Air Crashes Kill 56

Czech Plane Goes Down in Zurich; Italian in Orly

Accidents Occur Within 18 Hours

Zurich, Switzerland — (U.P.)—A Czech airliner crashed here Saturday killing 2 persons in Europe's second major air disaster in less than 18 hours.

The twin-engine Russian-designed Ilyushin transport of the Czech State Airlines crashed and exploded shortly after takeoff from Klotten International airport here.

An Italian Airlines (Lai) DC-6 transport crashed and burned under similar circumstances outside Orly airport in Paris Friday night, killing 33 of the 35 persons aboard, including 14 Americans.

The Czech plane was bound for Prague, with 18 passengers and five crewmen.

Passenger List The passenger list included 10 Chinese, six Czechs and two persons of unknown nationality. Police said all were killed instantly.

The Ilyushin crashed near Wasterkingen, scooping a giant crater in the ground with the force of the crash and the explosion. Wreckage was strewn for 500 yards.

Witnesses at Wasterkingen said the plane veered off course and apparently tried to turn back towards Zurich airport.

Paris — (U.P.)—A suburban hall was turned into a morgue Saturday for the bodies of 33 persons, including 13 Americans, killed in the crash of a New York-bound Italian airliner.

The last three bodies were removed from the wreckage at noon Saturday by a crane.

Italian and French officials began an investigation of the crash of an almost brand-new American built DC-6-B on the takeoff from Orly.

The plane zipped through an apple orchard, tore the roof off one house, bounced off two other homes, slashed through a high tension wire and then blew apart. Wreckage and bodies were strewn over a quarter-square-mile area.

Officials examined traces of unburned gasoline left after the crash, explosion and fire. They declined comment on a report that the plane had been carrying diplomatic dispatches and a shipment of gold.

Dulles, Hoover Go On Fishing Trip

Key West, Fla. — (U.P.)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles went deep-sea fishing Saturday with acting secretary Herbert Hoover Jr., but indications were they might have over important foreign policy problems.

Dulles was sunbanned and looking fit after a week of recuperating in the Florida sun from his operation when he met Hoover for the fishing engagement.

Another Group of Refugees Arrives Here

Camp Kilmer, N.J. — (U.P.)—Another group of weary Hungarian refugees arrived Saturday to be re-housed in the United States by "operation mercy."

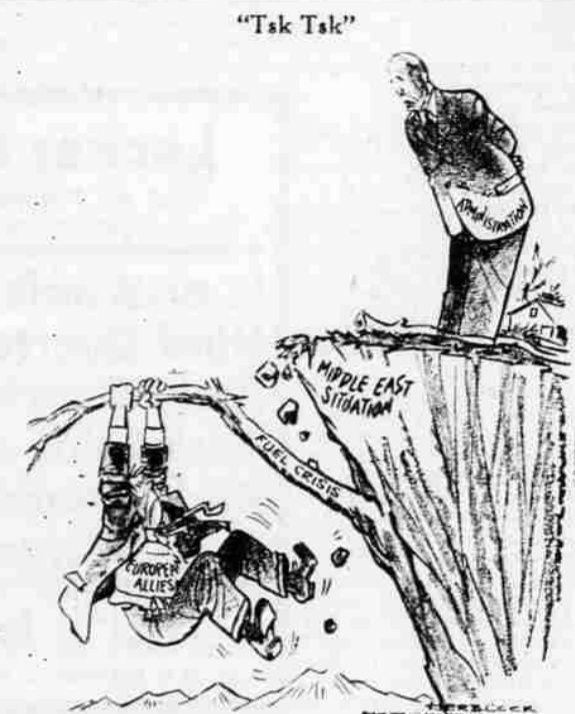

A slick airways plane carrying 65 persons landed at nearby McGuire air force base. After a brief delay the group of 53 men, seven women and five children boarded buses to transport them here.

Sports Bulletin

Salem — Silverton High defeated Eagle Point 14-0 here last night in an Oregon class R-2 semi-final football game. The Silver Foxes won the right to play Reedsport in the final next weekend. Reedsport defeated Central Union 26-13 last night.

