

Meeting Series Scheduled By First Baptists

The Rev. Bob Harlow of Global Aids Inc., Portland, will be guest speaker at the 7:45 p.m. service of the First Baptist church on Sunday.

The Rev. Mr. Harlow is conducting a series of educational evangelism meetings which give help on the practical side of Christian service each Monday at 9:30 p.m. at the local church.

The following subjects will be emphasized in the four Monday night services of the series that remain: "How to Interest Your Friends and Relatives in Church," "How to Win Your Friends and Relatives to Christ and the Church," and "How to Influence Your Home and Community for Christ and the Church." Filmstrips and motion pictures are used by Mr. Harlow to illustrate his presentations.

The meetings are open to the public. The services of Global Aids have been used by churches of various denominations and are adaptable to the Christian education and service of any church.

Dedication Sunday At Eastwood Baptist

Dedication Sunday will be observed Sunday at the Eastwood Baptist church, North Keene Way drive at Ridgeway, it will mark the beginning of the Every Member Enlistment program with a dedication of members who will call during the coming week to secure commitments for the church's expanded program during the coming year.

The proposed goal for the church represents more than a 60 per cent increase over the previous year. When this goal is met, the church will receive a loan for the completion of the present building and landscaping of the grounds.

The pastor, the Rev. Richard M. Jones, will speak on Nov. 25 on the theme "Hilarious Givers." The church choir will sing.

Christmas Brass Tacks, will be at 7:30 p.m. with the theme of the evening discussion "What is Sin?" An inspiration time will close the evening.

Eastwood Baptist church is affiliated with the American Baptist convention and is located just north of the Hedrick Junior High school.

Study-Interest Groups Continue

"The Message of the Church, a Letter to the Romans" will be the subject for the fourth session of the class taught by Dr. Raymond E. Balcomb, "Paul's Letters to Local Churches." This is one of the interest groups of the School of Christian Living being held at the First Methodist church on Sunday evenings at 5:30 p.m.

Second interest group, "Family Forum" will view the film "Human Heredity." This group is led by the Rev. George A. Trough.

The third interest group, the "Church Membership Class," led by the Rev. Mrs. Anne Groby, will feature "The Local Church," with presentations by Ed Hass, Mrs. Lionel Rankin, Mrs. Jessie Mincer, Vern Wolfott and Dr. J. Scott Heatherington.

The snack supper at 6:30 p.m. will be served by the Shipmates class. Inspiration time at 7 p.m. will be built around the theme, "Our Neighbors Celebrate," which will include a movie and a display of articles used in Jewish worship.

A detailed study of the New Testament, beginning with a survey of the New Testament and then a study of the Book of Mark, will be starting at 7:30, Sunday, Nov. 25, by The Pathfinders. The group will be meeting in the library of the First Methodist church and will be led by the Rev. George A. Trough.

The sermon by Dr. Raymond E. Balcomb for Sunday, Nov. 25 at both the 9:30 and 11 a.m. services will be "The Man in the Middle." Music will include a solo by Mrs. Mary Ann McFadden, "Sheep May Safely Graze," by Bach, and anthems by the choir "God Be in My Head" and "Now Thank We All Our God."

The regular luncheon meeting of the Medford Presbyterian Men's club will be held Thursday at noon in the church. Dr. West will speak.

Union Service Draws Overflow Crowd Thursday

A crowd of more than 300 persons attended the Union Thanksgiving services Thursday morning at the First Christian church sponsored by the Medford Ministerial association.

Dr. D. Kirkland West of the First Presbyterian church warned of forgetting the true meaning of Thanksgiving by recalling the pilgrims and their first Thanksgiving day 334 years ago.

Texts for the sermon included Moses' warning to the Israelites "beware lest thou forget the Lord," and the Psalm of David, "bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits."

"Persons today," Dr. West said, "have found speed but have lost their sense of direction."

Student To Assist In Presbyterian Service Sunday

Sunday at the First Presbyterian church, Luke (Wei Ming) Chang of Shantung, China, will share in the morning worship services with Dr. D. Kirkland West, pastor of the church.

Mr. Chang has studied at Sililman university in the Philippine Islands, and is now continuing his studies at Lewis and Clark college in Portland under the sponsorship of the Presbyterian Synod of Oregon. He plans to be a Christian doctor serving the mission work of the Church abroad.

The evening youth service will be held at 7 p.m. when Mr. Chang will speak briefly to the young people before their regular Westminster Fellowship meeting. Miss Carol Dyke will lead the meeting entitled "Pick and Shovel Ambassadors."

Dr. West will preach on "Getting the Most From Life," and Miss Margaret Toews will sing the contralto solo "Sing a Joyful Song."

A group of men from the Presbyterian Men's club will attend a statewide conference of Presbyterian men at Menucha this weekend. Guest speakers will include national president Kenneth G. McGilvray, secretary of state-elect Mark Hatfield, and Rollo C. LaPorte. The Rev. John O. Reynolds will accompany the Medford men to the conference, and will lead the Communion service for the men Sunday morning.
