

Workshop Held By Eagle Point Camp Fire Group

Eagle Point — A Christmas workshop was held in conjunction with the November meeting of Eagle Point Camp Fire Leaders-Sponsors' association. Mrs. T. H. Gerety, executive director for the area, conducted the instruction. A wide variety of ideas for simple gifts and Christmas decorations was offered. Mrs. Gerety also spoke about rhythm bands, the simple equipment needed for one, and how it could be utilized in a Bluebird group.

Officers presiding were Mrs. LeRoy Bedingfield, chairman, and Mrs. Arnold Arens, secretary. Others attending were Bluebird leaders, Mrs. Walter Lee, Mrs. Elbert Hefley, Mrs. Gordon Stanly and her assistant, Mrs. Glenn Burrill; Campfire guardian, Mrs. Dale Ackerman; sponsor, Mrs. Frank Putman; district program chairman, Mrs. Ed Gray and public relations chairman, Mrs. Merle McGraw.

Mrs. Gray stated she would continue in her capacity of committee of awards for the new Eagle Point district. Mrs. Frank Putman stated that Eagle Point Garden club will sponsor a Bluebird group as one of its projects again this year. The club sponsors Mrs. Arens group.

Bluebird leaders met recently with mothers of the girls. It was decided that the girls would pay monthly group dues of 25c which is used to purchase supplies used in activities. The purpose of the yearly national dues paid by each girl was explained. Each leader and sponsor also pays the same national dues.

This goes into the national organization, which in turn makes available proper training and instruction for leaders. A monthly Campfire magazine is also sent to each leader of a group. This all helps to insure good leadership and program planning for the girls, it was explained.

A special instruction class was held at the Camp Fire office last week for two Campfire guardians, Mrs. LeRoy Bedingfield and Mrs. Dale Ackerman.

Mrs. Ray Chamberlain, music director for Bluebirds, held the first regular monthly singing session. All Bluebirds from the four local groups attended with their leaders. "I'm a Bluebird" was sung, as well as a number of familiar Christmas songs. The next singing session will be December 18.

Eagle Point Elementary Parent-Teacher has voted to sponsor Mrs. Elbert Hefley's Bluebird group. Mrs. LeRoy Bedingfield was appointed sponsor. Any parent wishing to purchase Bluebird or Campfire supplies as gifts for the girls, is asked to contact the leader and choose from her catalog. This should be done immediately to allow shipping time after ordering.

Mrs. Louisa Greb, Eagle Point, was honored at a dinner given by her sons and daughters in observance of her 80th birthday anniversary. Thirty-nine children, grandchildren and great grandchildren attended.

Family Honors Mrs. Louisa Greb On 80th Birthday

Eagle Point — Mrs. Louisa Greb of Eagle Point was honored recently at a dinner which observed her 80th birthday anniversary. The party, given by her children, was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Greb, Crater Lake highway.

Thirty-nine children, grandchildren and great grandchildren were present. Mrs. Greb was presented an orchid, and many gifts. Autumn flowers decorated the home.

Sons and daughters of the honored woman attending the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Greb, Mr. and Mrs. Foster Greb, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Greb and Miss Gertrude Greb of Central Point, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Greb of Medford, and Mrs. Frances Miller of Klamath Falls. Another daughter, Mrs. Myrtle Bell, East Highlands, Calif., was unable to attend.

Grandchildren attending were Patty Greb, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Dodehoff, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Breeding, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Holliday, Judy and Wayne Greb, Ronnie Greb, John Greb, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Nelson, Jack, Bob, Tommy and Ruth Greb. Seven additional grandchildren were unable to attend, this number including Alvin Smith and Foster Greb Jr., who are in the armed service. Nine of Mrs. Greb's 20 great grandchildren were also present.

Mrs. Greb, who was Louisa Paetow before her marriage, was born at Lake Superior, Mich., October 23, 1876. When she was a year old her German parents and two older children migrated to North Dakota and settled at Valley City. When 16 years of age, she was confirmed in the German Lutheran church, and still has her German catholicism and Bible.

