Couple Wed In Ceremony At Church

Rose and white chrysanthemums decorated the Friends church in Medford, Friday, November 23, for the wedding of Miss Glenna May Johnson to Daniel Leon Gunter held at 8 o'clock in the evening. The Rev. Gerald Smith, Eagle Point, pastor of Reese Creek Gospel church, officiated at the double ring ceremony attended by 45 friends and relatives of the couple.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee A. Johnson of Eagle Point, and had been making her home at 1902 Myrtle lane, Medford. Mr. Gunter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude L. Gunter, 1596 South Peach street, Medford.

The bride wore a ballerina length dress of white lace over taffeta styled on princess lines. Her shoulder length veil fell from a crown of lace and pearls and she carried a white orchid encircled by Stephanotis on a white Bible. She was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Marian Hill of Napa, Calif., was maid of honor. Bridesmaid was Miss Dorothy Stephenson also of Napa. They wore taffeta dresses with matching headbands and shoes and carried rose chrysanthemums on white tulle. Miss Hill wore rose white Miss Stephenson was in pale pink. Cheryl Dee Hefley, flower girl, wore a short pale pink taffeta dress.

Jimmy Lee served as best man for his brother-in-law and Jerry Abbott and Hubert Hewitt seated the guests.

Traditional wedding organ music was played. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church. The bride wore a navy blue knit suit with blue accessories for her traveling attire. The newlywed couple are making their home at 513 Palm street, Medford, after a wedding trip to Eugene.

The bride attended Eagle Point High school and was employed in the business office at Bear Creek orchards. The bridegroom attended Medford High school and is employed by Huffman Truck and Auto Parts.

Toronto Is Home of Newlyweds

St. John's Anglican church in Toronto, Ontario, was the setting Friday, October 5, for the wedding of Miss Marilyn Elizabeth Wilkins of Toronto, and Robert D. Elhart, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Elhart, 1024 South Holly street, Medford. The double ring ceremony was held at 7:30 o'clock in the evening and was attended by close friends and relatives of the couple.

Miss Wilkins is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wilkins of Toronto. Mr. Elhart, an executive placement consultant for J. B. Fraser company, has been making his home in Toronto.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin and nylon tulle floor length gown. Her shoulder length veil fell from a crown necklace and pearl earrings, a gift from the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of pink and white rosebuds.

The couple was attended by the twin sister of the bride and her husband.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. For her traveling attire the bride wore a tweed suit with tan leather accessories and fur cape. The newlyweds are now at home at 40 Park road, Apartment 201, Toronto 5, Ontario, Canada, after a wedding trip to New York City.

The bride attended business school in Canada and was a secretary in the advertising department of Cookfield, Brown and company, limited. Mr. Elhart attended Ashland schools and Southern Oregon college. He was graduated from Chicago university with a degree in business administration and was employed by Proctor and Gamble company in Canada prior to enlisting in Officers' Candidate school, Ft.
