

TABLE ROCK 70 Attend Fall Rally

By R. E. Nealen
Table Rock—About seventy persons, from many sections of the valley, and representing eight of the Sunday schools under the jurisdiction of the Rev. Alan Hill, American Sunday School Union missionary, attended the Fall Rally day held last Saturday at the Table Rock school house.
The Rev. Wayne McMillen, pastor of Jerome Prairie Community church delivered the morning message, and Lester Wilcox Jr., pastor of Forest Acres Community church, delivered the devotional message.
George Martin, of Cave Junction, had charge of the Bible quiz contest, which is a test in memorizing bible verses that he originated.
The Meadows Sunday school won the contest with 594 points. Meadows also won in percentage of members present, and miles traveled. The group received three pennants.
D. D. Randall and wife, of Medford, were present at the morning session. Randall was the former ASSU missionary for the district.

Rev. Hill expressed his appreciation to the Table Rock Sunday school for the party they played as hosts.
According to a news story in Friday's Oregon Journal, Mrs. Lucile O'Neill of Klamath Falls is co-chairman of the Vandenberg for Supreme Court Judge committee. She is being assisted by Donald Richardson, former Jackson county man, now of Green, Richardson, Green and Griswold law firm of Portland, Ore.
Hunters of chinese pheasants in this section report only fair luck, with the birds taking off to higher ground at the opening of the season.
There has been the usual number of law violations, such as trespassing, breaking down fences, shooting from, and across highways, and after hours.

A gadget somewhat resembling a cider mill, devised and put together by Gordon Kershaw, is being tried out for threshing pear seed on the Orville Hamilton farm where Kershaw has a nursery.
Jimmy Allen, owner of the Roguewood Boat Building co. reports that they have two runabouts completed and ready for market and several other models under construction. The shop had been recently moved to higher ground, as the dashing Rogue river was beginning to gurgle too close.

For the benefit of those who ask us the State Grange's position on ballot measures, we give the following, taken from the last issue of the Grange Bulletin.
No. 1 state tax laws—No. No. 2—acceptance of gifts—Yes. No. 3—Salaries of officers—Yes. No. 4—qualifications for coroner and surveyor—Yes. No. 5—Salaries of State Legislators—Yes. No. 6—cigarette tax—Yes. No. 7—Fish Bill—No recommendation.
Halloween pranks here were much funner than usual this year, and were confined mostly to trick or treaters, with the young fry wearing grotesque costumes and horrid looking masks.

Anita Pierce and Jerry Hill, dressed as old men, were the best disguised and hardest to identify of any that tricked and treated us.