Silverton scored in the second and fourth quarters on 44 and 90 yard drives. Ted Kroner scored both Silverton touchdowns, going six yards for the first and seven for the other.

Eagle Point pushed to the two-yard line after the opening kick-off, to the 11 in the third quarter and to the nine in the fourth, but could not muster scoring punch.

UN General Assembly Criticizes 3 Nations

United Nations, N. Y. — (U.P.)—The General Assembly criticized Britain, France and Israel last night for delay in ordering their troops out of Egypt and demanded that they withdraw "forthwith."

The 79-member assembly voted 63-5 with 10 abstentions and one absence in favor of a 21-nation Afro-Asian resolution noting "with regret" that the three nations still had troops on Egyptian soil.

However, there was not unanimous agreement on the definition of "forthwith."

The Afro-Asian nations and the Soviet bloc considered it meant immediate withdrawal regardless of whether the U.N. emergency force was ready.

The United States and some other western nations, including Britain, France and Israel, interpreted it to mean as soon as U.N. troops started taking over.

The assembly also passed, by a vote of 65-0 with 9 abstentions, a resolution by the United States and 5 other nations authorizing Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold to proceed with further negotiations for clearing the Suez Canal and establishing the U.N. emergency force.

Before the vote was taken, Israeli Ambassador Abba Eban announced that Israel had withdrawn two brigades from the Sinai desert into Egypt and even had started partial demobilization of its forces.

The storm dumped two to three feet of snow along a 150-mile stretch of Lake Erie's southern shore from eastern Ohio to western New York.

National Guard tanks, spearheading an army of guardsmen, civil defense workers, boy scouts and municipal crewmen, plowed at least one lane of traffic through all major arteries in Erie, hardest hit city.

Dairies, bakeries and fuel companies worked round-the-clock schedules to feed and warm the district.

Mayor Arthur C. Gardner indicated the state of emergency he imposed on the city of 130,000 residents might be lifted later Saturday.

More Occupation Troops Leave Egypt

London — (U.P.)—More occupation troops have been pulled out of Egypt, it was announced Saturday.

As many as 10,000 troops from the Anglo-French and Israeli forces were being withdrawn.

Israel told the United Nations in New York that two brigades, between 7,000 and 8,000 men, have been pulled back to Israeli territory from the Sinai peninsula.

Britain's first battalion of the queen's own Royal West Kent infantry regiments was leaving Port Said in the Suez Canal zone last night for Cyprus. A French unit also was withdrawing. The British battalion was estimated at between 800 and 1,000 men.

Yugoslavia Sends Protest to Reds

On Nagy's Capture

Notes Sent to Both Russia, Hungary

Belgrade — (U.P.)—Yugoslavia protested to both Russia and Hungary Saturday against the kidnaping of former Hungarian Premier Imre Nagy and demanded that he be returned to his home in Budapest.

Yugoslavia said Nagy was seized by Russian troops in Budapest as he left the sanctuary of the Yugoslav embassy despite the fact that Yugoslavia had negotiated a safe conduct for him to his residence in the city.

The government rejected the contention of Hungarian Premier Janos Kadar that Nagy and his companions who left the embassy with him had gone to neighboring Romania "of their own free will."

The government rejected the contention of Hungarian Premier Janos Kadar that Nagy and his companions who left the embassy with him had gone to neighboring Romania "of their own free will."

The government of President Tito said it protested "energetically" against the treatment afforded Nagy, after Yugoslavia and Hungary had agreed Nov. 21 to an arrangement whereby Nagy could leave his diplomatic sanctuary without fear for his personal safety.

The ousted premier had fled to the embassy when the Russian onslaught began Nov. 4 and had remained there for 20 days.

Yugoslavia said it held both the Soviet and the Kadar regime responsible for breaking the agreement.

The note to Hungary specifically denied that Nagy wanted to go to Romania.