After Louisa's marriage to John C. Greb, son of another pioneer German family, they left Valley City in 1905 and moved to Berthold, N.D., purchasing railroad land which had just been released for experimentation in flax growing. Due to Mr. Greb's health, the couple left North Dakota for Chica, Calif., and from there moved to Eagle Point in 1908. The couple had nine children, and six are living. Mr. Greb died in 1931.

Mrs. Greb is active in church work, and served as president of the missionary society to which she belonged. She taught Sunday school for many years, and served as president of a parent-teacher association, as well as chairman of various committees.

Oregon Indians Topic of Speaker At DAR Session

Mrs. J. L. Houck spoke on southern Oregon Indians at the last meeting of Crater Lake chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held at the home of Mrs. Glen O. Taylor.

Mrs. Houck stated that the Indians of Oregon, as well as many of the major tribes of the Pacific coast, were associated with lesser groups whose tribal customs and languages were similar. The Indians usually lived in villages during the winter, but roamed over wider territory during the summer. The men hunted, and women gathered wild berries, fruits and roots to be cured for use in the winter; they also cured meat and fish which the men provided.

Tribal history was handed down in legends, and many times it was more legendary than fact, she stated.

Their musical instruments were very primitive and their singing was in monotone.

Music in keeping with the program was given by a trio, Edward C. Root, violinist, Delmar Myers, flutist and A. C. Manter, pianist.

Assisting Mrs. Taylor were Mrs. V. J. Bolton, Mrs. M. M. Morris and Miss Anna Detweiler.

Beverly Burgoyne On Oratory Squad

Corvallis — Miss Beverly Burgoyne of Central Point has been selected to be a member of the Oregon State college oratory squad, organized and coached by the speech department.

The squad, which has 14 members this year, will enter eight speech contests and tournaments this winter. Dr. Earl W. Wells, head of the speech department at the college, is director of oratory.

Squad members were named earlier this month in speech department tryouts.

Last year, the OSC oratory squad had one of the top tournament records in the Northwest. It won four firsts and four second places in tournament competition.

Miss Burgoyne, a freshman enrolled in lower division of liberal arts, is the daughter of

SOC Concert Set Sunday

Ashland — Two well known Oregon musicians, Aurora Underwood, pianist, and Wayne Angel, violinist, will be at Southern Oregon college for a concert Sunday afternoon, December 2, at 3:30 p.m. in Churchill hall auditorium. The program is open to the public as well as to students of the college.

Aurora Underwood has long been known to Pacific coast audiences as an outstanding piano recitalist and ensemble performer. For several years she was professor of piano at the University of Oregon and at Portland university. Her training has included study in New York and in Europe under internationally famous teachers.

Wayne Angel, nineteen year old violin virtuoso and a native of Klamath Falls, is astonishing audience by the maturity and depth of his musical interpretation as well as by the brilliance of his technique. In 1955 he was winner in violin in the National Contest, which is held biennially by the National Federation of Music Clubs.

Both artists have recently performed in several western states where they received high praise from the music critics. The program numbers to be presented in Ashland by these artists will be announced later.

Admission to the program is free, although an opportunity will be available to contribute to the college fund for an organ and a Steinway piano. The fund raising is being sponsored by the local chapter of Delta Phi Alpha, honorary music fraternity, and by Southern Oregon College chapter of the Music Educators National conference.

Cancel Dance

Hilltoppers Square Dance club of Old Military road announces cancellation of the dance scheduled for Saturday, December 1. Several members will attend the Buckaroo Jamboree at Roseburg.

Eagle Point Club Plans Two Events

Eagle Point — Eagle Point Lions' auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Vernon Bonebrake Monday evening. Nine members were present.

Mrs. Lee Hayes conducted a business meeting, and plans were completed for a sale of rummage and baked food to be held at the Fehl building in Medford Saturday.

Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Stewart Hopper December 10 at 7:30 p.m., and will be a Christmas party. A pot-luck dinner will be served, and gifts will be exchanged.

Central Point PTA Plans Chili Feed

Central Point — Further preparations are being made by Central Point PTA-Teacher association for a benefit supper to be held December 6 in the cafeteria of the elementary school. Chili will be served from 5:30 to 7:30 o'clock.

This will be the major money-raising event of the year for the unit.

A concert by the Junior High school band, directed by Harry Meyers, will follow the supper. It will begin at 8 p.m.
