The Medical Roundup

by Walter Alvarez

Emeritus Consultant in Medicine,
Mayo Clinic
Emeritus Professor of Medicine,
Mayo Foundation

Recently, I reported that Drs. Salk Polio Vaccine is Good. Dr. David E. Price, assistant surgeon general of the United States Public Health Service, recently reported that this year not a single child who had the three Salk poliomyelitis vaccine shots had died of the disease. From Jan. 1 through September 22, there have been 11,503 new cases of polio against 21,751 for the same period last year. There have been 4,991 paralytic cases against 7,705 for 1955. All of which is very hopeful.

Dr. Alvarez hopes his readers will understand that it would be impossible for him to answer requests for information or to attempt to diagnose by mail.

MOO-O-O-S AND MUSINGS

Because Christmas happens to fall on a holiday this year, the following day has been set aside to be observed as Wednesday.

This won't happen again for 700 years so don't let it throw you off schedule.

Silver Holloware Gift May Serve

A Christmas gift of silver holloware can be a two-fold gift—or perhaps even three-fold—for the lucky person who receives it. The Jewelry Industry Council tells us that this is so because many pieces of holloware have a second and third use, making them as versatile as they are beautiful. Many of them, too, can be put to use in handsome holiday decorations as soon as they're received.

The simple gravy boat, for one thing, can lead a more than double life by looking pretty as a holder for fruit centerpieces, or perhaps at this time of year, it will look festive when filled with a mixture of tiny pine cones, Christmas tree balls and fresh holly. Frank the graceful lines of the gravy boat with silver candlesticks to which you have tied a be-ribboned pine cone and nobody will care whether you use this pretty silver piece for gravy again.

A vegetable dish is a vegetable dish truly enough, but when it is a silver one it makes a gracious addition to the living room coffee table when you float a couple of colorful posies in it. The same is true of the silver compote whose life you may have been limiting to such duties as serving after-dinner mints.

A small bunch of grapes trailing over the side of the compote and decorated with brightly colored leaves will add a dramatic touch to a small dinner table set for two, or to a side table in the living or dining room.

So, don't hide your silver when it is not in use for the single purpose for which it was named. Give it double or even triple use—by letting it have a chance to do one or two of the many extra duties that readily come to mind to your silver's many useful possibilities.