Yugoslavia "can in no event accept the version that Imre Nagy and his companions went to Romania of their own free will, for while in the Yugoslav embassy, they rejected the proposal to go to Romania," the note said.

The note demanded that the Budapest regime "immediately implement" the agreement guaranteeing Nagy his safety at home.

Vacation Indicated For Eisenhower

Washington — (U.P.)—The White House indicated Saturday that President Eisenhower will visit Augusta, Ga., for a rest in the near future.

But Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said the President will not leave this weekend. He made the statement in commenting on a report by the Augusta Chronicle that Mr. Eisenhower planned to fly to one of his favorite vacation spots Sunday or Monday.

Hagerty said that the President "would like to get away for a little change of scene, but it will not be this weekend." He said the President will remain here through Sunday night and plans to be in his office Monday.

Hagerty said that "as far as I can go."

Austria Protests Soviet 'Invasion'

Vienna — (U.P.)—Austria "sharply protested" to Russia Saturday against the "invasion" of this country Friday by three Soviet soldiers who crossed the border while chasing Hungarian refugees.

One of the Russians was shot and killed by a border policeman. A second was captured but the third escaped.

Chancellor Julius Raab expressed hope in a stiffly-worded note to Moscow that there will be no repetition of the Soviet violation of the clearly-marked border line.

Medford City Officials Plan to Attend League of Oregon Cities Convention

Eight city officials and eight elected officials will attend the 31st annual convention of the League of Oregon Cities in Portland Nov. 25 to 28.

Attending will be Mayor and Mrs. Earl Miller, and Mayor-elect and Mrs. John Snider.

City councilmen attending are Stanley Jones, ward III, Paul Meyers, ward IV, and Don Hansen, ward II. Councilmen-elect attending are Robert Van Sickle, ward III, and Mr. and Mrs. Al Bradford, ward II.

City officials attending are Robert Duff, city manager; Vernon Thorpe, public works director; Darell Huson, city treasurer; H. E. Mackie, city building superintendent; E. R. Basha, city attorney; Edward Mckinstry, city engineer; Charles Champlin, police chief; and Gordon Barker, fire chief.

Major topics to be discussed at the convention are fringe area problems of cities, city council policy questions, current planning problems for cities and city revenue and finance problems. The three-day convention will be broken down into committee sessions for the individual officials.

Chief Champlin is president of the Oregon Association of Chiefs of Police which is meeting with the league. Speakers at the convention include Richard Ives, regional director of urban renewal, Housing and Home Finance agency; Gov. Elmo Smith, Charles H.

INJUNCTION HALTS STRIKE

Argentina Shakeup Results in Arrest Of Two Generals

Warships Meet Near Provincial Capital

Buenos Aires — (U.P.)—Warships of the Argentine navy suspended war games and steamed to rendezvous barely 30 miles from Buenos Aires, apparently as a support for the crisis-ridden government, it was reported Saturday.

Ships of the high seas and river fleets, which had been maneuvering Friday in the Plate Estuary, assembled off the coast near La Plata, a provincial capital 32 miles southeast of here.

At the same time, informed sources reported the arrest of two more generals in the politico-military shakeup which is known to have landed two generals in confinement this week and stripped four others of top jobs.

Acting Chairman Gen. Francisco Imaz, who had been acting as chairman of the Argentine Joint Chief of Staff, and Gen. Juan Nocetti Campos, who was dismissed Thursday as Chief of Cavalry, were escorted to the Argentine "white house" Friday, and it is believed that they were placed under arrest on undisclosed charges.

Reports from the Provincial Capital of Salta said Maj. Gen. Pedro Corneo Saravia has resigned as commander of the 5th infantry division, but it was not certain that his resignation was linked with the national crisis.

Cornejo was closeted with his regimental commanders for several hours last night. Reports that they were trying to persuade him not to resign could not be confirmed.

The two generals arrested earlier this week were Leon J. Bengoa and Juan J. Uranga, leaders of the Catholic Nationalist bloc that backed ousted ex-President Eduardo Lonardi during his brief regime last year.

