Ceremony At Church Weds Pair

Miss Patricia Diann Reich became the bride of Johnny Charles Rutherford in a ceremony held Sunday, November 4, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon at Eastwood Baptist church. The Rev. Richard M. Jones officiated at the double ring ceremony, attended by 100 friends and relatives.

Miss Reich is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow L. Reich, 1173 Casino road, Medford. Mr. Rutherford is the son of Mrs. Marie Van Husen, Medford.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white ballerina-length dress of lace over satin. She carried a bouquet of white rose buds.

Miss Jane Killingsworth, cousin of the bride, was honor attendant. Miss Barbara Reich, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. They wore dresses of navy blue velvet with white gloves and navy blue shoes. They carried yellow chrysanthemums and wore matching blossoms in their hair.

Miss Madeline Brown and Miss Shirley Ann Rutherford, sister of the bridegroom, were candle-lighters. They wore dresses styled and of the same color as the bridesmaids and carried white candles with yellow ribbon streamers.

David Shafer served as best man and Ronald Reich, brother of the bride, and Jack Reich, uncle of the bride, seated the guests.

The church was decorated with white flowers. Following the ceremony a reception was held. Mrs. Jack Reich, aunt of the bride, cut and served the cake. Miss Sandra Reich, sister of the bride, was in charge of the guest book, and Miss Margaret Hamilton was at the gift table.

For her daughters' wedding Mrs. Reich wore a light blue suit with navy blue accessories. Mrs. Van Husen chose a blue dress with navy blue accessories. They wore corsages of yellow and white carnations.

Out of town guests who attended the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Harold Austin and family, Southern, Ore., aunt and uncle of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Thompson, Klamath Falls; Johnny Simpson, Athens, Tenn.; and Mr. and Mrs. John Hudson, Buffalo, Mo., grandparents of the bridegroom.

Culy-Moeller Wedding Rites And Reception Held in Hall

Large baskets of lavender and white chrysanthemums, ferns, and lighted tapers decorated Rocky Ann grange hall Sunday, November 18, for the two o'clock afternoon wedding of Miss Vanetta Heloise Moeller to Charles William Culy. The Rev. D. E. Millard officiated at the ceremony which was attended by 100 friends and relatives of the couple.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Moeller, Route 3, Box 82, Medford. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis R. Culy, 12 South B street, Eagle Point. Mrs. Mildred Hart played the wedding music and Robert Nolte was soloist.

For her wedding the bride wore a floor length gown of white lace and net and a head-dress of pearls and lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of white spider chrysanthemums on a white Bible. She was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Coralee Dalton was maid of honor. She wore a floor length gown of lime net over taffeta and carried a bouquet of lavender chrysanthemums.

Other attendants were Mrs. Mary Lou Clark, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Darlene Miller, cousin of the bride. They wore dresses of lavender net over taffeta and carried cascade bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums. Candlelighters were Miss Donna Lue Pfister and Miss Katherine Ritchey. Debbie Kitcher was flower girl and Andrew Kitcher was ring bearer.

Dudley Polk Smith Jr., brother-in-law of the bridegroom, served as best man. Seating the guests were Wilson Moeller, brother of the bride, and Richard White.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the dining hall of the grange. The tiered cake was first cut by the newlywed couple and Mrs. Dudley P. Smith, sister of the bridegroom, continued with the cake serving. Mrs. Estelle Miller, aunt of the bride, served the punch and coffee. Mrs. Darlene Burrow was in charge of the bride's book.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Moeller chose a dress of powder blue Chantilly nylon lace with white and blue accessories. Mrs. Culy wore a dress of brown flowered Japanese silk with brown accessories. They both wore corsages of white carnations.

The bride wore a brown wool dress with white accessories for

Miss Hansen Wed To David DeLong

Miss Mary E. Hansen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Hansen, Coal Mine road, became the bride of David DeLong, Phoenix, in a ceremony held Sunday, November 18, at the First Methodist church in Medford. Dr. Raymond E. Balcomb officiated at the double ring service held at 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

For her wedding the bride wore a gray suit with blue accessories and a corsage of white flowers. Blanche Akers, sister of the bridegroom, was the bride's only attendant. Eugene Hansen, brother of the bride, served as best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents and was attended by 50 relatives and friends of the couple.

For the reception the rooms were decorated with fall flowers. After a wedding trip to Oakland and San Francisco the newlywed couple will make their home in Phoenix.
