

Marquette Students Object To No-Kissing Rule Imposed on Coeds

Milwaukee, Wis.—UPI—Male students at Marquette university rose up in indignation today over a "no goodnight kiss" rule imposed on coeds by school officials.

"What do they want us to do, become a bunch of angels?" one boy demanded after reading about the rule in the student newspaper, the Marquette Tribune.

The paper, in its lead story Wednesday, said Mrs. Mabel McElligott, university dean of women, had ordered a crackdown on girls "who kiss goodnight in front of dormitories" for women. The rule prohibits a "public display of affection" outside any of the school's 10 women's residence halls.

Mrs. McElligott told the student newspaper the crackdown was a periodic reminder of the rule that coeds caught kissing would be "campused"—restricted to the campus—for one week end.

In general, male students were disgusted. One asked "What's the difference—in front of the dorm or down on the corner?"

But one sided with school officials. "The girls have been getting out of hand lately," he said.

Enraged Husband Kills Wife; Friend Commits Suicide

Little Valley, N. Y.—UPI—A young milkman, surprised in the bedroom of a housewife by her enraged husband who shot her to death, took his own life Wednesday night in front of the funeral parlor where her body had been taken.

The body of the milkman, Albert Marsh, 23, was found slumped in the front seat of his car. Beside him were a .22 caliber rifle and a funeral bouquet of 25 red roses with the note: "Returned Unexpectedly"

"These roses are for Sue. Life without Sue is nothing."

The housewife, Mrs. Sue Ann Riggs, 24, mother of three children, was shot three times early Wednesday with a .38 caliber automatic pistol by her husband, Ralph, 26, who returned home unexpectedly from a business trip and found Marsh hiding in the closet of his wife's bedroom.

"Get out," he shouted at his wife, who cringed in bed in her night dress. Riggs then rushed into another room, grabbed the pistol and shot her to death. Marsh fled after a brief struggle with Riggs.

Telephone Sheriff The husband then telephoned the sheriff's office. "I must be crazy," he said. "I just killed my wife."

Police apprehended Marsh for questioning but released him. Riggs was charged with first degree murder and was held for a December grand jury after she waived examination at a preliminary hearing.

The three Riggs children, Ralph, 3, Christie, 2, and Mary, 4 months, were asleep in another bedroom during the shooting.

Telephone Workers Continue on Job as Negotiations Go On

New York—UPI—Telephone workers in 42 states and the District of Columbia stayed on their jobs today after their contract with the American Telephone and Telegraph Company expired at midnight.

Further bargaining talks were scheduled and spokesmen for both sides were "very optimistic" that a contract agreement would be reached without a strike. The 25,000 members of the Communications Workers of America earlier authorized union officials to call a walkout at any time.

To Meet Again A 16-hour bargaining session ended shortly before 2 a.m. (EST) today. Both sides agreed to meet again this afternoon.

The CWA AFL-CIO Tuesday night voted "overwhelmingly" authorization to its officials to call out 10,500 long distance operators, 8,200 maintenance men and 6,300 other workers if no agreement could be reached.

No strike orders went out with the passage of the deadline. Union officials indicated they would continue negotiations as long as progress was being made in the bargaining talks.

Justices Exchange Angry Words Over Chessman's Appeal

San Francisco—UPI—Two justices of the U. S. Court of Appeals exchanged words Wednesday in angry disagreement over Cyril Chessman's attempt to escape the death penalty.

Chessman, 35, was convicted in Los Angeles nine years ago of kidnap, rape, sex perversion and other crimes. He subsequently won acclaim for his prison-written books.

National Scandal In a memorandum supporting the court's 2-1 denial of Chessman's latest appeal, Justice D. L. Lemmon asserted the delay in the Chessman case has become a "national scandal."

Chessman has been accorded all due process except the long overdue process of his execution, Lemmon said.

Lemmon also took occasion to rebuke Chief Judge William Denman, who was the dissenting judge in the court's denial of the Chessman appeal.

However, the 84-year-old justice defended his position, declaring:

"No better illustration could be had of the aphorism that 'hard cases make hard laws' than Judge Lemmon's opinion in denying Chessman's petition for rehearing in this case."

Denial Charged Denman held that Chessman was denied due process of law in that he was not allowed to be present when the transcript of his original trial was completed.

The court reporter had died and Chessman claims the reporter who made up the transcript was a drunkard. Hence, he contends, the trial transcript is faulty.

Actress Eva Gabor, Husband Separate

Hollywood—UPI—Actress Eva Gabor confirmed reports Wednesday night that she and her husband, Dr. John Williams, had decided on a trial separation after seven months of marriage.

Miss Gabor blamed career trouble for putting the marriage on the rocks. She said her work requires frequent trips between here and New York while her husband's practices keeps him in Hollywood.

The couple reportedly split up early Wednesday. Miss Gabor wouldn't say if she planned to file for a divorce.

Oregon Joins Drive To Aid Hungarians

Portland—UPI—A special Red Cross drive to aid refugees from strife-torn Hungary was started in Oregon today. The Oregon drive is part of a national effort aimed at raising $5 million.

Frederick Greenwood, chairman of the Multnomah county Red Cross chapter said:

American Red Cross Chairman E. Roland Harriman said that 90,000 refugees have crossed the Austrian border. The drive was announced after the Austrian government asked the Red Cross to assume responsibility for feeding and giving needed care to the refugees in that country.

Susan Hayward Undergoes Surgery

Her physician did not reveal the nature of the operation but said it was to correct a minor ailment.