Two Die in Texas Grain Explosion

Dallas, Tex. — (U.P.)—An explosion shattered a feed mill elevator eight stories high Saturday. The blast and fire that swept through the elevator killed two men and injured 15 others.

The blast and fire also partly wrecked four freight cars on a siding and an explosion—an explosion inward caused by the vacuum of the elevator blowing up—tore out the sheet metal walls of a steel mill 40 feet away.

Thirteen of the injured were employees of the Sunny Southland Feed Mill, which blew up. Two were switchmen for the Missouri-Kansas-Texas railroad who were caught between the feed mill and the Lofland Steel company next door.

Damage to the feed mill was estimated at $150,000. Damage to the steel mill was "extensive" but not estimated immediately, and the steel mill was put out of commission perhaps two weeks.

Washington — (U.P.)—Interior Secretary Fred A. Seaton has announced the government is making progress in using the sun's energy to convert salt water to fresh water.

Washington — (U.P.)—President Eisenhower has appointed Howard Habermeier to be the public member and chairman of the railroad retirement board.

Jaycees to Sponsor Decoration Contest

The Medford Junior Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a residential Christmas Lighting contest in Medford Dec. 19-24, according to Jay Pierce and Greg Orr, co-chairmen of the contest committee.

Winners will receive more than $300 in local prizes and awards. First place winner will be entered in General Electric's $5,000 Nationwide Christmas Lighting contest.

Entry blanks may be obtained at Weeks and Orr Furniture store, in the lobby of the California-Oregon Power company, at Montgomery Ward and company. Blanks should be filled out and mailed to the Medford Junior Chamber of Commerce, post office box 251, before Dec. 17, 1956, the co-chairmen said.

Klansmen Gather in Alabama for Rally

Montgomery, Ala. — (U.P.)—An estimated 1,000 spectators and Ku Klux Klansmen gathered near here last night to hear integration and the U. S. Supreme Court denounced against a backdrop of fiery crosses and television klieg lights.

The rally at an automobile race track some 12 miles from the city limits followed an earlier sidewalk stroll through downtown Montgomery by scores of the robed klansmen.

Washington — (U.P.)—Sen. William E. Jenner said Saturday the United States should break diplomatic relations with Russia "if she persists in treating Hungary as a conquered province."

HOLIDAY DECORATIONS—With the coming of the Christmas season, Medford city employees began the job of installing street decorations Friday in downtown Medford. According to L. V. Anderson, city street department foreman, the decorations will be up in time for the Christmas shopping season opening Wednesday, Nov. 28. Above, forming one of the two crews working on the project Friday, are Al Baird, Kenny Thomas and Harry Ellis. Thomas, a Copco employee, was hired to drive the ladder truck borrowed from Copco to speed up decoration hanging.

Shady Cove Man Hurt In Canyonville Crash

By UNITED PRESS Heavy fog and slick highways in Oregon sent the traffic death list soaring Saturday with at least five persons killed in weekend accidents and three other Oregon residents losing their lives in Washington accidents.

Four persons were killed and two others seriously injured early yesterday in two separate automobile accidents on the same icy spot on highway 99, six miles south of Canyonville.

State police identified the dead as John Leroy Ambuehl, 20, and Dennis W. Estep, 20, both of Portland; Enoch Alexander Kroon, 72, and his daughter, Anna Kroon, 43, both of Seattle.

Wreckage Found Ambuehl and Estep were killed sometime between midnight and 2 a.m. Saturday police said. The wreckage was not discovered until another crash sent a second car plunging to the bottom of the 186-foot deep canyon.

Killed in the second accident were Kroon and his daughter. Injured in the accident were Mrs. Agda Kroon, 48, of Seattle, and Earl Evers, 22, Shady Cove, Ore., son of the Rev. and Mrs. Ernest Evers.

Mrs. Robert Baxter, 23, of Crescent, Ore., was found dead early Saturday about 30 feet from her wrecked car on highway 97, two miles north of Gilchrist.

