

Footlighters To Re-Open Play Tonight

"The Devil Passes," sophisticated three act drama by Benn Levy and produced by Medford Footlighters, will open the second half of its six day run at the Fairgrounds Theater, tonight, after a four day intermission. Curtain time is 8:30.

Pointing out that last week's audiences built up from 22 fog-frightened first nighters to full capacity Saturday night, Mrs. Max Wimmer, Footlighters president, said the group had added several extra rows of seats for this week's showings. The play will close Saturday night.

"This drama, so completely different from anything we've ever attempted, is clear proof of our theater's growing popularity," Mrs. Wimmer said. "We now have a solid, loyal following that turn out for everything we present, knowing they'll get a good show. And the crowds increase with every production."

"The Devil Passes," directed by Richard Graham, has a cast of nine, including a role played by the director himself. All members of the cast have had previous experience in Footlighters productions, although two, Colleen Romine and James Sullivan, have not appeared in local plays for five and four years respectively. Others include such familiar faces as Ruth Kilbourn, Clyde Wheaton, Frankie Burton and Charlene and Thayer Tarvin.

Plot of the play revolves about the Devil, clothed as a person who individually tempts a group of civilized moderns.

Handling the technical end of the production are Raun James, Frank Buchter, Bernard Roberts, Mrs. John Brandenburg, Kathleen Davies, Janice Boardman, Max Wimmer, Alice Buchter, Jerry Jerome and Louise Johnson.

Junior Club Holds Meeting in School

Darlene Morrow presided at the last meeting of Junior Degree of Honor, held in Lincoln school gymnasium. The club's new ritual was used.

Mrs. H. G. Wilson, director, presented caps to Judy Booth and Victoria Breen. Connie Bittle was a guest, her sponsor being Victoria Breen. The two girls presented a dance number, and also sang. Judy Breen gave a play number.

The club discussed plans for a Christmas party. Officers will be elected at a meeting set for December 8.

Local Government To Be Topic of League Speaker

Freeman Holmer, director of the Institute of Public Affairs at Willamette university, Salem, will discuss the findings of the Oregon legislative committee on local government, at a League of Women Voters luncheon and general meeting to be held Saturday, November 17, at 12:30 in the Rogue Valley Country club. This will give the community an opportunity to acquaint itself with the processes of the legislature in order to provide for country home rule where desired.

Since revision of the state constitution has been the study of the League since 1933, League members are preparing for possible call to action during the 1937 Legislature. The current study of constitutional revision is at the county level.

The state league committee studying this has posed five questions to be studied and answered by local Leagues around the state, of which there are 12. Briefly, the five questions asked will be:

1. Do you favor a uniform structure of government for all Oregon counties?
  2. Is the enabling legislation for the county manager plan too restrictive?
  3. Would you favor a more gradual changing of the traditional offices?
  4. Would you favor a constitutional amendment to permit home rule for those counties wishing it?
  5. Does your league prefer several optional forms of government that counties could adopt?
- These questions and many more related ones will be taken up in the coming session of the Oregon legislature. Anyone interested in hearing Mr. Holmer discuss these questions, or have questions they would like to ask, is invited to attend. Reservations are not necessary to hear Mr. Holmer speak. Luncheon reservations can be made by calling Mrs. Homer Marx, 2-6845 or Mrs. Fred Carr, 2-6610.

Initiation Banquet Planned by Society

Delta Kappa Gamma, national honorary for teachers, will hold the annual initiation and banquet Saturday, November 17, at 6:30 p.m. at the Medford hotel. Members are asked to make reservations at once with Miss Anna Laura Honts.

Practice at 4 p.m. and a business session at 4:30 p.m. will precede the banquet and initiation.

District Director Gives Program for Central Point Club

Central Point—Mrs. I. D. Fitzgerald, Siskiyou District Director, Oregon Federation of Garden clubs, demonstrated the use of old Christmas cards for decorating wrapped Christmas boxes and making gift folders at the last meeting of Central Point Garden club. It was held November 7 at the home of Mrs. Henry Conger.

Fall arrangements were exhibited by Mrs. Steve Benston and Mrs. Francis Russell.

