

BUTTE FALLS Program Marks 50th Year

By MARY JO HARRIS
Butte Falls—Butte Falls PTA observed the 50th anniversary of the Butte Falls school with a program held last week.

The program committee, consisted of Mrs. Bob Edmondson, Mrs. Ray Chambers, Mrs. Ted Fredenburg and Mrs. N. B. Stoddard.

One skit told the story of early-day school board meetings. Actual minutes from these meetings were read. Acting school board members were Elga Abbott, F. E. Poole, Orin Abbott and Les Casey.

A short school day presentation was enacted by Mrs. Wm. L.

Harris as teacher. Playing the part of students were Mary Lee Davies and Janis Chambers, first graders, June Reddell and Bobby Hargraves, second graders, John Chambers and Sally Davies, fourth graders.

John Henshaw presented a variation of the first radio broadcasts heard in Butte Falls at the school.

John Fuiten gave a short history of the Butte Falls school and old pictures of the school and early day pupils were on display throughout the evening.

Visitors in the Fred Kincaid home Thanksgiving were Mr.

and Mrs. L. L. Tungate. Mrs. Tungate is a daughter of the Kincaids.