Leaves Highway Police said the vehicle apparently left the highway and crashed into a tree, throwing the victim from the auto.

Two Oregonians died in Washington State accidents. Vaughn H. Shelton, 46, of Portland, was killed in an accident near Sequim, Wash. that also took the life of James L. Beeler, 29, of Sequim.

Ronald Rex Gibbs of Joseph, Ore., was killed when his car failed to make a curve and crashed out of control on highway 99 about eight miles east of Bingen, Wash.

Convent Damaged By Saturday Fire

Pendleton — (U.P.)—An early-morning fire Saturday gutted two sections of St. Joseph's Academy and St. Francis' Convent here, routing some 20 Catholic nuns from their beds. There were no injuries.

Firemen said the fire started about 5 a.m. apparently in an overheated stove in the kitchen of the three-story frame structure. Damage was estimated at $125,000.

About 30 firemen battled the blaze in sub-freezing, windy weather and water from fire hoses froze in the streets, adding to the difficulty of fighting the fire. They were able to prevent its spread to a four-story wing of the school. Occupants of the building fled in their night clothing, leaving their personal belongings behind.

Eden Starts Vacation In Jamaica Resort

Kingston, Jamaica — (U.P.)—British Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden began a three-week vacation here Saturday to recover from "severe overstrain."

The 59-year-old Eden, looking tired and drawn, was accompanied by his wife on the overnight flight from London.

They will stay at the Goldeneye resort, where Eden will recuperate from the trying cares of office during the Suez crisis.

Vancouver Man Found Shot to Death in Room

Chicago — (U.P.)—Nyles Nicholas Galer, 34, a Vancouver, B.C. auto dealer, was found shot to death in a hotel room bed Saturday and police said he was believed to have been a suicide.

Galer had been killed by a gunshot, and a pistol lay near his body. Officers said they found a note saying that Galer was in financial difficulties.

60,000 Dockmen to Return to Work Monday Morning

Walkout Stopped for At Least 10 Days

New York — (U.P.)—A federal judge who said the walkout threatened the nation's security Saturday signed an injunction halting the nine-day-old east and Gulf Coast dock strike.

The injunction, which had been sought by the government on personal orders of President Eisenhower, was signed by U.S. District Judge Frederick Van Pelt Bryan who said the strike had blocked shipments of vital strategic materials.

A U.S. marshal served the injunction papers at the office of ILA Attorney Louis Waldman shortly before six p.m. The union immediately sent telegrams to its locals ordering a resumption of work in all ports.

The justice department, the commerce department, and the atomic energy commission all had sought the back-to-work order which halts the strike for at least 10 days. Judge Bryan said an additional hearing would be held Nov. 30 to determine whether the injunction should be extended for the full 80-days provided under the Taft-Hartley law.

The injunction ordered the 60,000 striking members of the Independent Longshoremen's association to return to their jobs on piers from Portland, Me., to Brownsville, Tex.

The union members were expected to be back on the job in full force at 8 a.m. Monday.

Mr. Eisenhower invoked the Taft-Hartley labor laws emergency provisions for the third time—the second time against the ILA—upon receiving a 97-page report on the labor dispute from a special fact-finding panel.

Works Into Night The panel worked into the night to complete its study and sped it to the president early Saturday.

The court action was taken after President Eisenhower wrote a four-paragraph letter to Attorney General Herbert Brownell Jr.

At Mr. Eisenhower's bidding, Brownell sent assistant attorney General George Doubt to New York from Washington by airplane to apply in federal court for the strike-halting injunction.

The fact-finders report said the main issue in the strike was a demand by the Independent International Longshoremen's association for a coast-wide contract replacing local contracts for each port.

United States Ready To Act in Oil Famine

Washington — (U.P.)—The United States is ready to act swiftly to end Western Europe's oil famine and may take the first step within a week, it was learned Saturday.

The main obstacle to fixing a definite date is still British and French reluctance to withdraw their armies from the Suez Canal area.
