

Eagle Pointers Defeat Pleasant Hill To Reach State A-2 Grid Semi-Finals

Eagle Point—Three big breaks on pass interceptions, with the help of a penalty on one of them, provided the only touchdowns here Saturday night as the Eagle Point high team fought into the semi-finals of the Oregon Class A-2 prep football championship eliminations.

The Eagles, unable to mobilize a concerted offensive scoring drive, used the breaks for two TDs in the second quarter and one in the final period and were tough in the clutch on defense in their 21 to 0 verdict over Pleasant Hill. Quarter-final triumph elevated the District 6 champions into the round-of-four against Silverton next week end.

Site of the game was being determined today by the Oregon School Activities Association. Silverton spilled Vale in the mud 6 to 0 on Friday night.

Joins Medford

Eagle Point joined Medford, A-1 winner over Gresham Friday, to place two Jackson county teams in state semi-final contests.

Pleasant Hill's Billies were strongest offensively during the first half but stout Eagle defense, the Eagle interceptions and a penalty ruined scoring chances. The interceptions by Jack Greb and Norm Hooper reversed the EP backs to the wall battle in the first half and in the second half the home club stopped almost every Billie effort with the aid of pass interceptions, penalties and a fumble. Pleasant Hill was going goalward in the final moments but time ran out with the ball on the EP six yard line. Misfired passes and the interceptions were the undoing of the Billies.

The TD romps by Greb and Hooper in the second stanza and Hooper in the second stanza came only three scrimmage plays apart. Pleasant Hill after recovery of an Eagle fumble on the PH had poked to the EP 11-yard line. There an illegal use of hands penalty put the Billies back to the 26. One play carried back to the 17.

Greb Goes 88

Then the Billies' Ken Lockman passed wide into the flat. Greb, handclapped much by the block field during the evening, however, ran powerfully on this straight ahead chance. He swiped the ball on the 12-yard line and blazed 88-yards down the sideline, with some fine blocking, to score.

The Eagles kicked off and in two plays moved Pleasant Hill only five yards. Lockman tossed a short flat pass. The Eagles' Hooper snagged on the EP 33 and rambled to the goal line. Jim Duncan swept end after both the touchdowns for extra points.

Holding the Billies to a net of only 41 yards from scrimmage during the second half, Eagle Point mounted an offense of its own in the fourth quarter which carried from its 33 to the 47. Monte Axtell was called to punt on fourth down but a roughing the kicker infraction was called and the Eagles got the ball on Billy 38. They moved to the 27 for a first down but put back to the 32 on offside and lost the ball on the 32.

On the following PH play, Hooper intercepted a pass by Ken Ward. That gave the Eagles the ball on the Billy 33 again. Eagle Point bogged down on the 26 and lost the pigskin but regained it at the spot on a Jim Bunker recovery of a Billy fumble. However the Eagles were set back to the 49 on penalties.

They got back to the 45 and Axtell punted and Pleasant Hill got the ball on its 18. One play gained to the 21 and then a Ken Ward pass was nabbed by Greb who carried back 14 yards to about the 10 yard line.

Pleasant Hill was flagged for defensive clipping and the ball was set on the one-yard line. Norm Hooper crashed over the goal from there and Greb dove around end for the extra counter.

A first quarter drive by the Billies got to the Eagle, four-yard line after Wayne Hammersley and Milt Kintzley blocked an Axtell punt for PH possession on the 22. The Eagles, however, dumped Ward for a loss back on the 13 and took over the ball.

Wildcats Score Two TDs In 4th to Defeat Raiders

McMinnville — Linfield college made use of an opponent's penalty and a short punt for two touchdowns in the fourth quarter to down a stubborn undermanned Southern Oregon college football team 27 to 13 here Saturday night.

Dick Spray scored one fourth quarter Wildcat TD on a two-yard plunge after a personal foul penalty had put the ball on the one and the Raiders had thrown Linfield back a yard. Bob Flood got the other on a 30-yard end run after Larry Schweinfurt's punt for SOC had gone only four yards to the 30.

Gary Wells added the two placements.

