World's Oldest Man To Retire in Venezuela

Bogota, Colombia—(UPI)—Javier Pereira, believed to be the world's oldest man, was en route today to Venezuela where he will retire in comfort.
Pereira, who may be as old as 160 years, recently visited the United States to be examined by doctors. He will be the chief attraction during Venezuela's forthcoming "Old Age Week." As compensation for his visit there, the official Old Age Institute has offered to take good care of him for life.

SUNDAYS
At AL'S MARKET — 838 W. McAndrews Road

You know all that talk you've been hearing about the 1957 new car models being really new?

Well, in the case of the 1957 Buicks it's true—gospel true.

We mean these 1957 Buicks are new in the precise and literal sense. We mean new from the ground up, and from gleaming grille to sassy taillights.

We mean new lowness, new styling, new bodies, new windshields, new controls, new safety-padded instrument panels, new safety steering wheels, new seating, new fabrics, new colors.

We mean new front end, new rear end, new frame, new braking, new steering, new handling, new riding, new roadability—a whole new chassis of greater solidity and safety.

We mean V8 engines new from the crankshaft up—engines that deliver an all-time high in horsepower and compression from their 364-cubic-inch displacement.

And we mean, most of all, an advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflo*—so instant in the starting range—so utterly smooth and so totally full-range in "Drive"—that your need for "Low" is practically eliminated.

So come take in these low-silhouette, these boldly beautiful, these instantly obedient Buicks for 1957.

Then you'll see why you can't blame us for being so fired up about it all—and how catching this excitement can be.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Does THE LUTHERAN CHURCH "Talk About Sin Too Much?"

"Why not talk about pleasant things? Every Sunday morning, you start out with confession," said one John Doe, when he had visited a Lutheran church a few times, "and I don't like it."

Most of us don't, of course—don't like to face the facts:
That we are sinners in our deepest selves, sinners in the presence of a Holy God, sinners living on borrowed time—time that runs on as long as God permits but destined one day to be drawn up short by Eternity!

Such facts are pins in the balloon of human ego. They are not pleasant facts.

Nonetheless, they are facts. Sin is serious.

Sin is so serious that God had to come to earth to deal with it—come to earth, and be born in a cattle shed, and bear the reproach of the "righteous," and let Himself be nailed to a slab of wood and hanged up on a pole to die!

That serious is the situation of John Doe, who didn't "like" to hear about sin!—so serious that God saw no way out for John Doe except to go down Himself and get in the middle of the mess that John Doe has made of things and bleed a way out for him.

The joy of the Christian faith is known only to those who face up to its background:
Sin is serious—man is hopeless without Christ.

That is why Lutheran faith and worship are joyous. If your life is missing such an inner joy, perhaps you are wondering why. A visit with Lutheran laymen could help you find the answer.
