Many Parties Held For Bride-Elect; Wedding Saturday

Miss Glenna James, whose wedding to Arthur E. Symons Jr., of Seattle is set for November 24 in First Presbyterian church here, has been complicated at many pre-nuptial parties. The series of events began in early fall after the wedding date was announced, and continued through last week.

In early October Miss James and her mother, Mrs. Albert L. James, 1426 Euclid avenue, spent a week in Seattle with Mr. Symons' parents, and Mrs. Symons gave a large tea for her future daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ross P. Williams and Mrs. W. Forest Goodfellow were hostesses for a luncheon shower in honor of Miss James, and another luncheon-shower was given in the Mercer Island home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenna N. Rotton.

Also entertaining for Miss James some time ago were two of her bridesmaids, Miss Bernadine Thompson of Berkeley, Calif., and Miss Donna Witter, Medford. The evening party was given at the home of Miss Witter's parents, the George Witters, 843 West Second street.

Mrs. Dwight H. Findley and Mrs. Kenneth Denman were hostesses for a luncheon and shower October 31, inviting guests to the Findley's home on Old Stage road.

Mrs. Herbert L. Roberts, 622 Stewart avenue, gave a shower November 13 for the bride-elect, and last Thursday Mrs. D. Kirkland West was hostess for a luncheon at her home which complimented Miss James.

Miss James' attendants for the wedding will be Miss Thompson, Miss Witter, Mrs. Gordon James, her sister-in-law, Miss Carolyn Coleman and a cousin, Miss Diana James, Modesto, Calif. The Gordon James and the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Symons, will arrive in Medford Tuesday morning.

Ladies Mounted Troop Plans Party Tonight

Ladies Mounted Troop is sponsoring the weekly potluck square dancing party tonight at 6:30 o'clock.

Members of the Jackson county Sheriff's posse, Ladies Mounted Troop, Medford Trail Riders, Jackson county Junior posse, and Rogue Rangers are invited to attend.

Those attending should take a covered dish for dinner. There will be cards for those who do not wish to dance according to Mrs. Mary H. Brown, chairman.

To Elect

Olive Rebekah Lodge will meet Monday, November 19, at 8 p.m. in the Odd Fellows hall. Election of new officers will be held.

Mrs. J. D. Bruimond, noble grand, will preside.

Medford Couple Married In Presbyterian Ceremony

First Presbyterian church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Donna Mae Halvorsen to Everett William Kastner Jr., on Saturday, November 10. Dr. D. Kirkland West officiated at the three o'clock afternoon rites with about 175 guests present. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Halvorsen, 754 Marshall avenue, Medford, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Everett William Kastner, 215 Willamette avenue. The bride, whose father gave her in marriage, was gowned in Chantilly lace and tulle designed with a long-sleeved lace bodice and full skirt with front overskirt of the lace. Her fingertip length veil of tulle was held by a coronet of pearls. Her bridal bouquet was a cascade of white Amazon lilies with stephanotis.

Mrs. Steve Crippen Jr., was matron-of-honor for her sister and the other attendants were Miss Janet Jamison, Miss Joann Jamison, Miss Sally Ross and Mrs. Monte Holst. Mrs. Crippen's gown was of turquoise velvet with three-quarter length sleeves and pleated skirt. Her headress was of matching turquoise and white net, and she carried white Fuji chrysanthemums.

The other attendants wore gowns of royal blue velvet designed to match that worn by Mrs. Crippen and their headresses were of royal blue and white net. They also carried white Fuji chrysanthemums.

Alton Stone was best man for the bridegroom and ushers were Jerry Gatlina, Jack Gault, Gordon Smith and John Bellack.

Mrs. H. E. Marsh was organist, and Mrs. Charles P. Champin was soloist. Potted palms and baskets of white chrysanthemums with turquoise ribbons decorated the church. The candles were lighted by John Bellack and Jack Gault.

The reception was held in the Pioneer room of the Jackson ho-

Two Musicians Engaged to Wed