Linfield drew first blood in the tussle when Ron Parrish ran back a short punt by Schweinfurt 36 yards to the goal for 8 to 0. Southern Oregon fought back with a 62-yard touchdown drive. It took seven plays with the big gainer a 36-yard Lance Locke to Norm Oliva pass. Larry Maurer went the last six yards to the end zone and John Garrett booted the bonus.

Raiders Tie Game

The Cats went on top again on a drive from midfield with Parrish going the last yard. A 15-yard personal foul penalty hurt the Red Raiders in this case, too. Wells kicked the extra.

The Raiders tied up the game in the third after Garrett recovered a Linfield fumble on the Wildcat 12. Locke passed to Schweinfurt for the last 11 yards.

Southern Oregon held its own for three quarters despite the fact that three regulars, Bill Seymour, Chuck Romine and Chuck Crandall did not play and another regular, Norm Hedgepeth did not start. Seymour and Crandall were on the injured list and Romine did not make the trip for other reasons.

Locke, subbing for Seymour at quarterback completed six out of 13 pass tries for 136 yards. The Wildcats got only 24 yards on the ground but collected 205 on the ground while holding SOC to a net of 56.

The Raiders held on twice after punts were blocked deep in their territory.

Redskins Lash Giants To Continue Pro Pace

San Francisco — The Redskins' 17-6 triumph over the Green Bay Packers in the other game.

Cleveland, Pittsburgh and Philadelphia (all 3-5) share the Eastern cellar while Los Angeles, San Francisco and Green Bay (all 2-6) are last in the West.

Halfback Billy Wells and quarterback Al Dorow, two former Michigan State stars, plus a stout defense played leading roles in New York's worst defeat since it took a 62-14 walloping from Cleveland in 1953. Wells scored twice and Dorow threw touchdown passes to John Carson and Steve McInerney.

The Redskins scored only five touchdowns in their previous three triumphs but uncorked their best scoring spree of the season against a New York team that had allowed its last five opponents to average only nine points.

BOWLING SENIOR-JUNIOR LEAGUE

Last week in the Saturday Senior-Junior Bowling league, high team series and high game went to Medford Paint and Wallpaper with a 1337 and a 695.

Pauline Denyer rolled a 154 to take high game honors and Bob Corbett again took high series with 291.

Joy Bauman picked up the 6-7-10 split.

Death Takes Tex Salkeld

Portland — (U.P.) — Tex Salkeld, veteran boxing promoter here, died at his home of a heart attack Saturday. He was 61.

The promoter had been in ill health for some time but recently had apparently been improving.

Salkeld, who had been in semi-retirement for some time, died only hours after announcing his return to active promoting and the announcement of a fight card for Dec. 11.

Defense Helps

Tommy O'Connell, the third quarterback to handle Cleveland this season, teamed with rookie halfback Preston Carpenter and a good defense to lead the Browns to a 16-0 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles. Gordie Soltau's 35-yard fourth period field goal gave the San Franisco Forty-Niners a 17-6 triumph over the Green Bay Packers in the other game.

Bowls Move Fast Toward Selection of Opponents

By JOHN GRIFFIN
United Press Sports Writer

The Rose Bowl, grand-daddy of the New Year's Day football carnivals, was the first to present a completed line-up today with Iowa vs. Oregon State in a history-making rematch, but the other major bowls were moving fast toward the same goal.

The official conference votes to name the Rose teams were Saturday to mere formalities on Saturday when Iowa upset Ohio State, 6-0, to put a lock on the Big Ten berth and Oregon State wrapped up the Pacific Coast berth by squeaking to a 14-0 triumph over Idaho.

This will mark the first time in the 43-year history of the Rose extravaganza at Pasadena, Calif., that two teams meet in the classic who also clashed during the regular season. Iowa won that one, 14-13, at Iowa City but Oregon State star back Joe Francis insisted today, "we had 'em but let 'em get away."

Here's how the lineup on the other major bowls now appears:

Sugar Bowl — Tennessee certain of a berth after crushing Mississippi, 27-7, but bowl committee must wait until conference season ends before issuing formal bid. In line for the other: Georgia Tech, SMU, or Baylor.

