UO Grid Squad Drops Southern Cal; Oregon State Clinches PCC Title

Oregon Ducks Surprise USC 7-0 in Upset

Outweighed Webfoot Line Shocks Trojans

By HOWARD APPLEGATE
United Press Sports Writer

Portland, Ore. — (U.P.) — A fighting University of Oregon football team outfought mighty Southern California for an upset 7-0 Pacific Coast conference victory in muddy Multnomah stadium Saturday before 14,480 fans.

It was only the second loss of the season for the Trojans who were battled off their feet by the outweighed Oregon line.

The smooth quarterbacking of Tom Crabtree and a lightning-like 50-yard drive in the first half gave Oregon its touchdown. Charlie Tourville, a 167-pound sophomore halfback from Martinez, Cal., carried six times on 10 plays on the Oregon touchdown drive for 39 of the 50 yards. He packed the ball over from the three and fullback Jack Morris added his 21st straight conversion to wrap up the day's scoring.

Trojans Penetrate

Southern California never got inside the Oregon 30 in the first half. In the second half the Trojans penetrated to the Oregon 13 but lost the ball on downs.

The slippery going obviously bothered the Trojans and their star fullback C. R. Roberts. Although it didn't rain during the game, a heavy downpour last night and showers Saturday made the going difficult.

It was Oregon's fourth victory in nine games. Until Saturday Southern Cal led the PCC in total offense and Oregon was the defensive leader.

End Phil McHugh and two fighting 189-pound guards, Spike Hillstrom and Harry Mondale, were standouts in the Oregon line.

USC Passes Threat

Southern Cal's biggest threat came from passing. Late in the first half quarterback Jim Conroy overthrew halfback Ernie Zampese who was in the clear for what would have been a touchdown.

The Trojans finally solved Oregon's ground attack but they couldn't overcome the spirited line play of Coach Len Casanova's Webfoots.

With only three minutes to play, Southern Cal got a break by taking over on the Oregon 36 after a bad fourth down pass from center but the fighting Webfoots smeared the Southern Cal passing attack and had the ball at midfield as the game ended.

JACKSONVILLE LEAGUE

Jacksonville Junior Bowling league has organized for the new season and will roll two lines on Monday afternoons at Medford Bowling lanes.

Officers are Dianne Robbins, president; Robin Wyatt, vice president; Nancy Adams, secretary; Kay Adams, treasurer, and Joan Fretwell, publicity manager. Mrs. Mary Sullenger, girl's physical education instructor at Jacksonville High school is advisor to the group. Mrs. Ann Wilson, southern Oregon junior bowling instructor, gives coaching to league members on Mondays.

The girls in the league expect to participate in the Oregon Women's Bowling tourney here in February and March.

One team of the league last year was 81st among 3700 in national junior competition.

Team A now heads the league with Teams F, E and D tied for second.

Bevos Come From Behind To Win, 14-10

Stubborn Idaho Nearly Prevents OSC from Bid

By RUSSELL NIELSEN
United Press Sports Writer

Moscow, Idaho — (U.P.) — Oregon State's Beavers played off their feet all day and came from behind in the closing seconds Saturday to defeat little Idaho 14 to 10 and clinch their Pacific Coast Conference title and Rose Bowl bid.

Oregon State was hopelessly bottled up by the determined Idaho crew, but a blocked goal-line punt and long pass-run late in the game pulled the victory out of the fire and gave OSC its first conference and Rose Bowl bid since 1941.

The winning touchdown came on the strength of a 51-yard pass-run from halfback Paul Lowe to halfback Earnel Durden who was spilled on the Idaho three. On the fourth down, Paul Lowe ran right end to score with just two minutes left to play.

Upset Probable

Until that moment, however, an almost unbelievable upset seemed probable. Oregon State had been able to move into Idaho territory only three times. The deepest penetration was to the 25.

Idaho's bruising line which mulled vaunted Oregon State's single wing attack constantly set up the first score when end Lonnie Parks recovered Durden's fumble on Oregon State's 35. Seven plays later halfback Larry Norby plunged four yards for the score and Jerry Kramer converted.

Norby was a demon on offense ripping through the OSC line time after time for yardage which enabled Idaho to maintain possession of the ball most of the game.

Oregon State, which didn't collect a first down in the first half, earned a big break in the second period. Center Buzz Randall crashed through to block Howard Willis' fourth down punt and Oregon State took over on the Idaho one. Fullback Bob Berry plunged over on the next play and John Clarke converted. The score stood 7-7 halftime.

Durden Fumbles

Oregon State drove to the Idaho 25 midway through the third period but Idaho took over when a fourth down pass failed. The tide turned in Idaho's favor again early in the fourth period when Durden fumbled a fake punt and Idaho recovered on the State's 35. Idaho moved to the 19 then Kramer angled a 26-yard field goal through the uprights with 2:30 played as the tiny crowd of about 4,000 dad's day fans roared in anticipation of an upset.

Moments later an Oregon State punt into the wind was downed on the OSC 7 but the Beavers recovered a fumbled lateral on their 15. With time ticking, the desperate Beavers gave the ball to Durden on a fourth and six situation on the OSC 28. He picked up the vital first down. A penalty moved OSC back to its 31. Two plays later Lowe stepped back and threw to Durden who caught it on the Idaho 34 and rambled to the Idaho three setting up the winning score.

Nau Drills Hoop Crew At Crater

Central Point — Transition from football to basketball was made by Crater high athletes here last week as a large delegation of gridders changed their gear for cager togs.

