BY HELGA MITCHELL
Applegate-Jacksonville — A joint meeting of the Rush PTA and the newly organized Rush 4-H club, will be held at the Rush school, Saturday, Dec. 1, according to Larry Tweedy, chairman of the Rush 4-H club. A potluck dinner, sponsored by the Rush PTA will be served at 7 p.m. Following dinner, the 4-H group will hold its first meeting at 8 p.m. Special speakers will be present and awards will be presented to the 4-H members.

All residents of the Applegate valley with children between the ages of nine and 18 years are invited to attend this meeting and are asked to bring their own table service. Following the 4-H program, the Rush PTA will hold a community dance at the school.

Adult Bible studies will be held every first and third Thursday of every month at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Hall, of Little Applegate. The Rev. Allen Hill is teaching in the book of Genesis. The next meeting will be held Thursday, Dec. 6.

The last meeting of the Applegate Home Extension Unit met last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Lester Rich, on Thompson creek. In spite of the frost, Mrs. Rich, who is known to have a "green thumb," had pansies blooming profusely in front of her home.

Mrs. Verna Sutherland spent Thanksgiving with her daughter and family in Tucson, Ariz.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Pearson and daughter, Anne, visited Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Gillespie in Williams last Sunday.

Mrs. Earl Hvall and children, Randy and Norell, spent their Thanksgiving weekend at Tacoma, Wash., with her mother Mrs. Clara Cuss.

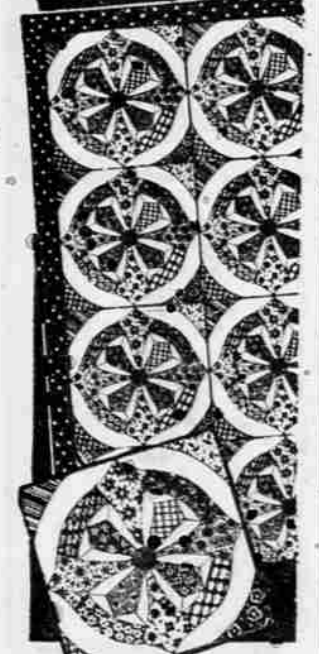

Four-year-old Larry Stephens, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Stephens, had a birthday celebration recently at his home. Attending this event were Mrs. Ted Rundle and her four boys, and Mrs. Al Blumreich.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rhodes and children, former Upper Applegate residents, are living in Texas now, where Rhodes is with the merchant marines. Mrs. Rhodes has a secretarial job at a medical school and their children, Stephen and Caroline, have joined the scouts.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Webb, and son David, spent Thanksgiving weekend with his brother, Jim Webb, in Salem, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Nelson, who moved to the Applegate last August from Medford, have become very fond of the Applegate valley climate. These sentiments were more pronounced recently when reports of fog in Medford were called to their attention. Mrs. Nelson, couldn't resist phoning some of her friends in Medford, who were struggling through the "low hanging clouds," and informing them of the Applegate sunshine.

Campfire Girls Singing Bluebirds

Singing Bluebirds and their leader, Mrs. Elbert Hefley, meet every Thursday after school in Mrs. Johnson's first grade room of the Eagle Point Elementary school. Members are Carolyn Ulrich, Rhonda Kelley, Patty Bonebrake, Given Stockton, Christine Stockton, Sandra Terrell, Donna Young, Laqueta Stephenson and Cheryl Hefley.

One meeting was spent making Halloween placecards which were taken home. Given Stockton served refreshments. Girls learned to make Kleenex dolls wearing pink dresses and blue scarves, at another meeting. Helping the leader were Mrs. A. C. Ulrich and Mrs. Dean Stockton. Patty Bonebrake was hostess.

As an interest project this year, the girls chose to learn all they could about Oregon wildflowers. The last November meeting was spent in discussing safety rules and playing games about safety. Just how wise little Bluebirds conduct themselves on field trips was stressed, as well as everyday safety measures. Carolyn Ulrich will be hostess.

