

Sorority Chapters Hold Rites

Three chapters of Beta-Sigma Phi sorority held pledge ceremonies in recent days.

Beta Upsilon held its ceremony at the home of Mrs. M. H. Hogan, Siskiyou court. Mrs. Howard Blew conducted the service, with Mrs. Wayne Harris and Mrs. Arthur Brooks assisting. Pledged were Mrs. Don Adams, Mrs. Lawrence S. Horton, Mrs. Dick Knoll, Mrs. Rae Bostwick, Mrs. Jack McCarey and Mrs. Marsh Ramsby. Mrs. Harris will take charge of training the pledge class.

Beta Upsilon will meet Tuesday, November 23, at the home of Mrs. DeVon Wray, 1908 Stratford way.

The annual pledge ritual of Alpha Beta chapter was held at the home of Mrs. O. A. Eden, 211 Genesee street, November 8.

During the formal ceremony each girl was welcomed into the sorority and received a pledge pin. After the ritual the new pledges were escorted to Mon Desir inn where dinner was served.

Mrs. Kurt Denton, sponsor of Alpha Rho chapter, was hostess at her home, 805 West 2nd street, for the sororities pledge ceremony last Tuesday.

Church Rites In Seattle Wed Couple

University of Washington Congregational church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Shirley Elaine Byrd to Lawrence Dean LaFollette on Saturday, November 3. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Byrd, 924 East Jackson street, Medford, and Mr. LaFollette is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. LaFollette, Seattle. He is the grandson of the late Dr. E. B. Pickel, who was a well known early-day physician in Medford, and of Mrs. J. J. Holt, who also made her home in this city.

The bride, a commercial art major at the university, designed her own wedding dress of embroidered Swiss tulle. It was fashioned with a long bodice and chapel train. Her matching headpiece was a tiny beaded crown of pearls and tulle with a imported silk illusion fingertip veil. She carried her white prayer book with orchids and stephanotis.

The bridal attendants were gowned alike in crystalettes of tones of pink, fashioned princess style and ballerina length. They wore matching satin slippers and gloves, and their headpieces were tiny pink velvet flowers with pearl centers. Miss Genelle Elms, Aberdeen, the maid of honor, wore deep pink. Miss JoAnn LaFollette, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Patricia Warrington, Honolulu, T.H., and Miss Patricia Steere, Whittier, Calif., were bridesmaids. All carried white prayer books with pink roses.

"The Angels are Lighting God's Little Candles" was played in chimes as the Misses Sue Allison, Marilee Powell, Judith Nelson, and Patricia Irving lighted the 130 pink candles. They wore rose pink dresses and their tapers held sprays of roses. Flower girls were Jean and Joan Hirsch, small twin cousins of the bride. They wore long dresses of pale pink crystalette trimmed in lace.

Lee LaFollette was his brother's best man while the bride's younger brother, Richard Byrd, Medford, was junior best man. Ushers were Carl Weikert, Elmer Rogers, and Robert Byrd, brother of the bride. Thomas Golee, Seattle, sang the wedding songs, including the "Chi Omega Sweetheart Song".

The double ring ceremony was read by Dr. Oscar M. Adam from Port Angeles, Wash., and Dr. Lawrence J. Mitchell, Seattle.

Mrs. Byrd wore a toast brown crystalette princess style dress and pink accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. LaFollette wore a blue grey dress with a matching embroidered jacket and black accessories. Both wore pink orchid corsages.

A reception for 300 guests was held at the church.

The bride, a University of Washington senior, is a member of Chi Omega sorority and University Rally Girls. Mr. LaFollette will be graduated from the university this December and at that time will be commissioned in the U.S. Army. He is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity and Oval club.

The bride spent the past summer in Medford with her parents and was employed at Leon's store. Mr. and Mrs. Byrd and their sons were all in Seattle for the wedding.

M. Paulazzo, Co-hostesses for the evening were Mrs. James Tengesdal, Mrs. Richard Henselman, Mrs. Larry Allen and Mrs. James Chapman.

Mrs. M. E. Sleeter, director of the chapter was also present at the ceremony.

Next meeting of the sorority will be held November 27 at the home of Mrs. Tengesdal, 1216 West 8th Street at 8 p.m.

Pre-Holiday Show Held by Lady Lions In Central Point

Pre-holiday fashions were shown in a holiday setting at the dessert luncheon and style show given by the Central Point Lady Lions November 8 at the Central Point Junior High school.

Theme for the show was "Things to Come" and featured fashions and hair styles from Mann's department store.

Table decorations were frosted candles set in pink cedar sprays. Raun James of Mann's designed the stage decorations of gold manzanita branches with pink and black leaves and small lights.

More than 140 women attended the benefit show for the Lions kindergarten and the Sight and Blind Conservation fund.

Models included Mrs. C. W. Abbott, Mrs. Don Burselson, Mrs. Clyde Christ, Mrs. Lee Collinsworth, Mrs. Fred Lester, Mrs. Gordon Mekvold, Mrs. C. A. Meyer, Mrs. Richard Stratton, Miss Marla Abbott and Miss Sally Elden. Mrs. Wyles Berry was commentator.

Others who helped with the luncheon included Mrs. Kathleen Esp, Mrs. Mildred McCarty and Mrs. Donna Doyle of Mann's store; Timothy Horn, hair stylist; Jerry Heiken, table cakes; Mrs. C. W. Anhorn, cake decorations; Norman Carothers and the Crater High music department, music; Warren Holbrook and the Crater High Art department, advertising posters; Crater High Future Homemakers of America and Mrs. Gayle Perdue, serving; Sanford Payne Jr. and C. A. Meyer, principal of Central Point Junior High school photographers; organ music was by the Music Mart, and prizes were furnished by John Cupp.