New coach Jim Nau said that 20 to 25 boys made the switch from the gridiron and appeared at his maplecourt drills in midweek.

Two full weeks of hoop workouts were completed Friday. Forty-five candidates were on hand for opening drills. This group was sliced to make way for the aspirants switching over from football. Around 35 boys were with the squad at the end of the past week's practices.

Five Lettermen

Five lettermen are on Nau's current squad. They are George Juveland, Dick Davis, Fred Herrmann, Wayne Allen and Don Goyette. All were on the football crew during the fall.

Nau said that boys who have been showing up well in early drills include John Greb, Jim Estramado, Craig Cochran and Randy Campbell.

The Comets swing from the Rogue league and A-2 class play to full-time participation in the A-1 Southern Oregon conference during the 1956-1957 season. First games for the Comets following the loop jamboree on Dec. 1 will be against Oakridge, Dec. 7 and 8, at Central Point.

Nau is an ex-Oregon State college star. He played his last season for OSC in 1951-1952. He coached Central Oregon Junior college at Bend last year after two-year's service in the Air Force at Bangor, Me.

Wilson Leads UCLA Win

Los Angeles — (U.P.) — Sophomore halfback Kirk Wilson became the "Mr. Everything" of the UCLA Bruins Saturday as he led the Bruins to a 13 to 0 victory over underdog Kansas before 21,913 fans in Memorial Coliseum in shirt-sleeve football weather.

Wilson, for the fourth consecutive week the nation's leading punter, scored the two touchdowns and set a new Pacific Coast Conference punting record with booming kicks that time and again got the Bruins out of tight spots. His passing kept the Kansas defense loosened-up.

It was a stubborn Kansas eleven that kept the Bruins scoreless the first half and showed signs of a running attack that might upset the dopesters who had pegged the Bruins a two-touchdown favorite.

Turkey Run To Be Held Today

A 68 mile motorcycle turkey run will get underway today at noon with cyclists to ride off at one minute intervals from the Richfield truck and auto service station on Highway 99, north of Medford. The races will be held rain or shine.

The competition will be governed by a point system with riders penalized for reaching check points too soon or late.

White's Cycle shop, Medford, is the sponsor of the annual event. Nine trophies will be presented with a turkey as grand prize. All riders interested are invited to participate. There will be a small entry fee.

Basketball

Paul Arizin and Neil Johnston the "old pros" of the Philadelphia Warriors, are beginning to hit the mark and their momentum has moved the defending champions into a first place tie with the Boston Celtics in the National Basketball association.

Arizin hit for 27 points and Johnston for 21 Friday night to pace the Warriors to an easy 123-97 win over the Minneapolis Lakers.

Iowa Breaks Ohio State Win Streak

Iowa City, Iowa—(U.P.)—Iowa bought its passport west to the Rose Bowl Saturday, upsetting Ohio State, 6-0, to break the Buckeyes' 17-game Big Ten winning streak to give the Hawkeyes a share of the conference title for the first time in 34 years.

The win, before 57,732 fans, closed Iowa's Big Ten season with five wins and one defeat, a record that Ohio State could equal by beating Michigan next Saturday.

But customarily the Big Ten selects for the Rose Bowl the highest eligible team in the standings and thus Iowa was a cinch for the chance as neither the Buckeyes nor Michigan State can play in the post-season match this year.

Loyal Yale Men Rampage; Fined For School Spirit

Princeton, N. J.—(U.P.)—Three loyal Yale university students fined a pile of extra-curricular paper work Saturday to pay for carrying school spirit too far.

In a self-styled rally for the Yale-Princeton football game, seven students rampaged through town early Friday painting huge Y's in blue near five undergraduate eating clubs.

They were arrested, fined a total of $60 and ordered to pay an estimated $100 in damages. And with the spirit of the old schoolmaster, Magistrate Paul R. Chesebro ordered three of the undergrads to write 1,000-word essays entitled, "My own personal views on the defacement of personal property."

Gophers Upset Michigan State

Minneapolis, Minn. — (U.P.) — Minnesota, refusing to quit, upset Michigan State 14-13 before 62,478 frenzied fans Saturday in a futile bid for the Rose Bowl.

The loss knocked Michigan State out of a chance for the Big Ten championship. Iowa's 6-0 win over Ohio State clinched the Rose Bowl bid for the Hawkeyes. The Gophers, sparked by substitute quarterback Dick Larson, went 70 yards in five plays to snatch the game from the Spartans in the final period.

Hopper Quits Baseball

Hollywood — (U.P.) — Manager Clay Hopper of the Pacific Coast league's Hollywood Stars Saturday tendered his resignation to club president Robert H. Cobb, saying he would retire from baseball "unless something attractive comes along."

Cobb declared, "Clay did an outstanding job with our club this year, but acceeding to his request, we are accepting his resignation."

The club said the wire containing the resignation was sent from Hopper's Greenwood, Miss., home.

"Please accept my resignation as manager of the Hollywood baseball club," the wire said. "I am undecided what I will do at present. Unless something attractive comes along, I'm going to retire from baseball."

Lincoln, Neb. — (U.P.) — Halfback Delbert Shiner scored on touchdown runs of 91 and 17 yards Saturday to lead the Baylor Bears past Nebraska, 26-7.

OLYMPIC TRAINING MISHAP—With a painful gash in her leg, Hungarian javelin thrower Erzsebet Vigh is helped into a car at Olympic Village in Melbourne, Australia. Erzsebet fell during a practice session gashing her leg with her spiked shoes. The injury is not expected to keep her from competing in the games.
