American Evacuees Streaming To Rome

Rome—(U.P.)—Americans evacuated from the troubled Middle East arrived in Italy today in almost a steady stream.

By an early hour today, 278 evacuees from Jordan, Syria and Israel had arrived in Rome after being air-lifted to Athens. A spokesman for the Emergency Evacuee Coordination agency in Rome said more were expected throughout the day.

The American export liner Eschorda was expected to arrive in Naples from Alexandria, Egypt, today with 350 American evacuees. The Italian ship Sorrento, which sailed from Port Said, Egypt, Wednesday with about 125 Americans aboard, was also expected in Naples today.

Candidate Turned Down On Garbage Can Signs

Peoria, Ill.—(U.P.)—City officials turned down a campaign request by Stanley Crutcher on the ground it implied official Peoria support of the candidate. Crutcher, a Democrat running for the State senate, planned to plaster cards reading "It's clean-up time in Springfield" in some 18,000 city-owned trash cans.
