

Complete Canvass of Jackson County Vote Reveals No Upsets; Many Write-Ins Noted

Canvass of general election votes in Jackson county shows no changes in candidates majorities, though official tabulations in some cases vary from what unofficial returns.

As usual, Jackson county residents went all out for write-in votes, especially in offices where there were no contests. Majority of write-ins were for judge of the supreme court, position No. 1. William McAllister, former Medford attorney, received 10,009 write-ins for this office. His name was also written-in for several other offices. A total of 110 other names were written-in for positions No. 1.

Here are results of the official canvass: For president, Dwight D. Eisenhower, 17,201 votes, Adlai E. Stevenson, 12,788; U. S. Geologists to 'Thumb' Ride to South Pole

Madison, Wis.—(U.P.)—Two University of Wisconsin geologists loaded 800 pounds of equipment in a car Friday and started for the South Pole.

Geophysicists John Ross and Robert Iverson headed for Travis Air Force Base, Calif., where they will "thumb" a ride on an Air Force plane to Honolulu. The two then plan on taking a commercial airliner to New Zealand where they will meet the U.S. icebreaker "Glacier" near Christchurch, Dec. 1.

The two men are part of a team of scientists from 46 nations who are attacking the earth's secrets during the International Geophysical Year.

Group Criticizes United States Policy

Harriman, N. Y.—(U.P.)—state department prohibition on visits by American newsmen to Red China has drawn criticism from the American assembly, an unofficial meeting of 60 persons drawn from education, government, labor, press and other groups.

In a series of panel discussions Friday, one of the panels was unanimous in deploring the department's action, while two others voiced both criticism and defense of the ban, with a majority of the speakers reported critical. The question will be submitted to the full assembly Sunday.

Spanish Children Send Special Thanks to U.S.

Madrid—(U.P.)—The school children of Spain sent a special "thank you" to the United States Saturday for the big, friend-making free lunch program here. Under the program, free lunches are provided by the United States to 2.1 million children in 52,000 Spanish schools.

In appreciation, the children are sending albums depicting Spanish life to the governors of the 48 states, the District of Columbia and the National Catholic Welfare Conference, which administers the program here.

Beechcraft Crashes Into Residential Area

Atlanta—(U.P.)—A Navy twin-engine Beechcraft crashed into a residential area just before dawn Saturday injuring two of its six crewmen.

A spokesman of the nearby Atlanta Naval Air Station said the plane was believed to have been preparing to make a landing run on a flight from Key West, Fla. The injured airmen are hospitalized.

Police said the plane was down in a heavily populated residential area of north Atlanta but did not damage any home although it clipped several pine trees.
