

Mrs. Richard W. Francis

Francis-Melton Rites are Held In Klamath Falls

Klamath Falls—Miss Deloris Joan Melton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Melton, Klamath Falls, and granddaughter of Jack Tungate, Butte Falls pioneer, became the bride of Richard W. Francis in a ceremony October 11 in Klamath Falls.

Close friends and relatives of the couple attended the 10:30 o'clock morning ceremony in the Congregational church with the Rev. M. K. McKinnie officiating at the double ring service.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Rose Austin, Niagara, N.Y. The bride wore a white satin dress fashioned with long bodice and pleated nylon net back panel which dropped from a satin bow at the waistline. Her veil was trimmed with lace applique and she carried a bouquet of white carnations encircling a passion flower on a white Bible.

The church was decorated with lavender and white chrysanthemums. Mrs. Arthur Denison played the traditional organ wedding music.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Melton wore a lavender taffeta dress with purple chrysanthemum corsage and black and lavender accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Milwaukie Union High school and was making her home in San Diego. The bridegroom is a photographer's mate in the United States Navy and is stationed in San Diego.

Following a reception at the home of the bride's parents the newlywed couple returned to San Diego where they will make their home.

Out of town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Athel Dudley, Shady Cove; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hammer, Prospect; L. E. Tungate, Medford.

Buzz Session Set By Howard PTA

Howard Parent-Teacher association plans to resume the buzz sessions started earlier this month. Another is set for Tuesday, November 20, at 7:30 p.m. for parents of children in the sixth grade.

Parents are asked to attend in order to meet the teacher and to acquaint themselves with the school's activities.

Parents are to meet in their child's room. Refreshments will be served.

Miss Leone Massey Bride Of Arnold Neidermeyer

Medford First Church of the Nazarene was the setting Saturday, November 3, for the wedding of Miss Leone Massey and Arnold Neidermeyer. The ceremony was solemnized at 8 o'clock in the evening by the Rev. Leonard Hannon of Ashland, brother-in-law of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Massey of Ashland. Mr. Neidermeyer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Neidermeyer, Central Point-Jacksonville highway, Medford.

Baskets of yellow and lavender chrysanthemums decorated the church. Mrs. A. F. Kornstad played the traditional organ wedding music and Mrs. Alva Yoakum sang.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length satin gown fashioned with lace bodice. Her veil was fingertip length and she carried a lavender orchid and white stephanotis on a white Bible.

Mrs. Willis Miller of Roseburg was matron of honor for her aunt. She wore a ballerina length dress in dark lavender color.

Other attendants were Miss Doris Hickson of Eagle Point and Mrs. Dorman York of Montague, Calif. They wore dresses in pale lavender color of ballerina length. Their headpieces and bouquets were of pale lavender chrysanthemums.

Candlelighters were Miss Marilyn Hays and Miss Carlene Conrad, nieces of the bride from Roseburg. Their dresses were of pale green also in ballerina length.

Linda and Carrie Miller, grandnieces of the bride from Roseburg, were flower girls. They wore floor length pale yellow satin dresses and carried lavender baskets of yellow chrysanthemum petals.

Best man was Jack Nelson, brother-in-law of the bridegroom from Winston, Ore. Fredrick Starboard and Richard Neidermeyer, cousin of the bridegroom, were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Massey wore a grey dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church annex. Mrs. Craig Hays, sister of the bride from Roseburg, cut and served the wedding cake assisted by Miss Vera Gish. Miss Louise Kinchoeloe and Mrs. Irene Wheeler poured the punch. Mrs. Mary Foster assisted with the reception arrangements. Mrs. Loyd Massey, sister-in-law of the bride, was in charge of the guest book and Miss Faith Diedrick was at the gift table.

For her traveling attire the bride wore a navy tweed suit with matching accessories and the orchid was from her bridal bouquet.

Following a wedding trip the couple will make their home in Medford. The bride is employed at Woolworth's company and the bridegroom is in business with his father.