Gay Bluebirds
Mrs. Arnold Arens, leader, has reorganized this group recently, and a few new members have joined. Meetings are held weekly at the home of their leader on Wednesdays. Members are Nancy Arens, Tanya Bedingfield, Dalena Sinclair, Pamela Devey, Sandra Devey, Alea Miller, Raygina Shermehorn and Regina Krambler.

Learning about the weather was chosen as an interest project for the year. Discussions have been held about the effect the weather has on flowers, school and Bluebird meetings among other things.

A doll house is being made by the group. Much thought has been put into proper selection of colors and textures for linoleum, wallpaper, and other interior decorating as well as room and furniture arrangement.

Members have decided to keep memory books of group projects and these have been started.

Mrs. Shermehorn is transportation mother, and Mrs. Miller has been helping with individual group music.

Recent hostesses have been Alea Miller, Pamela Devey, Tanya Bedingfield, Dalena Sinclair and Nancy Arens.

Playful Bluebirds
Mrs. Walter Lee of White City holds weekly meetings of this group at her home on Mondays after school. Members are Terry Lee, Elizabeth Jeffrey, Sandra Coon, Elaine Meyer, Darla Puley, Melissa Daniels, Kathy Sindler and Robin Lee.

As an interest project, the girls chose to learn about bees this year. Mrs. Glenn Burrill helped their leader one day by showing some pictures about bees.

Halloween placecards were made at another meeting and taken home. Another Indian Summer day was spent out-of-doors, and a new pastime called "Leaf Scuffing" was played.

Christmas decorations for their homes have been started. Terry Lee was hostess last meeting and other hostesses have been Elizabeth Jaffrey, Elaine Meyer and Carol Burrill.

Carol will be in Mrs. Stanley's group now, because her mother is Mrs. Stanley's assistant leader.

Mothers helping with transportation have been Mrs. Jaffrey, Mrs. Coon, and Mrs. Herbert Daniels.

New Group
A new Bluebird leader is now a member of the Eagle Point district.

Mrs. Gordon Stanley will hold weekly Bluebird meetings in her home on Brophy road each Thursday after school. Her assistant, Mrs. Glenn Burrill, will be in charge of transportation. The first regular meeting was held November 29.

MEET THE MAYOR
Royal Oak, Mich. — (U.P.) — "I don't know your name; I'll call you Mr. Chairman." Peter Kovlak told the man presiding at the city commission meeting, as he rose to protest a zoning action. Mr. Chairman replied: "Just in case you have occasion to come to another commission meeting, my name is Kelley and I have been mayor of this town for the past three years."

Rural Reflections: Mrs. Marcel LePinec was recently crossing the swinging foot bridge on her way to the home of Mrs. Curtis Gerhardt. Mrs. LePinec had crossed the bridge halfway when she was startled by what she thought she had been a fish splash in the river. When it flew away she realized she had seen a killdeer emerge from the water.

Attending a Thanksgiving dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Stephens was Mr. and Mrs. Sorne Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. Al Blumreich.

Armin Richter, of the Circle G Ranch, is expected home from his trip to La Jolla, Calif. on Saturday.

The next meeting of the Little Applegate Knitting club will be held at the home of Mrs. Harry Davis Tuesday, Dec. 5. There will be a gift exchange which is not to exceed 50 cents.

Recent house guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Gueches, of Applegate, were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Six, of Nampa, Idaho. The families hadn't seen each other in four years.

E. Portland Shuttle Buses To Discontinue

Portland — (U.P.) — Persons who have complained about service on Portland's interurban trolleys to Oregon City and Bellrose and the shuttle buses from East Portland to downtown Portland had a new cause for concern today.

Testimony at a Public Utilities Commission hearing here yesterday was to the effect that after Jan. 2 there will be no more shuttle buses. In addition, transfers from the interurban trolleys would no longer be accepted by Rose City transit buses. However, there was an indication that city bus lines might be extended to some areas now served by the interurban trolleys.

The hearing was recessed until 10 a.m. Dec. 17.
