Russian Delegation Seeking To Bolster Janos Kadar Regime

Budapest, Hungary—(U.P.)—A delegation of prominent Soviet leaders sought today to bolster the regime of Janos Kadar and end the revolt of the Hungarian people.

The delegation was reported to be led by Communist party chief Nikita S. Khrushchev and includes two other members of the ruling presidium, Anastas Mikoyan and M. A. Suslov.

Workers Continue Strike
The delegation arrived Monday even while Hungarian freedom fighters continued their bitter resistance and workers throughout the nation refused to end a general strike.

The delegation was believed to be striving desperately to shore up the Kadar regime which Russia imposed on Hungary after overthrowing the government of Imre Nagy eight days ago.

Kadar was reported to be conferring with Nagy in a desperate attempt to win popular support. The Soviet leaders were said to be backing Kadar in his attempts to enlist Nagy's help.

Refugee in Embassy
Nagy and other members of his government took refuge in the Yugoslav embassy after the Kadar government was proclaimed.

Leaflets were distributed in Budapest Monday calling for the "reinstatement of the Nagy government." Signed by "The Hungarian youth which goes on fighting," the leaflets also demanded the withdrawal of "alien forces."

The circulars urged workers not to work "under the command of the occupiers and the illegal usurping government."

"We shall ration our supplies and help each other, but we shall continue to strike... we shall not retreat."

Robert Mars Wins DAV Talent Show

Robert Mars of Mrs. Mars' Dancing studio, Rogue River, won top prize in the sixth annual Disabled American Veterans talent show here Friday. The act was a pantomime imitation of Elvis Presley.

Other winners in the show were Sharon Roberts, of Caesars Mussioli's school of accordion, a solo; Louis Thurston, from Mrs. Thurston's Dancing school, tap dance; Sandra Charters, a student of Miss Melody Pierce, with Monte Nobel, vocal; and Tamara Mars, 9, of Mrs. Mars' dancing school, junior age group special.

A special attraction were the Calico Kids from Colleen Hope's school with a square dance.

A total of 36 entries participated in the show at Medford High school. Prizes were awarded for winners in vocal, instrumental, dance, and novelty acts.

Pat Graham, general chairman of the show, said the show is to the DAV as junior league baseball is to the American Legion and the annual marble championship tournament is to the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Judges for the show were Joseph Vandervelden, Forest Grove, state department commander, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. VanLanningham, West Lynn. She is state department auxiliary commander, and he is state adjutant.

Diana Lynn To Wed Radio Executive

Hollywood—(U.P.)—Film star Diana Lynn and radio executive Mortimer Hall have announced plans to marry Dec. 7 at the Beverly Hills home of his sister.

Miss Lynn disclosed Monday that she will marry Hall, son of Dorothy Schiff, publisher of the New York Post, in the home of Mrs. Fred Leopold. Hall is president and general manager of local Radio Station KLAC.

It will be the second marriage for both.

Japanese Freighter Said Prevented From Sailing

Ceuta, Spanish Morocco—(U.P.)—The captain of the Japanese freighter Akibasa Maru complained today that Egyptian authorities prevented the vessel from sailing from Alexandria to escape Anglo-French bombardment.

The captain said he was warned a bombing attack was imminent and wished to put to sea, but Egyptians ordered the ship to remain in the harbor. The Akibasa Maru escaped damage and later was permitted to leave for Japan.

Plows, Sanding Crews Work on Highways

Salem—(U.P.)—State Highway department plows went back into action today as did sanding crews in the wake of fresh snow in Oregon's mountain passes.

Four inches of new snow was reported from Government Camp and at Warm Springs junction. An inch of new snow fell overnight on Santiam pass and a half inch on Willamette pass.

Continuing snow flurries were reported to maintenance men on Wilson River summit, Santiam pass, Willamette pass and Seneca. Drivers were urged to carry chains near Seneca. Rain was reported at Sunset summit, Grants Pass, Siskiyou, Green Springs, Cave Junction, Prospect, Coquille and Basque.

Fear of Crackdown Sweeps Over Poland

Warsaw—(U.P.)—A wave of sympathy for the defeated people of Hungary and fear of an impending crackdown on a more liberal government is sweeping Poland.

Rumors that Russia is massing several divisions on Poland's eastern frontier touched off fear that the government may curtail the new democratization program. Observers said a crackdown may be ordered to keep the Russians from finding an excuse to move into Poland as they did in Hungary.

THIEVES SOUGHT
Salem—(U.P.)—Police today were searching for two holdup men who escaped from Erickson's market here last night with an undetermined amount of cash after forcing an employee to open a safe.

Oregon Caves Falls In Visitor Record

Portland—(U.P.)—Tourists flocked to national parks and monuments in the Northwest in record numbers during the first nine months of this year with only the Oregon Caves national monument showing a decline in the number of visitors during a comparative period of a year ago.

Altogether, the seven national park areas in Oregon, Washington and Idaho showed a seven per cent increase in the number of persons visiting them this year over the same nine-month period a year ago.

Crater Lake national park recorded 347,996 visitors through Sept. 30 of this year compared to 332,295 during a like period of 1955.

The number of visitors to the Oregon Caves declined to 59,047 during the first nine months of the year from the 66,765 recorded there a year ago.

The total number of persons registered as visiting the seven national park areas in the three states reached 2,567,363 compared to the 1955 figure of 2,206,033.
