The Medical Roundup

by Walter Alvarez, Emeritus Consultant in Medicine, Mayo Clinic, Emeritus Professor of Medicine, Mayo Foundation

Stopping Drugs When One's Skin Breaks Out. Recently, I had a column on curing one's skin disease or severe itching or rash by stopping the use of all drugs being taken.

Polycythemia is a rare disease in which the patient has too many red blood cells. One occasionally sees persons with a slight polycythemia, associated with asthma or emphysema--both diseases in which the aeration of the blood in the lungs is defective.

Crater to Present Mystery Drama

Central Point--'The Girl in the Rain,' a mystery drama, will be presented at Crater High school Thursday and Friday nights, Nov. 29 and 30.

Members of the cast include Sharlette Hale, winner of last year's 'Jerome' for the best female performance, who has been cast as Eve, the girl in the rain.

Other roles include Julie, the maid, played by Rose Drake; Thomas, the butler, Neil Gregory; and Karen Bennett, a reporter, by Grace Gail.
