HORNBROOK Over 100 Attend Dinner

By MRS. H. H. CHAPMAN
Hornbrook—The election day dinner given in the Fireside room of the Community church by the Women's Society was well attended.

Over 100 dinners were served, mostly to townspeople, but a number of diners drove out from Yreka and Montague, and several from Ashland.

Mrs. Ardon Burnham was general chairman. Other members of the committee were Mrs. S. D. Haworth, Mrs. Mary Taggart, Mrs. Tom Watt Jr., Mrs. Harry Chapman, Mrs. Clarence Gowing, Mrs. Ernest Adams, and Mrs. Minnie Bloomingcamp.

The mumps epidemic continued to plague the local grammar school. At last report, a total of 37 youngsters, out of an enrollment of 90, were absent from school due to mumps, cold and an outbreak of chicken-pox.

Mrs. Laura Swinnerton returned last week from a three-months trip, part of which was spent with friends in Wallace, Idaho. She also visited in Banff and Lake Louise in Canada, where she took a "bumpy" ride over a glacier in an icemobile.

Mrs. Marshall Horn also returned home last week after visiting her sister in San Francisco for two weeks. While in the city, she attended several sessions of the Grand Chapter of the Eastern Star, and also visited Carmel, Calif., and Del Monte, via the famous Seventeen Mile drive.

Friday night might have been designated Hornbrook night at the meeting of Stella Chapter of the OES at Yreka. Conducting the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Van Orsdel, worthy matron and worthy patron, who will be succeeded next year in their respective stations by Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Burris.

Assisting as an officer in Friday night was Mrs. Tom Watt Jr. Also attending from Hornbrook were Mrs. Duane Hamner, Mrs. Marshall Horn, Mrs. Harry Chapman, all members of Stella chapter, and Mrs. L. C. Walsh, who is a past worthy matron of Mistletoe chapter at Riddle, Ore.

Miss Kate Bailey of Ft. Jones is visiting her sister, Mrs. Mary Kurt, for a few days.

Mrs. Fred Mills spent the week and in Medford at the home of her cousin, Mrs. O. D. Frazee.

Mrs. Nellie Griffith, of Montague, attended the election day dinner Tuesday, and also visited friends here for a short time. Mrs. Griffith is a former resident of Hornbrook where she was active in church affairs. She and her husband and two children moved to Montague several years ago, and since the death of her husband, she has been employed in Yreka. Her son is now attending Yreka High school, and her daughter is in high school in Barcelona, Spain, where she is living with relatives. Last year both children attended school in Mexico.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Hodge were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Baker of Palo Alto, Calif., and Loyal Ingersoll of Daly City, Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Hodge are cousins. Another visitor at the Hodge home was Mrs. Kay Kettlewell, who stopped by election day, on her way to Medford, where she will make her home temporarily with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rukovina.

Mrs. Kettlewell and her late husband, Chet Kettlewell, lived here for a number of years. After his retirement from the California State Agriculture Inspection department they moved to Eagle Point, Ore., and for the past few years, lived in Calistoga, Calif.

On Saturday, Mrs. Minnie Bloomingcamp attended a luncheon and meeting of county correspondents of the Siskiyou Daily News, given by the staff of the paper at the Yreka Inn in Yreka.

The Women's Society of the Hornbrook Community church held their regular meeting on Thursday at the home of Mrs. Harry Chapman. The meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Clarence Gowing. Members present besides the president and the hostess, were Mrs. Clara Howard, Mrs. Mary Taggart, Mrs. Minnie Bloomingcamp, Mrs. Ernest Adams, Mrs. Henley Clawson, Mrs. Tom Watt Jr., Mrs. S. D. Haworth and Mrs. Laura Swinnerton.

It was decided to have a pantry party and reception Thursday, Nov. 15 at 8 p.m. in the Fireside room of the church for the new pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. Lewis Manning.

Cake and coffee will be served and everyone is asked to bring an item for the pastor to help fill the pantry shelves at the parsonage.

The annual Christmas party will be held Dec. 18. Final plans for this event will be made at the next meeting which will be held at the church Nov. 29, with Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Gowing as hostesses.

Latest word on the condition of E. R. Grieve, who was injured in an automobile accident last month at Donner summit, is that he is improving slowly and is at present at the home of his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Brolund, at Lake Tahoe.

Mrs. Frank Lowe has returned home after a visit of several weeks with her sister in Klamath Falls.

A check with the local election board reveals that the recent national election brought out a record number of voters in this precinct. Of those registered, slightly over 90 per cent cast a ballot and several more were added when absentee ballots are counted.

Neuberger Donates Scholarship to OCE

Portland—UP—Sen. Richard L. Neuberger (D-Ore.) and his wife Maurine have donated a $500 scholarship to Oregon College of Education at Monmouth as an aftermath of the recent political campaign, the senator's office has announced.

Neuberger offered the $500 in September to anyone who could recover "umpire" samples which were thrown into the Rogue river after being used in connection with the Al Sarena mines in southern Oregon. Grants of patients for the Al Sarena mines was one of the hotly disputed issues in the 1935 campaign.

Neuberger said at the time that if the reward were not successfully claimed the money would go to OCE.

the home of her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bray at Montague, Calif.

Mrs. Gertrude Mitchell, who makes her home at Phillips motel, is spending a few weeks with her son at Hawthorne, Calif.

Mrs. Laura Troutman, of Sacramento, Calif., was a visitor last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Tyrer. Other callers were Mr. and Mrs. Sol Kowitz of Los Angeles. Mrs. Kowitz is a niece of Mrs. Tyrer's.

A J. C. Frank Fick, who is stationed in England, has written his parents that he will be leaving soon for French Morocco for temporary duty.

Around Hollywood

Hollywood—UP—Members of the upper classes were "insulting" and those nasty names the press called him were "below the belt," but Liberace figures he had the last laugh after his recent London tour: He would up with more fans instead of less.

Liberace — with George, Mama, teeth and all—is back home after a tour of the British Isles. Some of the British critics slung barbs that made the kidding he receives from the press here look like orchids. But the pianist-hooper-comedian says he can laugh all the way to the bank again.

Upper Crust Insulting
"Some of the people, the upper crust, were absolutely insulting," said Liberace as he packed his bags for a Las Vegas appearance. "And the locals! They didn't want me to introduce my mother at the royal command performance. They said, 'Oh, you Americans don't know any better.'"

"The press at first made me angry," Liberace continued. "I'm used to being kidded but I didn't expect that below the belt stuff. However, the critics didn't express the attitude of the people."

Personal Victory Claimed
The catastrophe turned into a "personal victory," however, because his nine concerts were sold out. He said he was told he could play there two years. "The English people were wonderful," he said. "People here gave the impression they were reserved. But they were more demonstrative than any American audience."

"We got thousands of fan letters," Liberace added. "Every time I was blasted by the papers my reception was great. The crowds got larger when the press got nastier. Actually the write-ups increased by fan following."

Salem — UP — Gov. Elmo Smith said Monday that "under no circumstances would I accept an appointment to the state Senate as has been suggested by some of my friends."
