

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Allen McCay

Rites Marry Judith Frohs, Dale McCay

Jacksonville — Miss Judith Arline Frohs became the bride of Dale Allen McCay in a ceremony Saturday, November 3 at 8 o'clock in the evening at the First Presbyterian church in Jacksonville. The Rev. Norman R. Tully officiated at the wedding attended by 45 relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. V. L. Moon of Jacksonville and Carl Frohs, Portland. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. McCay, 3334 Forest avenue, Medford.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress of nylon lace and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations encircling a white orchid.

Mrs. James Cabler attended the bride. Candelighters were Miss Martha Wyatt, and Doug Clark served as best man. Ronald McCay and Melvin Saltmarsh seated the guests.

White chrysanthemums and pink satin ribbon decorated the church. Mrs. Carl Frohs played the traditional wedding music.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the McCay's home. Miss Karen Frohs, sister of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Shirley Nolan cut and served the wedding cake while Mrs. William Curry and Mrs. Floyd Wyatt poured the punch.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Moon chose a purple knit suit with pale lavender orchid corsage. Mrs. McCay wore a brown suit with orchid corsage.

The bride attended Jacksonville High school. The bridegroom attended Medford and Jacksonville schools and is employed as a carpenter with the Rogue Valley Construction company.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Paul Matthews are shown here during the reception which followed their wedding November 1 in St. Paul's Episcopal church, Klamath Falls. Chatting with the newlyweds is C. S. Elliott, Klamath Falls. The bride is the former Mrs. Wilda Fabrick, Medford. The reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Balsiger, long-time friends of the couple. The Matthews are living in Klamath Falls.

Newlywed Pair To Make Home in Klamath Falls

Klamath Falls—Mr. and Mrs. J. Paul Matthews have returned from their wedding trip to Las Vegas, Nev. and Death Valley, Calif. and are at home at 522 Lincoln street, Klamath Falls.

Before her wedding on November 1 in St. Paul's Episcopal church, Klamath Falls, the bride was Mrs. Wilda (Billie) Fabrick, Medford, Ore. The nuptial service was read by the Rev. Galen Onstad, vicar of St. Paul's, in the presence of a small group of relatives and friends of the couple. Mrs. Elmer Balsiger, Klamath Falls, long time friend of the bride, was her only attendant. Ellis Matthews, also of Klamath Falls, served as his brother's best man.

The bride wore a beige dress with silk jersey bodice and full skirt of delustered satin. Her small hat and gloves were a matching shade of beige and her shoes and bag were of brown alligator.

Following the quiet ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Balsiger were hosts at a reception for the newlyweds at their suburban Klamath Falls home. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hulise, Mrs. Janice Long and Frank Lovett, all of Medford.

Valley Scout Council Elects Officers; Area is Expanded

Rogue Valley Area Council of Girl Scouts met Wednesday to elect new officers for the coming year and hear reports for conference delegates. Officers elected were Mrs. Sam Jennings, second vice president; Mrs. Richard Gray, third vice president; Mrs. Frank Tamney, secretary; Mrs. L. G. Stidham, membership nominating committee; Mrs. Ted Kelt, Grants Pass; Mrs. G. M. Cannon, and Mrs. Walter Garner are members at large. Committee members are Mrs. Hugh Moulton, Mrs. Scott Davis, Mrs. Charles Barnes, and Mrs. W. W. Stevenson.

The council voted to accept the northern part of Siskiyou county as part of the Rogue Valley area of Region 11. Communities involved are Fort Jones, Yreka, Hilt and Happy Camp, with approximately 289 Girl Scouts and 106 adults. By coming under the jurisdiction of the council, the Siskiyou area will participate in basic leadership training, camping at Low Echo, registration of troops through the council office instead of direct to National Headquarters, monthly bulletins, and field director visits.

The council voted to lease Grayback camp for year round camping. It is used by Illinois Valley as a day camp and as a training camp for adult leaders. It will also be available for trip camping and overnight troop camps. It will be leased from the U. S. Forest Service. Some repair work and renovations will be necessary on the site but some materials have been donated for this work by Grants Pass firms.

It was decided that Low Echo camp will be divided next year into three ten day and one seven day session of camping.

Senior Scouts who attended the Senior Roundup near Detroit during July reported on the trip and showed slides. The pictures were taken by Karen Johnson of Medford. Taking part in the panel were Mary Friend and Karen Johnson of Medford, and Sandra Ullian of Medford, and Sandra Ullian of Medford. Judy Dreis of Grants Pass. They reported that about 6000 senior scouts from all the states and several foreign countries attended the roundup.

Other reports were given by Senior Scouts and adults who attended the regional conference in Spokane. Adults who attended were Mrs. Tom Lytle, Mrs. Calvin Ross and Mrs. Harold Ricks. Each spoke on an aspect of the conference; leaders, fun in scouting, service in scouting, the court of honor, and the patrol system. They also spoke on council structure and the national structure in scouting. It was stated that leaders are the most important in bringing the program to the girls.

Senior Scouts who attended the Spokane meeting were Nancy Stevenson and Mary Friend. They attended workshops on adventure out-of-doors, and camping and adventures at home and abroad. The two girls took part in a skit showing international opportunities in scouting. They met the National President of Girl Scouting, Mrs. Roy F. Layton.

Other business of the council was the introduction of committee members and new officers. Mrs. Scott Davis introduced Mrs. Carol Cummins from Grants Pass, a member of the public relations committee.

Miss Mary Aldrich, executive director, introduced Mrs. William Baker, of Grants Pass, who is to serve as field director. Mrs. Baker was field director here in 1954-55. She will work with the four neighborhoods in Ashland and the nine neighborhoods in Grants Pass. She will also be day camp coordinator for the seven day camps in the area; and will work with the public relations committee, troop camp committee, training committee, program committee, and troop organization committee.

After the business meeting slides were shown of Camp Low Echo. The invocation was given by the Rev. John Bright. The flag ceremony was presented by the five Senior Scouts.

Dr. Holt Speaker For Nurses' Unit

Dr. William W. P. Holt spoke for a meeting of District 4, Oregon State Nurses' association, Tuesday evening. Dr. Holt talked about his 50 years of medical practice in Jackson county, relating anecdotes of early days, when house calls were made by way of horseback, and there were no telephones or electricity.

The meeting was held at the penthouse of Rogue Valley Memorial hospital. Plans for the annual Christmas basket project were announced by the chairman, Mrs. Lois Beach. Mrs. Edith Davis and Mrs. Mae Issi reported plans for two financial projects. Mrs. Sue Monteith, president, discussed the need of registered nurses for the Red Cross program. Nurses are needed to be trained as instructors for classes in "Home Care of the Sick" and "Mother and Baby Care," and are also needed for the Red Cross blood bank program. Any nurses who could give even a few hours of their time to Red Cross activities are asked to contact the local Red Cross office.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Bell Jones, Mrs. Beach, Mrs. Ruth Amer, Mrs. Issi, Mrs. Beth Barker and Mrs. Mabel Cram.

Chapter BE Plans Meeting Tuesday

Chapter BE, PEO, will meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday, November 20, at the home of Mrs. Allan Perry, 105 Geneva street. Mrs. Wilson Wait and Mrs. Gertrude Bogart will discuss the states of New York and Texas.
