

Eagle Point, Glide Tussle for A-2 Toga

Eagle Point—Eagle Point High school fought to the Rogue league and sub-district football championships with the aid of strong defense and the hard running of halfback Jack Greb and fullback Norm Hooper.

And the Eagles hope to prove consistent with their previous record for the season when they battle Saturday for the District 6 A-2 crown.

The southern division title nabbing Eagles tackle the Glide Wildcats, at Glide in the 2 p.m. play-off tussle.

In compiling an eight-win one-loss record through the regular season, Eagle Point has allowed rivals to tally only 50 points while rolling up 335 itself. Of the eight touchdowns scored against them, the Eagles yielded only four on running and rushing and one of those on a kick-off return. Rivals scored four times on passes.

Crater high, an A-1 school which handed EP its only loss, and Glendale, were the only schools to gain more than one TD against the Eagles. Glendale was able because of Eagle Point use of receivers.

10-Yard 'vantage' Greb has been the big gainer for the Eagle offense with 142 points and 1,243 net yards rushing. He has carried the ball 124 times for better than 10 yards per pack.

In meeting Glide, EP, heavy Skins Reject Louisville Move Offer

Washington Redskins today were forced to turn down "the most fantastic offer ever made by a community to acquire a professional sports team."

The city that made the offer to the Redskins to transfer their National Football League franchise was Louisville, Ky., which made a similar offer to the Washington Redskins club recently.

If the offer is still laying around four years from now when our lease on Griffith Stadium expires, we definitely will consider it," said Redskins owner George Preston Marshall. "Frankly, though, I don't think it will be laying around that long and that will be our hard luck because there's nothing that can be done about it right now."

Louisville offered Marshall the following inducements, he said:

1. Expansion of the 22,000-seat Fairgrounds Stadium to 44,000 seats, all under cover, and with no seats in the end zone.
2. A guaranteed season ticket sale of 25,000 annually for the first three years.
3. Stadium rental at six percent of the gross. The Redskins pay the Washington Baseball club 15 percent.
4. All concession income except parking, of which the Redskins would get 20 percent.

Feller Won't Be Asked To Return as Chucker

Cleveland—UPI—Bob Feller, one of baseball's greatest stars and an "institution" in Cleveland, may be looking for another pitching job before the end of the month.

Feller, who helped bring the million-a-year crowds to Cleveland baseball, won't be asked to return to the Indians' pitching staff.

Instead, General Manager Hank Greenberg is ready to offer the former speedball king a front office assignment on a take-it-or-leave-it basis.

It's a safe bet that Feller will leave it.

An Indiana spokesman said Greenberg wants a younger pitcher added to the staff in Feller's place, because the present staff is aging.

in spots, will meet a club with good left all the way around. Dick Smith, a six-man all-American in 1955, is 192-pound left halfback big gun of the Wildcats. His fast running balanced by the hard hitting of Moose Kennaday, 196-pound fullback.

Glide is unbeaten this year with only a tie with Sutherlin the only mar on its record. The club has run up decisive victories in most of its games. In its first year as an A-2 school, Glide won the Umpqua Valley league mantle.

Possible Eagle starters are Wayne Christian and Gary Kaiser, ends, Dean Tibbitts and Roger Hooper or Roy Reagan, tackles, Mike Kaiser and Jim Bunker, guards, Larry Dodenhoff, center, Doug Chamberlain, quarterback; Jack Greb and Jim Duncan, halfbacks, and Norm Hooper, center.

For Glide it may be Allen Smith and Chuck Meracle, ends, Richard Harvey and Jim McCoy, tackles, Gary Eaton and Eldon Sinnott, guards, Lenny Crow, center, Curtis Cheron, quarterback, Dick Smith and Burt Baker, halfbacks, and Moose Kennaday, fullback.

Runners-up Illinois Valley placed Ron Spencer, guard, and Eldo Swift, and Ken Krauss, tackles. Phoenix members of the line-up are Jim James, end, and Don Wallace, back.

Grid State Adopted

Glendale, not represented during the selection of the club, placed no men nor gained an honorable mention.

Schools of the Rogue league and sub-district adopted their 1957 football schedule which includes Henley, Brookings, Eagle Point, Phoenix, Glendale, Rogue River and Illinois Valley. Rogue River, a B school this fall, is expected to be A-2 next year.

A committee was named to choose a division basketball tournament site for the end of the forthcoming season. Schools with the exception of Henley will participate in the Rogue hoop circuit with a 10 game schedule. Phoenix, Illinois Valley and Eagle Point will have four games each with Brookings but only two will count in loop standings. Standard admission prices of 75 cents for adults and 35 cents for students were set for basketball games. Jayvee games are to start at 6:45 p.m.

It was voted that three officials will be employed for all football games.

BACKS READY

New York—UPI—Ed Hughes and Emlen Tunnell, two defensive backs who were injured in last Sunday's game with the Pittsburgh Steelers, will be able to play this Sunday for the Giants when they meet the Chicago Cardinals at Yankee Stadium. Herb Rich, another defensive back, who also missed the Steeler game, probably will not be able to play against the Cards.

Sport Parade

New York—UPI—One little shot in the pitching arm and the Cincinnati Reds next season are going to be forcing a National league demand that they be given a saliva test.

Taking an advance look at the 1957 campaign, it seems obvious that if the muscular Reds get any lift at all on the mound it is quite probable that they will run away and hide from the rest of the league.

Looking them over, they shape up this way: Cincinnati Reds

Give 'em even one, or possibly two starters to go with Brooks Lawrence, Hal Jeffcoat, Joe Nuxhall and Johnny Klippstein, and those hitters will break up the National league.

Milwaukee Braves

The front line pitching is there but the Braves need a reliever, help at second base and outfield punch. Also they need somebody to give 'em a boot in the stern and put some life in the club.

Brooklyn Dodgers

Father Time is calling the shots here. In addition, those Dodgers require a left fielder, some young blood in the pitching department and more pinch-hitting strength.

St. Louis Cardinals

This gang, not the "Gashouse" but no Fauntleroy, either, might come on strong with a good fireman, a hotstop half as good as Marty Marion and some outfield assistance.

Philadelphia Phillies

They need some everything, namely power, speed and bench strength. The young pitching needs time to develop and it wouldn't be too surprising if they dealt Robb Roberts to patch several leaks.

New York Giants

A season of bluff under Coogan's bluff. Construction is needed in every department and there are no building materials on hand.

Pittsburgh Pirates
