Lake Creek Grange

Election of officers for 1957 was held at the last meeting of the Lake Creek Grange. Mrs. Murray Bartling was elected Grange master. She is the wife of this year's master, and the first woman master here since Mrs. Mary Moore.

The other officers are: overseer, Leland M. Charley; lecturer, Faye Burrell; steward, Ira Woolfolk; assistant steward, Merton Bradshaw; chaplain, Faye George; treasurer, Ellyn Charley; gatekeeper, Carl Ribbitt; cures, Neill Webb; pomona, Mary Ribbitt; flora, Ozie Burrell; lady assistant steward, Betty Bradshaw; executive committee members are Murray Bartling, Ernest Burrell, and Nora Bradshaw.

Ira Woolfolk reported that a book entitled "Diseases of Livestock" and one on water are available by writing to Congressman Harris Ellsworth, Roseburg, Ore.

It was voted to increase the Grange dues at the beginning of the new year. A final vote will be taken at the December meeting. There is an increase in the state dues which we must meet.

It was also voted to hold our annual Thanksgiving Grange dinner at the Grange hall Thursday, Nov. 22. Everyone in the community is invited. Everyone must bring their own dinner. The Grange furnishes the coffee.

Next Grange meeting will be Dec. 13 at 8 p.m. This will be a Christmas party and a gift exchange will be held. The price of gifts are to be kept at 25 cents.

Phoenix Grange

Phoenix Grange met Tuesday, Nov. 13, at 8 p.m. with master Melvin Lattie presiding.

A letter from Medford Chamber of Commerce was read expressing their thanks to master Lattie and members of Phoenix Grange for their cooperation in making the town and country breakfast so successful.

A letter was also read from the Medford Junior Chamber of Commerce announcing the Christmas parade to be held Nov. 28.

The secretary was instructed to write a letter of thanks to the 4-H boys who piled the wood for the Grange.

HEC chairman, Velma Johnson, announced the club meeting scheduled for Wednesday, Nov. 21, had been postponed until Nov. 28, the Wednesday following Thanksgiving.