Corsages went to Mrs. C. L. Moorehouse and Mrs. Grant Day. Prizes and leaflets on Gardening aids from the Ortho company were given to members. Prizes went to Mrs. B. M. Smith and Mrs. Clem Ault.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. A. M. Brooke, Mrs. K. C. Fluck and Mrs. Harry F. Mernken.

Guests were presented corsages.

Preceding the business meeting a dessert luncheon was served by Mrs. Conger assisted by Mrs. W. B. Kincaid and Mrs. Ault.

Next meeting of the club will be the annual Christmas party to be held December 5 at the home of Mrs. C. W. Anhorn.

Speaker Slated For Howard PTA

Dr. Bill Sampson of Southern Oregon college will speak for a meeting of Howard Parent-Teacher association set for tonight at 8 o'clock in the new music room of the school.

Dr. Sampson's topic will be "Schools for a Strong America."

In observance of American Education Week, a program will be given by the sixth and eighth grade students to show the development of education in America from the earliest colonial schools to the super-schools of the future.

All parents are invited to attend.

Camp Fire Leaders Make Plans For Coming Activities

Camp Fire activities for coming weeks were planned at the monthly meeting of Medford Leaders and Sponsors' association held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Richard Pedley, 932 Reddy avenue. Mrs. D. C. Hendrix, chairman of the association, presided.

Nominating committee vacancies for the election of officers in January were filled by Mrs. D. C. Hendrix, Mrs. Robert Cosler, group organizational chairman at Jackson school, and Mrs. Douglas Gordenier. Plans for the purchase of additional training materials were submitted.

A Christmas workshop will take place at the Camp Fire office Tuesday, November 27, from 9:30 a.m. to 11:15 a.m. Mrs. W. I. Luman, a member of the district training committee, will conduct the workshop.

First in a series of basic training courses was given by Mrs. Ruth Gerety, executive director of the Rogue Camp Fire council. All leaders in Rogue council have now received their Orientation course. Basic training and workshops will be held throughout the year to give Blue Bird leaders and Camp Fire guardians continuous training.

Next leaders and sponsors meeting will be held January 8. Installation of officers will take place at that time and plans for the annual birthday week in March will be completed.

The monthly buzz sessions and coffee time followed the business session.

Plan Party

Alpha Lambda chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority, will entertain members of Alpha Kappa chapter, Ashland, at a party set for Friday, November 16, at 8 p.m. The event will be at the home of Mrs. Tom Makris, 602 Stewart avenue.

Basket Making Is Demonstrated For Garden Club

Phoenix—A morning workshop meeting was held by Phoenix Garden club November 9 at the Community club building. Mrs. L. C. McCay and Mrs. G. G. Stagg of the Howard Garden club demonstrated basket and planter making.

At 1 p.m. the regular meeting of the club was attended by 21 members and 4 guests, including Mrs. McCay, Mrs. Stagg, Mrs. D. M. Yorton and Mrs. Foster, the last two of Medford.

It was announced that the Phoenix club will decorate the chapel at Camp White on December 15 and will give the program for the Camp White Men's Garden club November 21.

Hostesses in charge of refreshments were Mrs. H. A. DuBuque, Mrs. Chester Parker, Mrs. E. G. Coleman and Mrs. L. O. Caster.

Plans Announced By Presbyterians

Phoenix—Women of Phoenix Presbyterian church have been busy this week with preparations for two events.

Saturday, November 17, they will hold a sale of baked food at Norton's Market. Mrs. Al Morin, president, and Mrs. Enid Caster, treasurer of the woman's association, are in charge of the sale.

Second of the events is the annual praise service, set for Sunday at 8 p.m. This annual event always precedes Thanksgiving by a few days. Plans this year are in charge of Mrs. Reo Nico-demus. Mrs. Ernest Volkman will lead the meeting, and Hale Loofturrow will be soloist.

Refreshments will follow the service. Due to the special Sunday evening service, the usual meeting of the women's association is canceled.

The Youth group will meet at 7:30 p.m. preceding the Praise service. A film entitled "Physical Aspects of Adolescence" will be shown, and following this the group will join in the 8 p.m. service.
