MRS. MASSEY

Funeral services for Mrs. Christie Massey, 90, formerly of 520 South Fir st., who died in a local hospital Tuesday, will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday in Chapel Mortuary. The Rev. D. Kirkland West, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will officiate. Interment will be in Mountain View cemetery in Ashland.

Casket bearers will be Hugh McKinney, Edward Goodwin, Bert A. Smith, Jack Harney, Kirby Kant, and Joe W. Warren.

Mrs. Massey, daughter of William and Sarah Irving Smith, was born near Sparta Center, Mich., Sept. 26, 1866. On Nov. 1, 1885, in Michigan, she was married to Charles Martin, and was one of the pioneer women who came to Oregon by ox team in 1886.

The couple took up a homestead in Klamath county, where the family lived until 35 years ago when they moved to Ashland. Mr. Martin preceded her in death there in 1925.

In 1932, in Ashland, she was married to F. L. Massey, who also preceded her in death there in 1936. Since that time she has made her home in Medford.

A party was given in September in honor of her 90th birthday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Jones, and at which five generations of her family were present.

Survivors include two sons, Grant E. Martin, Castella, Calif., and Wallace W. Martin, Rogue River; two daughters, Mrs. Grace Amundson, Salem, and Mrs. Ella Jones, Medford; four step-sons, Dr. George A. Massey, Walter Massey, Jethro Massey, and Tom Massey, of Klamath Falls; 12 grandchildren; 34 great grandchildren; and one great great grandson.

SIMEON L. HOURNBuckle

Funeral services for Simeon L. Hournbuckle, 85, of 1208 West 10th st., Medford, who died at his home Monday, will be held in Conger-Morris chapel Thursday at 11 a.m. Dr. J. P. Bray and the Rev. L. D. Krause of the Bethel Assembly of God church will officiate. Committal will be in IOOF cemetery.

Mr. Hournbuckle was born March 22, 1871, in Denton, Tex. He was married to Jessie Nancy Gilliland, Jan. 2, 1898, at Fresno, N. M., who preceded him in death.

He was a member of the Bethel Assembly of God church. Survivors include three sons and four daughters, Charley Hournbuckle and Lewis Hournbuckle; Alamogordo, N.M.; Ernest Hournbuckle, Medford; Mrs. Ethel Darr, Poteet, Texas; Mrs. Ella Savage, North Charleston, S.C.; Ida Hournbuckle, Mary Hournbuckle, Medford; half-brother, George Melton, Three Rivers, Tex.; half-sister, Mary Taylor, Fort Worth, Tex.; nine grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren. A son and a daughter preceded him in death.

LLOYD L. ROBISON

Lloyd L. Robison, 70, of Camp White, died yesterday in the V.A. domiciliary. Conger-Morris Funeral home is in charge of arrangements.

JAMES A. CASEY

Funeral services for James A. Casey of 812 1/2 Cedar st., who died Tuesday, will be held in Conger-Morris chapel Thursday at 1 p.m. The Rev. E. J. Clark will officiate. Private committal will be held in Siskiyou Memorial park.

Mr. Casey was born Dec. 15, 1871, in Kansas. He was the originator of Casey State Park in Medford, Ore., which was established about 30 years ago. He worked as overseer of the park until about nine years ago when he retired.

Survivors besides his wife, Nina, include two sons, M/Sgt. Jack A. Casey, Ethan Allen, U.S. Air Force base, Vermont; and Lloyd Casey; two daughters, Mrs. Gladys Maxwell, Reno, Nev., and Mrs. Vera Ring, San Leandro, Calif.; one sister, Mrs. Beth Hart, Vallejo, Calif., and seven grandchildren. A daughter preceded him in death in 1954.

Market Readjusts To Recent Tempo With Prices Down

New York (U.P.)—Wall Street rounded out its Eisenhower market celebration in the first hour today and then steadily readjusted to the recent tempo with prices knocked down from the early highs.

First hour volume of one million shares set a new high since Feb. 15. Prices at the opening and for a time in the early trading moved higher, at times with the ticker behind as much as four minutes.

Then profit taking reduced gains all around. The issues used in the averages, recent strong spots, fell the greatest distance from their best and a number of them registered losses. Industrial and rail sections eased while utilities managed to score a small net gain.

Metal Group Steady

Phelps Dodge ran up two points on a favorable dividend action. Other members of the metal group ruled steady to firm. The steels, strong at the opening, slipped back to around previous closing levels. Motors were whittled down to their Monday prices. Chemicals recorded losses running to a point in Allied. Oils turned irregular after an early rise had lifted the entire group, including the Middle East issues.

Airrafts turned irregular but several strong issues managed to show gains ranging to two points in Douglas.

Sons, Husband Help Mother Learn To Park

Columbus, O. (U.P.)—Patrolman William Braucher could hardly believe his eyes as he drove to work.

He saw a woman using her two sons as markers to indicate the space in which persons taking a test for a driver's license must park.

The boys were standing six feet out from the curb, 22 feet apart, and their mother was attempting to back into the space they marked off. And father was standing on the curb, directing the operation.
