service and public education activities showed a marked increase during the year, Dr. Golden Prewitt, committee chairman reported. He said local committees were established in nearly all areas of the state and they conducted extensive local education programs.

Film showings and talks by physicians to lay audiences averaged about 15 per month during the year and the average audience was 35 persons, Dr. Prewitt said.

The association weight control courses, averaging from 16 to 20 weeks each, were held in Portland, Corvallis, Lebanon and Medford. About 250 persons participated and the average weight loss was 12.2 pounds. Future plans, the chairman said, call for fall classes in most of the areas.

SOC Faculty Chapter Of OSEA Installed

Ashland—The Southern Oregon college faculty chapter 79 of the Oregon State Employees association was installed at the college snack bar Saturday following a potluck dinner.

Installing officer was James B. Daniels of Salem, Ore., executive secretary for the state association. William Krueger of Myrtle Point, district director for this region, presented the charter to the group.

Officers of the new chapter are Dr. Lloyd Pennington, president; Dr. Arthur Taylor, vice president; Dr. Frank Haines, secretary; and Don Lewis, treasurer.

Fifty of the Southern Oregon college faculty have joined the organization.

Air Line Employees Registered to Vote

More than 96 per cent of United Air Lines employees have registered to vote in the November election as a result of a "register and vote" campaign conducted by the airline at cities in its 14,000-mile system, according to K. W. Cook, Medford station manager. Locally, all Medford employees are registered.

Non-partisan in nature, United's campaign was inaugurated during the 1952 election at the suggestion of Air Line President W. A. Patterson.
