WHAT DO LUTHERANS Really BELIEVE

Just this: That it is the Lord's Supper. ABOUT THE LORD'S SUPPER?

He comes — all the way. He is present — personally. He gives — His Body and Blood. He says to each individually, "... given and shed for you for the forgiveness of sins."

You may not be interested in history's complex theological arguments about the Holy Sacrament.

But nonetheless, the questions that lie beneath all the controversies do concern you:

- Is the Supper merely a human ceremony? — or is Christ really present?
- Has the God of the Manger and Cross now contradicted Himself and demanded that you try to mount up to Him? — or does He continue to come down to you?
- Is the Holy Communion man at work expiating God? — or is it God who redeems man?

If He is absent, if He no longer comes down to us, if He requires appeasing, then the end result is the same — whether man teach the Sacrament to be a repetition of Christ's sacrifice, or merely a "memorial" honoring His sacrifice. The Lord's Supper has become man's supper, something offered to God from man.

But Lutherans have always experienced the Blessed Sacrament to be in harmony with the Gospel: Christ offers Himself to man in Communion — just as throughout the Gospel God gives and man receives.

The Communion is "the closest that Heaven ever comes to earth," someone has said. If you would like to know more of the joy and peace which Lutherans find there:
