Ceremony At Church Weds Pair

Talent—Miss Ruth Maudalene Marshall became the bride of Verl Dale Searcy in a ceremony held Saturday, October 27 at 7:30 o'clock in the evening at the First Baptist church in Medford. The Rev. W. H. Tillman of the Ashland Baptist church officiated at the wedding attended by 75 friends and relatives.

Miss Marshall is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Marshall, 135 North Front street, Talent. Mr. Searcy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Searcy, Klamath Falls.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white nylon net fashioned with bands of lace inset at the waist and on the bouffant skirt. Her fingertip length veil was loaned for the wedding by her sister-in-law. She carried a bouquet of baby orchids encircling a single white orchid.

Matron of honor was Mrs. J. Lloyd Wood. Bridesmaids were Miss Priscilla Welch, Miss Bonnie Leeper and Miss Christine Knudsen, all of Talent. They wore similar dresses in yellow and pink nylon net with matching wristlets of chrysanthemums.

Miss Jeanne Henry and Miss Julie Hanson, wearing matching yellow dresses, were candle-lighters.

Raymond Searcy served his brother as best man. Donald Marshall, brother of the bride, was head usher, with Gerald Arant, Jack Parker and Robert Buckingham also seating the guests.

For the wedding the church was decorated with chrysanthemums. Mrs. Dorothy Saksdorf played the wedding music.

Following the ceremony a reception was held. Mrs. Leah Hazelton was in charge of the guest book.

The bride is a senior at Talent High school. The bridegroom attended Keno High school and is a student at Southern Oregon college at Ashland.

Champagne Supper Held; Tudor Guild To Give Ball

Large benefit events provide the main social interest for November. Friday night Medford Junior Service league sponsored a traditional champagne supper at Rogue Valley Country club, and on the calendar for November 23 is a semi-formal supper-ball to be given by Tudor guild of the Oregon Shakespearean festival.

The ball will also be held at the country club.

Guests for the champagne supper numbered 180, and the profits from their ticket prices will be used to support the league's kindergarten for deaf children, operated in Medford.

American Beauty Rose was the theme for the supper. Fresh roses, combined with golden champagne glasses and bows of golden cord, filled the large decorative frames in the main dining room of the clubhouse. Pinned to the souvenir programs presented to each woman guest were single long-stemmed rosebuds.

Pink champagne was served during dinner.

Cocktail and evening gowns, furs and lounging attire were shown during the dinner. Models were Mrs. Oscar Halboth for Hadleys, Mrs. Don Herried for Burelsons, Mrs. Frank Hopewell for Town and Country, Mrs. Carl Wimberly Jr. for Jean Harts, Mrs. Martin Vorheis for Rath's, Mrs. R. B. Thierolf for Manns and Mrs. James Cummins for Frances Furs.

Mrs. C. H. Buffington and Mrs. Ralph Hibbs were co-chairmen for the party, and Mrs. Edward Collins was models chairman. Mrs. Sam Richardson planned and executed the decorations with the aid of Allen Hunt, Medford artist. Mrs. Jack Reid was programs chairman, Mrs. Warren Bayliss, menu chairman and Mrs. Robert Cunningham, invitations chairman.

Music for dancing was provided by the Bob Anderson trio in the main dining room, and by Abby Green in the cocktail lounge and the new Crest room.

Mrs. Harry Skerry of Ashland is chairman in charge of arrangements for the Tudor guild ball. Mrs. Skerry and Mrs. B. A. Cope, program chairman, state that the program will be clever and will include a surprise feature.

The Anderson trio will play in the Crest room, and Abby Green and his trio in the main dining room. Tickets may be purchased from any Tudor guild member, at Jean Hart's store, the Rogue Valley Country club or at the Shakespearean festival box office in Ashland. In addition to buying the tickets, reservations must be made by calling Rogue Valley Country club, Medford 2-5965.

A buffet dinner will be served.

Since funds earned by the party will be used for Shakespearean festival actors' scholarships, the guild is hopeful for a large number of reservations.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Amaro

Amaro-Clower Ceremony Held At Bride's Home

Phoenix—The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Clower in Phoenix was the setting Friday, October 26, for the wedding of Miss Shirley Wenell Clower to Melvin Vieira Amaro at 7 o'clock in the evening. The Rev. Leslie D. Pense of the Church of Christ in Phoenix officiated at the ceremony, attended by 30 friends and relatives of the couple.

Mr. Amaro is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Collingwood, 625 Lozier lane, Medford.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white lace gown over white satin and carried pink carnations.

Miss Patricia C. Haakinson, Shady Cove, was honor attendant for the bride and Miss Florence A. Guyton was bridesmaid. They wore dresses of dusty rose and green trimmed with white and carried pink and white carnations.

Robert L. Clower, brother of the bride, served as best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride.

For her traveling attire the bride wore a light blue suit with orchid corsage. After a wedding trip to San Francisco the newlywed couple are making their home in Medford.

The bride attended Phoenix schools and is employed as a bookkeeper at Fluhrer Bakeries. Mr. Amaro attended Eagle Point schools and St. Mary's High school in Medford. He is employed as an IBM tabulator operator in the Bear Creek offices.

Party Observes 75th Birthday

Mrs. Carl Carlson observed her 75th birthday anniversary Tuesday with a combined birthday and "election day" luncheon and open house. The events were at the Carlson home, 814 Newtown street.

Mrs. Carlson invited 45 guests for luncheon, and throughout the afternoon and evening served birthday cake and other refreshments to friends who called. The birthday cake was a gift from Mr. Carlson. For the luncheon and open house Mrs. Carlson wore a dark skirt with white nylon blouse and a large lavender orchid.

Yellow chrysanthemums decorated the serving tables and the house.

Mrs. Carlson received many flowers, gifts and messages during the day. A native of Denmark, Mrs. Carlson came to this country in 1900. She has two sons, Paul Anderson, Riverside, Calif., and George Anderson, Downey, Calif.

She came to Medford from South Dakota, where election day parties were traditional events.

Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith, Mrs. Opal Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Martin, Miss Marie Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Don Koenig, the honored couple and host couples.

Tickets are available at The Music Mart, Purucker's Piano house, or from any member of the orchestra or the Philharmonic Society guild.

A second performance of the concert will be given in Grants Pass that same evening, November 19, in the Junior High school auditorium at 8 p.m. Tickets for the Grants Pass concert are available at the two music stores there and from Mrs. Warren Butler, 16 B street, phone GR 6-2422.

A music appreciation hour will be held Thursday, November 15, in the home of Mrs. Tom E. Popham, 311 Pierce road, at 1 p.m. Mr. Werner will relate historical background and biographical material relative to the musical selections to be performed in the concert. He will also discuss the musical themes found in these selections. Bruno Pellegrini, orchestra pianist, will illustrate the themes on the piano.

Mrs. Bazett, Mr. Werner and Mr. Pellegrini will appear on KBES-TV Thursday evening, November 15, on the Cal-Ore Panorama at 5:30 p.m. They will perform excerpts from the concert program.

Dress rehearsal for the concert will be held Saturday night in the High School auditorium at 8 p.m.

Lemons that have become hard and dry may be restored to freshness by soaking in lukewarm water overnight.
