Quotes From the News

By UNITED PRESS

Vienna—A Hungarian revolt leader at Szob on the West's failure to aid the rebels:
"The Western broadcasts have pushed and pushed us into this. Now they do nothing. They tell lies on the radio."

Oslo—The Norwegian Communist party on Russia's moves in Hungary:
"The Norwegian Communist party believes each nation should decide its own future. The problems of a people cannot be solved by foreign troops."

Karlsruhe, Germany—Otto John, West Germany's "double-deserting" ex-security chief, in testimony he was kidnaped and taken to East Berlin by a "parlor Bolshevik":
"There can be no doubt that Dr. Wolfgang Wohlgemuth gave me a drug in the coffee he served me."

Washington—President Eisenhower in his Thanksgiving Day proclamation:
"... Let us, as the beneficiaries of... greatness give a good account of our stewardship by helping those in need and by rendering aid... to the ill, the destitute, and the oppressed in foreign lands."

Washington—Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.) on the elections:
"People decided they shouldn't change the presidency in the midst of an international crisis. I think that's understandable. I think it was a mistake, but it is understandable."

Veterans Day Subject Of Chamber Meeting

Eugene Orr, Oregon representative of the American Legion's national executive committee on rehabilitation, and past commander of the legion's post 15, Medford, discussed Veterans Day at the noon luncheon of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce yesterday.

The government proclaimed Veterans Day a legal holiday, Orr said, when they combined Armistice Day and Army and Navy Day into one holiday.

There are more than 22,000,000 veterans in the United States today, he said. There are 3,000,000 veterans from WWI, 15,000,000 from WWII and 3,000,000 from the Korean war.

The purpose of veteran's organizations, he said, is to help disabled veterans. The largest of these groups, according to Orr, is the American Legion, with 3,000,000 members. The veteran's groups also have child guidance programs, he added. The local Legion Post, Orr
