

Card-Giant Fracas Tops On Pro Slate

By UNITED PRESS
Playing at home is supposed to be an advantage but you can not prove it by the 35 games played so far this season in the National Football league.

The visitors and home teams have broken almost even as they move into the second half of the campaign. The home teams have won 18 games and the invaders have won 17.

Loyal home fans also have had plenty of chances to boo the officials during the first half of the pro season.

The home club has been penalized more yards than the visiting team in 28 of the 35 games. The visitors were penalized the most yards in 12 games and two teams were penalized the same number of yards in the other contest.

New York and the Chicago Cardinals, tied for the Eastern division lead with 5-1 records, meet at Yankee stadium in Sunday's top game. The Cardinals are favored by seven points.

The Cardinals, who scored a 35-27 victory over the Giants at Chicago last month, are picked to win because Ed Hughes, one of New York's best defensive backs, probably will not play and two other secondary performers, Herb Rich and Emlen Tunnell, aren't in top condition because of injuries.

Sunday's other selections with season records in parentheses:

Detroit Lions (6-0) over Redskins (2-3) at Washington; Bears (5-1) over Green Bay Packers (2-4) at Chicago; Rams (1-5) over San Francisco Forty-Niners (1-5) at Los Angeles; Browns (2-4) over Baltimore Colts (2-3) at Cleveland; Eagles (2-4) over Steelers (2-4) at Philadelphia.

Glendale Foe For Talent In finale

Talent — Seven seniors will play their final football game for Talent high when the Bulldogs oppose Glendale here Friday.

Concluding game for both schools for 1956 will be at 1:30 p.m.

The Talent seniors are Mel Wallace, Ron Weinhold, Frank Tyeksen and Fred Helm, backs, and Jim Spangler, Terry Hazelton, Bob Messenger, Dick Bradford and Ray Kiser.

With no game in three weeks, the Bulldogs are at approximate full strength and they have been looking pretty good in practice, according to coach Dick Thorpe.

On the injured list, however, is guard Bill Snider with a cut lip. Talent's last grid venture was its 12 to 10 loss to St. Mary's of Medford in the Jackson County B league. Glendale, an A-2 school, wound up in the cellar of the Rogue loop.

Logart Scores TKO Over Harris

Chicago — U.P. — Cuban Isaac Logart knows the quickest way to win his welterweight fights, and thus he might get a little chance real soon.

"He just flicked me with a glove in the right eye in the first round," his latest victim, Duke Harris, "and it was the fourth round before I could see again. Then he got me again in the sixth round and in the seventh he started to work on the other eye. That's when the referee stopped it."

Logart, who weighed 148 for the scrap, two pounds more than his television opponent, took the victory, scored in 15 seconds of the seventh round with a technical knockout.

Now he wants to meet Tony De Morce of Boston with the winner to get a shot at Carmen Basilio's 147-pound title.

West Side Ends Unbeaten Season

West Side — West Side Grade school finished an unbeaten six-game season in six-man flag football Tuesday with an 18 to 12 triumph over Howard school. Phil Humphrey scored twice and Jerry Wingfront once for the West Siders. All the scoring was in the first half.

Houdek Nabs Lead in NAIA From Raider

Kansas City, Mo. — U.P. — Halfback Larry Houdek of Kansas Wesleyan who averages close to a first down every time he carries the ball, has taken over the total offense lead in National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics statistics.

Houdek in seven games has carried 135 times for 1,174 net yards. He took over the total offense with 1,233 yards, only 59 of them on passes. He has averaged 176.1 yards per game, 167.7 of it on rushing plays.

Frank Rabiola of Milton, Wis. college has netted 610 yards in five games to take second place in rushing and Bill Seymour of Southern Oregon has 908 net yards in six games for a total defense average of 131.0. Seymour led in total offense last week.

Webb Heads Passing
The NAIA said Bob Webb, quarterback for St. Ambrose college, Davenport, Iowa, was the leading passer with 66 completions in 130 tries for 1,126 yards in eight games. His average of 140.8 was four yards better than runner-up Charlie McMahon of Texas Lutheran college, who completed 60 of 112 for 821 yards in six games.

Jack Steffan of River Falls, Wis., state led the scorers with 111 points, followed by Houdek with 96.

Bethany, W. Va.'s Andy Urbanic was the top pass receiver, gaining 513 yards on 28 catches. John Emlert, of Lock Haven, Pa., state led in punting with a 44.7 average on 15 kicks.

Lid Clamped on Political Talk At Melbourne

Darwin, Australia — U.P. — The Olympic torch burned brightly here today as officials of the games expressed the hope its beams may lead to "friendly relations" throughout the world.

The torch, which was lighted last Friday at Mount Olympus in Greece, arrived in Darwin on Tuesday night from Karachi, Pakistan. It will leave Friday in a flight of three Canberra jet bombers for Cairns and from that point will be carried the final 2,700 miles to Melbourne by relays of runners.

Melbourne, Australia — U.P. — With many Russian athletes already on hand and Americans due to arrive, Australian Olympic officials clamped the lid down on "political" discussion today and pleaded again for an end to "distrust and jealousies."

"The Olympics are sport and not political," emphasized Lewis Luxton, a member of the International Olympic Committee in refusing to comment on a report that Egypt has protested against the participation of nations currently involved in "cowardly aggression."

Sir William Bridgford, executive officer of the games, and organizing Secretary Edgar Tanner also declined comment on the report.

58 Nations Entered
There were no further withdrawals from the games Wednesday, however, and the total of competing nations remained at a record-qualling 69. Several of the five nations which have withdrawn have indicated they may rejoin the field if international tensions ease, which would make possible a new record for the number of countries taking part in the sports festival.

Wednesday's big event in this Olympic city was the arrival, one week overdue, of the Russian merchant ship Gruzia, bearing 91 Russians, 17 Hungarians, and a scattering of Czechs and Poles. Why the ship was delayed remained a mystery that neither passengers or crew explained.

Dartmouth College's first effort at an international football game brought a 5-0 win over McGill of Canada in 1882.

Morrall Given Military Call

San Francisco — U.P. — Quarterback Earl Morrall, number one field general for the San Francisco Forty Niners, has received orders from his Muskegon, Mich., draft board to report for induction Dec. 10, he disclosed today.

The 22-year-old Michigan State All-American said he received his induction notice in a registered letter Wednesday night.

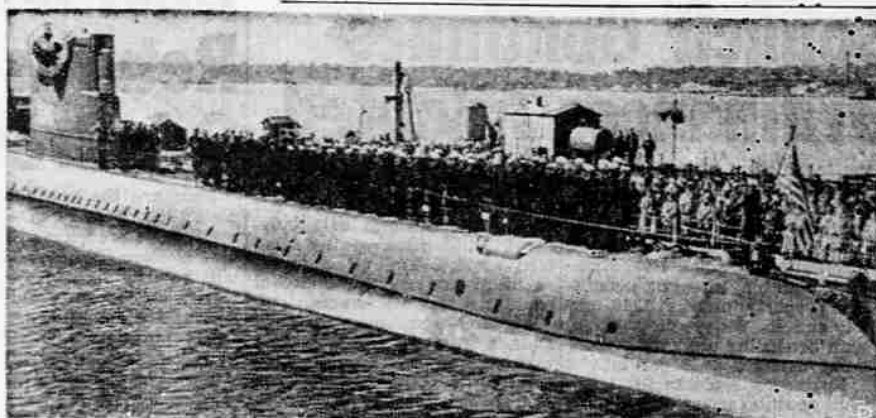

TENNIS FOES

Paris — U.P. — Pablo Eisenberg of Milburn, N. J., meets Paul Remy of France and Budge Patty of Paris plays Robert Haillet of France Friday in the quarter-finals of the King Gustav V Sweden Tennis Cup tournament.

Olympic Cagers Win 9th n Row

San Francisco — U.P. — The United States Olympic basketball team headed today for Los Angeles and the final game of its cross-country tour before leaving for Melbourne, Australia.

The team won its ninth straight victory Wednesday night by defeating the San Francisco Olympic Club All-Stars 73-54 in a game played at Kezar pavilion.