Orange Bowl — Colorado now certain to represent Big Seven since Missouri was drubbed by Oklahoma, 67-14. Clemson still likely for other berth but prestige was weakened by 21-0 loss to Miami Friday and Duke could be voted the Atlantic Coast loop's "most representative" team.

Cotton Bowl — Texas Christian leading for host berth after 46-0 rout of Texas, but SMU and Baylor still have a chance. Possibilities for "guest" team—Tennessee, Georgia Tech, Navy.

Gator Bowl — Still trying for Tennessee or Georgia Tech as one team, with Syracuse, Mississippi, Pittsburgh, and Wyoming possibilities for the other.

Six major conference champions have been decided: Big Seven, Oklahoma; Southern, West Virginia; Missouri Valley, Houston; Skyline, Wyoming; Rocky Mountain, Montana State; Border, Texas Western.

Here's the situation in other major conferences:

Yale-Yale Harvard

Ivy-Yale (6-0) has clinched tie, can clinch outright by beating Harvard this Saturday even if Princeton (5-1) beats Dartmouth.

Southeastern—Tennessee (4-0) Georgia Tech (5-1), each have two league games left and Florida (5-1) has one. Florida-Georgia Tech clash this week eliminates one contender.

Atlantic Coast — Clemson (3-0) has two left while Duke (3-1) has only North Carolina game this Saturday.

Big Ten — Iowa (5-1) and finished with league has clinched a tie; Ohio State (4-1) meets Michigan in windup this Saturday.

Southwest — Texas A&M (5-0) but bowl-ineligible, has only Texas to play Nov. 29; Texas Christian (3-1) has two left.

Pacific Coast — Oregon State (6-1) winds up this week at Oregon while UCLA (5-1) finishes with Southern California.

Nevada is a Spanish word meaning snow-clad.

OSAA Meets To Select Game Sites

By UNITED PRESS

Officials of the Oregon School Activities association faced one of their most ticklish problems of the year today—naming sites for the state football playoff semi-final games.

Class A-1 semi-final action sends Pendleton against Marshfield in one game while Medford and Benson meet in the other.

The Class A-2 field was filled Saturday with the addition of Reedport, a 20-12 winner over Seaside, and Eagle Point's 21-0 shutout of Pleasant Hill. Semi-final action sends Reedport against Central Union while Silverton meets Eagle Point.

Merrill Meets

Stanfield and Sherman of Moro wrapped up the two remaining spots in the Class B "11" man playoffs. Stanfield squeezed by Wallowa, 13-6, while Sherman was tipping Merrill, 25-6. The next round in the B 11-man division matched Stanfield and Sherman in one game while Colton and Monroe meet in the other.

The six-man B division has already reached its final stage with all but Alsea and Culver out of the running. Alsea rolled to a 61-14 win over Camas Valley in a semi-final game Saturday while Culver racked up Mitchell, 52-6.

The U.S. auto manufacturers sold 759,422 station wagons in 1955, more than double the sales of such models in 1954.

Sugar Hart Will Fight Constance

New York — (U.P.) — Young Garnet (Sugar) Hart of Philadelphia seeks his 10th straight victory tonight as he meets his first "name" opponent, former welterweight contender Hector Constance, in a 10-rounder at St. Nicholas arena.

It will be televised by DuMont at 7:30 p.m. (EST).

Hart, 20, is also trying for his sixth straight knockout against 25-year old Constance, of Trinidad, B.W.I., an in-and-outter who has beaten Ralph "Tiger" Jones and ex-champion Kid Gavilan but lost to obscure opponents.

HARRIS PROPOSES TOURNEY

Eugene — (U.P.) — Leg Harris, athletic director of the University of Oregon, said today he will propose that the Pacific Coast Conference conduct a 72-hole medal play golf championship. Harris said his plan called for rotating the tournament among southern California, northern California, Oregon and Washington schools on a year-by-year basis. At present the PCC has Northern and Southern division championships.
