An event of Saturday, November 17, was the wedding of Miss Janet Marie Dempster to James Henry Lynch III at Sacred Heart Catholic church here. The double-ring nuptial mass was celebrated at 10 o'clock in the morning by the Rev. John A. Ilg.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus J. Dempster, 1025 South Holly street, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. James H. Lynch, Portland.

About 150 guests were present for the ceremony and 100 attended the reception which followed at Mon Desir inn.

Bruno Pellegrini was at the church organ. Yellow, gold and white chrysanthemums decorated the church.

The bride's gown was a Cahill original fashioned of white Alencon lace and hand-pleated tulle. She carried white roses and stephanotis and her finger-tip length veil was held by a Juliet cap.

Miss Sue Dempster was her sister's honor attendant. She wore a ballerina frock of bronze crystal and carried bronze spider chrysanthemums. Also attending the bride were Miss Pat Mitchell, Albany, Ore.; Mrs. Thomas Rodgers, Ashland, and Miss Dolores Lynch, Portland, sister of the bridegroom. Their frocks were of apricot colored crystal and their bouquets were gold colored chrysanthemums. Their costumes were completed with matching headbands and pearl necklaces.

Daphne and Walter Holman, niece and nephew of the bridegroom, were flower girl and ring-bearer.

Mr. Dempster escorted his daughter to the altar and seating the guests were Philip Archer, Portland, Robert Southland, Central Point and Rex Burris, Portland.

The bride's mother wore a frock of champagne color with gold brocade trim, a brown feathered hat and brown accessories. Her flowers were yellow roses. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a navy blue dress with matching hat and white accents. Her corsage was of white roses.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. E. Fraley, wore navy blue with pink carnation corsage.

Mon Desir inn was arranged with fall flowers for the reception. Mrs. Walter Holman, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Emily Crowe, Salem, cut and served the wedding cake and presiding at the punch bowl were Miss Marne Christenson, Salem, and Miss Bea Solosobal, Boise, Ida.

Marylhurst classmates of the bride, pouring coffee were Miss Dolores Zeleznik.

Following the wedding, held in the Park chapel in Reno, the couple took a honeymoon trip into California.

The bride, a graduate of Phoenix High school, is employed in the business office of The Medford Mail Tribune. Mr. Robbins, recently discharged from the United States Army at Ft. Lewis is now employed at the power plant of California-Oregon Power company at Toketee Falls. He attended Medford High school before entering the service.

and Miss Nancy Conroy, Medford, college classmates of the bride. Miss Marcia Lynch, sister of the bridegroom, took charge of the guest book.

Mr. Lynch and his bride spent their honeymoon in San Francisco and the Bay area and will live in Portland. For traveling the bride wore a shrimp colored wool suit with black accessories and a corsage of white roses from her wedding bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's school, Medford, and attended Marylhurst college, Oswego. The bridegroom, a manager in the circulation department of the Portland Oregonian, attended Columbia Preparatory High school, Portland, the University of Oregon and Portland State college.

In addition to members of the wedding party, out-of-town guests included the bridegroom's family.

Pre-wedding parties included a rehearsal dinner given at the Medford hotel Friday evening for 25 guests.
