

PHOENIX

Former Pastor Visits

By LILLIAN KNIGHT
Phoenix—The Reverend and Mrs. Henry Lacy, former pastor of the local Nazarene church and now of Warrington, are visiting the Reverend and Mrs. Lumley at the parsonage.
Mrs. David Taylor of Pasadena, Calif., who is the former Donna Lacy, and her four-month-old son, Scott, are visiting at the Nazarene parsonage while her parents are here. She plans to visit other relatives and friends in Medford. While here, a family reunion of the Lacy family was held Thanksgiving day in Talent.
The Reverend and Mrs. Lumley have just returned from a ministers' convention held at Dorchester House, Ocean Lake. Dr. McGraw presided and the main speaker was Dr. Samuel Young.

Mrs. Paul Wrede and new baby daughter, Cheryl Ann, are home from the hospital.
Mrs. Ted Mitchell is now home recuperating after her third surgery. Long time friends, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Willits, of Seattle, are spending a few weeks with the Mitchells during her convalescence.
Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Peebler are grandparents of a baby daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thompson, of Coos Bay, Nov. 13. The Thompsons also have three boys. Mrs. Glen Smith, of Ruch, another daughter of the Peeblers, flew to Coos Bay to be with her sister.

Winchell TV Show Loses Sponsor

New York — (U.P.) — Walter Winchell and his TV variety show have piffed.
The Broadway columnist has announced that his sponsors will not pick up his option when his current contract runs out in six weeks.
Winchell, who will receive some $75,000 in severance pay, launched the NBC-TV show Oct. 5. It has featured such top performers as Perry Como, Sammy Davis Jr. and Martha Raye, but rating-wise has not quite lived up to expectations.
Its latest Nielsen rating of 20.1 shows it splitting audiences about evenly with ABC-TV's "Crossroad" at 21.2 and CBS-TV's "Zane Grey Theatre" at 20.1.
Winchell said he was relieved at giving up the arduous details of the TV show which pays him less than he receives for a shorter newscast.

Parolee Confesses Slaying Violinist

Chicago — (U.P.) — Police were holding a 21-year-old parolee today who admitted he killed Jay Grace, violinist with Wayne King's orchestra, Monday.
Deputy Chief of Detectives James McMahon identified the parolee as James Golden, a painter and maintenance man who lived near the hotel where Grace's nude body was found lying across a bed.
McMahon said Golden confessed he shot and beat Grace because an immoral proposal was made by the violinist.
Golden told police he met Grace in a nearby lounge the day after Grace had returned from a tour with the orchestra. He said Grace bought him a few drinks and then asked if he would carry some packages to his hotel room.

Four-Foot Snow Drifts Paralyze Pennsylvania Town

Erie, Pa. — (U.P.) — Snow with drifts four feet deep virtually paralyzed Erie today. It closed all major industry here, stranded upwards of 1,000 motorists, and blocked highways in a 150-mile stretch along Lake Erie from Painesville, Ohio, to Hamburg, N. Y.
The 24-hour snowfall began early Thursday catching hundreds away from home on Thanksgiving day trips.

Menon Instructed To Look Into Budapest

Moscow — (U.P.) — Indian Ambassador S. K. Menon has been instructed by Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru to make a first hand investigation of developments in Budapest, it was reported today.
Menon, who is acceded to Budapest as well as to Moscow, hopes to depart next week when he recovers from a mild attack of influenza.
The Soviet press has not yet reported Nehru's condemnation of Soviet intervention in Hungary.

Warner Facilities Available for TV Films

Hollywood — (U.P.) — Arrangements have been made to make the full facilities of Warner Bros. studios available to producers of filmed programs for the American Broadcasting Co. television network, it was revealed today.
Jack L. Wagner, president of Warner Bros., said arrangements have been completed to produce a weekly hour show and two half-hour shows for presentation on the ABC network. He said the hour-long show will be a new type western while the half hour programs will be a mystery and an adventure drama.

GRANDVIEW - LONE PINE Two Families Leave Area

By LILLIAN KNIGHT
Grandview-Lone Pine — Mrs. Wendell Frank and her children have gone to Los Angeles for the winter, where she has taken a position with the General Electric company there.
Mr. and Mrs. Al Huvinan and family left Saturday for Renton, Wash., where they will spend the winter with Mrs. Huvinan's parents.
Delmer McCray and children returned home the first of the week after visiting his parents near Roseville, Calif. They went by bus and Mrs. McCray and her cousin who is visiting the family from Winston, Mont., went to Roseville to bring them home.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sams and two little boys arrived Sat-

Mortgage Purchases Will Be Restricted

Washington — (U.P.) — The government's home mortgage buying agency today restricted future purchases to mortgages on houses not more than four months old.
The Federal National Mortgage Association said it will confine its purchases to mortgages that are offered within four months following the date of the Federal Housing Administration Insurance or the Veterans Administration certificate of guaranty.
Until now the agency would buy up any acceptable government-backed mortgages.
J. Stanley Baughman, president of the agency, said the action "is designed not only to make more funds available for financing new construction and help home builders and others engaged in the industry but to help prospective buyers of new homes as well.

Eden En Route To Jamaica for Rest

London — (U.P.) — Ailing Prime Minister Anthony Eden flies today for Jamaica for a long rest, leaving the fate of the divided Conservative Party and perhaps his own political future in the hands of his deputy, R. A. Butler.

Too Many Guests; Eat in Shifts

Hollywood, Fla. — (U.P.) — Mrs. William Miller, 107, had so many guests for her combined birthday and Thanksgiving dinner Thursday that she had to serve them in shifts.
The diners were some 75 of Mrs. Miller's 140 living descendants who include eight children, 31 grandchildren, 89 great grandchildren and three great great grandchildren.
Relatives showed up from California, Illinois, Michigan, New York and New Jersey. In addition, scores of other friends dropped by to pay their respects.
When a photographer appeared to take pictures of the gathering Mrs. Miller said, "I don't think he's one of my children—or is he?"

Knowledge of Desire By Turncoat Denied

Washington — (U.P.) — American Red Cross and government officials say they know nothing about a report that a former prisoner of the Chinese Reds who refused repatriation now wants to come home.
Red Cross, State Department and Army spokesmen here said Wednesday they had received no information of former U. S. Army Corp. Aaron P. Wilson's desire to return. An Army spokesman pointed out that Wilson had been dishonorably discharged some time ago and was no longer an Army responsibility.
The state of Wisconsin includes 71 counties and 34,705 square miles. The 1950 population was 3,434,373.

CHRISTMAS SPECIAL AT JOHNSTON STORES . . .

Advertisement for a 91-piece socket wrench and tool set. Features include: Professional Quality, Chrome Vanadium Alloy Steel, $39.95, 1 DOWN $1 a Week. The ad shows various tools like sockets, wrenches, and screwdrivers, along with a list of included items such as a heavy-duty steel chest, a 9-piece set of open end wrenches, and a 12-piece set of sockets. It also mentions 'Skill-Craft' and 'All-Timer' brands.

Advertisement for Needlepoint and Stamped Goods. Features include: CASH IN ON OUR BIG CLEARANCE, GIRLS' SKIRTS 1/4 Off, SNOW SUITS, GIRLS COATS, COAT & LEGGING, BOYS JACKETS, NEEDLEPOINT and STAMPED GOODS, Complete Close-out at 1/2 OFF!, Boy's SUITS 1/4 Off, and NEEDLECRAFT OPEN WEDNESDAY NIGHTS. The ad includes a small illustration of a girl in a winter outfit.

