Truman Says American Public Misinformed By Administration

Kansas City, Mo.—(AP)—Former President Truman charged Wednesday night that events leading up to the Middle East conflict were aggravated by a foreign policy conducted "with an eye to domestic politics."

The United States, he said, has now lost the leadership of the free world.

Mr. Truman said the American public has been "terribly misled and misinformed" by the Eisenhower administration on conditions outside our borders. He said he didn't know whether the deception was the "result of ignorance" or of Republican attempts "to conceal the facts until after Nov. 6."

Mr. Truman called newsmen to his office to read a prepared statement. He refused all questions.

But he told them that the blunt truth now is that as a result of the Eisenhower-Dulles foreign policies, "the United States is not respected or trusted or followed anywhere in the world."

He blamed an "incomprehensible situation" on a "long series of partisan blunders in foreign affairs, failures of understanding, timidity and complacency. Trust Needed."

He said that the existence between the United States, Great Britain and France of a "spirit of mutual cooperation and trust" was "one of the principal foundation stones of our national security."

But now, he said, it is "clear that the United States is no longer in fact the leader of the alliance of the free nations. Seldom, if ever, has an American Chief Executive been treated with more humiliating indifference by friendly nations than President Eisenhower in the diplomatic events of the last few days."

"His notes have gone unanswered, his urgent appeals have been ignored, his advice has been brushed aside."

The reason, he said, is clear. "When a leader of a great alliance or coalition fails to have a responsible regard for the interests of the other members, they will take action on their own to safeguard their interests."

Change of Face

As the result of the British and French vetoes of the President's Middle Eastern proposals in the United Nations Security

Council, "we have found ourselves voting in the company of our most inveterate foe, the Soviet Union, against a nation we helped to create, Israel, which has long looked to us as its greatest friend."

"The 'slow drift to disaster,' Mr. Truman said, could have been halted by 'vigorous action to prevent the Soviet arming of Egypt, to stop the continually escalating border warfare in Israel, to support our friends in their legitimate concerns and interests...'"

The "full extent of the disaster," he said, can not be ascertained, but one thing seemed certain to Mr. Truman: "Neither the United States nor the free world can survive such mismanagement."
