

Mrs. Rodney Collins Earnest is the former Natalie Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carol J. Parker, 610 South Central avenue. The Earnest-Parker wedding took place in Ellsworth, Maine, in October and the newlyweds are taking an ocean honeymoon cruise on the bridegroom's newly completed cutter. They will live in Seattle.

Newlyweds On Cruise

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Collins Earnest (Natalie Parker) who were married October 21 in Ellsworth, Maine, are spending their honeymoon on an ocean cruise. Mr. Earnest built a 30-foot cutter, designed by Ralph Wiley and named "The Alki," which was launched November 16. The newlyweds are cruising south to Florida, will travel through the Caribbean sea and the Panama canal and north to Seattle, where they expect to make their home.

Mrs. Earnest is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carol J. Parker, 610 South Central avenue, and Mr. Earnest is a son of Mrs. Floyd W. Miles, Seattle.

The wedding took place in the Congregational church at Ellsworth, with the Rev. S. George Bovill officiating. The reception which followed was at Hancock House. The bride wore a grey wool ensemble, white feather hat and black accessories, and carried white roses.

The bride attended Medford school, Reed college and Johns Hopkins School of Nursing. She has been a stewardess for Pan-American World Airways. The bridegroom attended Seattle schools and the United States Marine academy at Kings Point, Long Island. He served in the United States Merchant Marine during World War II and is a building contractor.

Mr. Earnest and his bride lived in Winterport, Maine, while the cutter was being completed.

Saltmarsh-Robison Rites Held at Methodist Church

Miss Beverly Lou Robison, 612 West Fourth street, Medford, became the bride of Melvin Lee Saltmarsh, Medford, in a ceremony held Saturday, November 10, at the First Methodist church in Medford. The Rev. George A. Trobough officiated at the double ring service, held at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Miss Robison is the daughter of Mrs. Grace Robison, Medford, and A. C. Robison, Newton, Iowa. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Saltmarsh, 2710 Stewart avenue, Medford. Baskets of white chrysanthemums decorated the church.

Miss Jerry Sherman played the traditional wedding music and Mrs. Ernest Lytle sang. Given in marriage by her uncle, Murray Bell, the bride wore a gown of imported Chantilly lace over blue net and satin. It was fashioned with a full skirt and fitted bodice trimmed in pearls. Her veil was fingertip length and she carried stephanotis and a white orchid on a white prayer book.

Mrs. LeRoy Hatcher was matron of honor for her cousin. She wore a dress of lavender taffeta with net overskirt and matching hat. Other attendants included Mrs. LeRoy Luchterhand, Mrs. James Fisher, and Miss Lenora Kyker. Their dresses were styled as the matron of honor's, two in lime green and one in pink. They carried bouquets of carnations to match their dresses encircled with white chrysanthemums.

Candlelighters were Miss Ellen Kay Bell and Miss Mary Marg Barr. They wore dresses in blue and pink with flower headbands and shoes to match. Diane Hatcher, flower girl, wore a yellow colored dress. Danny Ratty, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring-bearer.

Earl Saltmarsh served as best man for his brother. Seating the guests were Douglas Clark, Dale McCay, and LeRoy Luchterhand. Following the ceremony a reception was held, attended by 150 guests.
